

announced in Washingtion "two hours in advance of the mail."

No one of that days probably not even the Professor himself, dreamed how closely the Electric Wire would be interwoven with our daily life. Now, railroad trains are run by electricity. Theives are caught by electricity .---Lost children are found by electricity. Armies march and fleets sail at its bidding. Two friends in remote towns, by its help, sit down and have a friendly game of Chess. Two Emperors, a thousand miles apart, by its help, carry on a seige of a distant city.

By night it files all over the world, gathering news to serve up to us at breakfast. By day it flies all over the world, here congratu lating a bride, there ordering a funeral, here warning of disaster, there summoning help to a wreck, here buying pork by the bundred barrels, there selling grain by the thousand bushels, arranging for feasts and fights for sermons and stock bargains, for the harmonies of a concert and the discords of a convention, for law-making and law-breaking, the fall di Empires and the fall of the thermometer, and . the candidates for the Presidency and the candidates for the Penitentiary. Truly the romance of the Arabian Nights is tame besides the reality of the Electric Wire.

A REAL KING. - The King of Sardinia, says Alexander Dumas, looks like a man forty-five years of age, frank, vigorous, and sincere; an early riser, and a keen sportsman with a dog and gun. He ninkes a light breakfast, which he eats standing, but makes a hearty dinner, laying aside all sceremony. Sunday is the day of general reception, when all may enter from 11 to 3 o'clock ; but if any one desires a private sudience, he must apply for it by letter, and he will obtain it in a day or two, for Victor Emanuel opens all his letters himself.

One day, when the King was out shooting. a peasant, to whom he was unknown, but who admired his skill, offered him two mute (SI4) to rid him of a fox that infested the land "Agreed," said the King, "I will come to-morrow with my dog and shoot it." True to his word, he shot the fox the next day, and receiv ing his money, tossed it in his hands, saying, This is the first money I have ever earned : it is a pleasure to receive it." The next day his Majesty, in return for the money, sent some valuable presents to the peasant's wife. Victor Emanuel is easy of 'access; he goes out alone, and enters the sheatres by the public doors .-One day the portless of the Ingennes theatre caught a gentleman puffing cigar smoke in her cat's face. Rushing to the rescue of her favorite, she caught the tormentor by the arm, and on his turning around, recognized the King.

LOGICAL DEDUCTION .- At a protracted meeting held some time ago, a hymn was given out which cantained the words-"There is no more sorrow there." At the close of the hymn, a brother stood up and shouted in a voice of thunder, . Yes, brethern, that's no sorrow in Heaven And why not? Because in the words of this beautiful hymn, that's no sorrer that." This brilliants deduction brought out a by stander, who observed : "That's what I call coming out of the same hole you went in at, friend !" -

A gentleman said to bis friend the others day, "How do you like the new minister ?" He re-

No. 832 Market St., Philadelphia, Sole Agent for Philadelphia, Read the following from the new York Courier: ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.--Weards happy to inform our fellow critens that there is one place in our city where the physician, aboliceary, and country merchant, can go, and purchase pure wines and Liquors, has imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an clatorate description of this merchan's extensive busi-ness, although it will well repay ary stranger or citizen ito visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse. Nos. 18, 20, and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stoce of Schangus on hand ready jor shument could dot have been less than thirty thousand cases: the Brandy some ten thousand cases- Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thisu-sand bases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Ctoix Rum, some very joid and aquid to any in this country. He also had three large collars, filled with Brandy, wine, &, in Casks, under Gue-tom House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnappa last year ambuned to one hundred and eighty thon and dozen, and we hope that In less than two years ho may be eyally successful with his brandies and wines. It is business merits the patronago of every lover of bis species. Private families who wais pute wines and Liquors for medical use, should send their priders direct to Mr. Wife until every apothecary in the land make up their minds to duscard the postonous stuff from their alactres, and replace it with Wolfe's pure wines and Liquors. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, put up assorted cases of wines find luquors. Such a mah, and such a, merclant, thould beau-tained against his tens of thousands of oppodents in the Dai-ted States, who sell nothing but initiations, runnous alles to human health and happiness.
