We learn from a co respondent in Chatham hat a sad accident occurred in that neighborhood on this region. a 9th inst. A very intereding little girl, aged about years, the daughter of Mi Stephen Martin, came to er death by accidentally filling into a kettle of hot rater. She lived about a fix after the accident.

The Exhibition of he students of the Wellsoro Academy came off of Friday evening last, as dvertised. The Court H use was well filled, and with the exception of the i list of a few young men rowdies, we ought to say, in the galleries, every-hing was pleasant and agr cable. The entertainment vas every way creditable to those having it in charge, and the audience seemed well pleased. The singing f the little children was particularly fine, and elicied much enthusiasm. The colloquies, recitations, &c., were for the most part well chosen, and gave, so far we have learned, satisfaction. The declaiming was of a high grade, and the speeches selected showed he good taste of the declair ners. Everything would have passed off in the best rder, had it not been for a few rowdies in the galleries, who always infest places of amusement, and who will neither hear themselves nor permit others to hear. We trust that hereafter they will either conduct the insteves in a proper manner, or have sense enough orsely away altogether.
