

THE AGITATOR. CAL AND MISCELLANEOUS. H. J. RAMSDELL, Editor.

Wellboro, Wednesday, March 27, 1861.

W. P. FERRIS & Co., 110 Nassau St., New York, and 10 St. Boston, are the Agents for the Agitator, and the largest circulating Newspaper in the State and the Canada. They are authorized to contract at our lowest rates.

New Advertisements. The Saraparilla. J. C. Ayer & Co.

Administrators Notice. Estate of Isaac W. Smith. Machine for Sale. Wright & Bailey.

To Correspondents. "Eye Witness" Blotter. We received your communication too late for week's paper. "Ivy." We must take time to enter your last favor.

We learn that the Spring Term of the Wellboro Academy opened on Monday last with a very attendance. This is as it should be.

LOST AN EYE.—On Saturday morning last, George Fellows of Delmar, whilst trying to cut a small piece of a steel bar, was with an accident which he lost one of his eyes. It seems that on striking the bar, the piece flew up striking and igniting the eye.

The Editor of this paper has received the appointment of Post Master in this Borough. To the friends in and around Wellboro who joined in sending this appointment for us, we tender our hearty acknowledgments. In a few days the Post Office will be removed from its present location to Smith's Store—the most central, and therefore the most convenient place for it in town.

We have commenced in this week's issue a new Column on the fourth page, which we will endeavor to fill each week with the most useful articles selected from several Agricultural periodicals. We shall also publish useful and valuable recipes for our keepers, and we invite farmers and others to send us their original suggestions from their own experience, for the benefit of their neighbors.

New Post Master.—We learn that John Smith, Esq., of Blossburg has been appointed Route Postman at the Corning and Blossburg Road edge Lyman. C. H. Thompson, Esq., has been appointed Postmaster at Corning. Mr. Alford of the town at Towanda. Mr. Burgess of the Telegraph at Canaanburg. Mr. Lathrop at Eggenroose; Mr. Cochran at Union, at Ganogaque. We shall publish a list of the new appointments in this county as soon as they are made.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday afternoon at North Dart, son of Justice Dart of Charleston, was chopping in the woods with his brother Henry. He had chopped a small-sized tree when on falling it struck a larger one. When they had got the tree nearly cut through, the smaller one became engaged and fell, striking Justice Dart on the head, wounding his skull and right shoulder blade. He was buried home in a coffin and died in four hours. The deceased was about 27 years of age, and returned from California last Fall after an absence of about eight years.

A FACT.—You may read many of the literary papers for a year, and scarcely find a fact that will make you wiser and better. All romances, fictions, tales, and legends, big words, equipped in titles and erudition, big soundings in epaulettes, like a love of a moustache, turning the heads of admiring maidens—the every day history of life ingeniously belied, and beautifully veiled. And yet it says ends most charmingly. Hundreds of persons cannot afford a home paper in the course of a year except three times the amount it would cost, in purchasing this trash.

A MAN LOST AND FOUND DEAD.—On Tuesday, 21st inst., Andrew Jordan, residing on Kettle Creek, City Township, this county, left his public house to go home, in company with three or four other persons. They took a route leading twelve or fifteen miles through the woods, and by some means separated from each other. Jordan did not arrive and search being made, he was found dead on Saturday the 19th inst., about eight or ten miles from the place from where he started, and only a few rods from the direct path. He leaves a wife and five or six children.—Lock Haven Watchman.

ANOTHER RAT TRAP.—Tioga County is undoubtedly one of the best for the creation of the article of rat traps. Whether our inventive genius runs to traps more than to anything else; or whether there are more rats and other thieving animals in our midst than there ought to be in the course of "nature" we do not pretend to say. Certain it is, however, that at least half a dozen animal traps have been invented in our county within the past two years. The last number of the Scientific American publishes the fact that a patent has been granted to H. D. Downing and P. G. Walker of Delmar, and to P. G. Walker and Wesley Pitts of Charleston, for another one. We have already described it in our columns.

Coner already or with his Lady's Book for April, containing another of his magnificent and superbly colored double month fashion-plates. In addition to this is a Quadruple Extension Fashion-Plate, containing the various styles of Spring Dresses. New patterns of Bonnets and Head-dresses are also given. "The Pot Donkey" is the steel plate in this number, and a very pretty one. Miss Javrin gives another of her delightful set of songs, and "Mrs. Rasher" gives forth in her usual facetious style. "Drawing Lessons" and "Model Cottages" are continued in this number; and the children are taken care of, for they have a department of their own, in which they are taught to make toys for their own amusement.

THE NEXT SESSION OF THE TIOGA COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE will be held in the Charleston, Flushing Mills, 10th, 11th and 12th of April.

The following letters have been received by the County Superintendent from Messrs. B. Chas. W. Sanders of New York, and Samuel P. Bates of Harrisburg, relative to the County Institute to be held next month at Tioga. Every teacher in the County should attend.

New York, March 11th, 1861. HIRSH O. JONES, Dear Sir: Yours of the 4th inst. is received. If no unforeseen Providence prevents, I will be with you on the 9th of April to assist at your Institute. I am, Respectfully Yours, CHAS. W. SANDERS.

Harrisburg, March 11, 1861. Dear Sir: Your note has just come to hand. You are at liberty to make public, that I shall be at Tioga on the 9th of April to assist in conducting your Institute, if nothing unforeseen prevents. Yours truly, SAMUEL P. BATES, Deputy Sup't Com. Schools.

HON. C. JONES, Deq., Sup't Tioga County.

MUSICAL. Scitwan, March 13, 1861. And Land Farm's Court, Hall, New York. Each week our Halling at the close of the Singing School which commenced at Liberty Hall, near Gray's Valley, on the 11th, and closed on the 16th of the present month, under the direction of Prof. D. C. Jewett. We had three sessions each day, and although our numbers were small, and the time short, which to practice, we felt that we were beginning to sing not only with the voice, but with the understanding also. Indeed, we had the assurance from the listeners at the Semi-Concert of the last evening, that the words, so often inaudible, were plainly understood; one of the characteristics of Mr. Jewett's instruction. We recognize in him a complete knowledge of the science of his profession, combined with thoroughness and a peculiar ability to instruct, which eminently fit him for teaching classes to "unlearn what they learned amiss," and starting them in the right direction. With him success and hope he may continue his labors until the miserable singing to which in most of our churches we are compelled to listen, shall have become better adapted to the worship of the great Author of our being. But while thus employed in different localities, may be remembered, that he has the confidence, the gratitude, the affection, and the assurance of further support from his little band of singers in Sullivan, W.

EDUCATIONAL. CHARLESTON, March 10, 1861.

To the Editor of the Agitator. DEAR SIR: We as a neighborhood were highly gratified by the exercises at the close of J. R. Jones' School, which came off on Saturday, March 2d. The afternoon's exercises consisted of an examination in the various branches which had been taught during the term. The pupils recited exceedingly well, and showed by their attainments that both they and their teacher had been attentive and industrious. We believe that a teacher who makes his pupils the object of his prayer as well as his care, can seldom fail to succeed. On Monday evening March 4th, their exhibition came off and took the entire audience by surprise. The last exercise was a prize declamation.—Seven young men spoke for the prize, and declaimed admirably. We did not think these young men possessed the faculties of speaking so well as they did. But we must bear in mind that there is elasticity in the human mind capable of contracting and expanding, but will not show itself until weight of affliction is put upon it. Its powers may be compared to those of a vehicle whose springs are so contrived that they get along smoothly enough when loaded, but jolt uncomfortably when they have nothing to bear. It gives me much pleasure to think that the young men of this place have "Onward" for their motto. And may they put forth their utmost efforts to reach the goal which they desire; assured that they will never regret their efforts at improvement for God will amply reward them. D. G. EDWARDS.

Get D. B. De Land & Co.'s Saleratus; it is pure; it is perfectly reliable; it will give the most complete and entire satisfaction; it is HEALTHY, from the fact that it is perfectly free from impurities. D. B. De Land & Co. are sending out patients and responses to furnish consumers with the best Saleratus that it is possible to manufacture. These goods are manufactured, and for sale at wholesale, at the Fairport, Monroe County, N. Y. For sale by dealers generally. The principal grocers throughout the country also wholesale it.

MARRIED. On the 24th inst., at Ira Wilsons, by J. D. Houghton, Esq., Mr. WILLIAM NOBLES to Miss REBECCA LOMINGER, all of Delmar.

DIED. On the 21st inst., at the residence of his father in Charleston, Tioga Co. Pa., JOHN NORRIS DART, aged 27 years.

DEPARTURE OF THE YOUNGEST SON OF JUSTICE AND JEMIMA DART. At the age of sixteen he embraced Religion, and became a member of the Free-Will Baptist Church. He embarked for California at the age of nineteen, and after residing eight years in that State, returned to become the guardian of his aged parents. In his society they had anticipated much enjoyment in their declining years, and congratulated him on his return. He was a most dutiful son. But treacherously death has intervened, and taken in the vigor of youth and bounding health, him on whom their hearts were set. About three months after his return, accompanied by his brother cheerful and happy he went to the woods, and while felling a tree was crushed by the falling limb. In a state of insensibility he survived two or three hours and expired.

How agonizing is this providence. Kept through all the perils of a sea voyage, and that landed in safety, to be embraced by friends, and just as his fond parents had begun to realize their long cherished expectations, he was snatched away. He was young, and his parents were old. His death is a great calamity to his friends. Under the rigid test of California life it retained its lustre, and returned with him as a "trial in the fire." Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord. May the deeply-affected parents, brothers and sisters, and the extensive circle of mourning relatives realize that in this, their affliction, they are sustained by the presence of that "Friend that sticks closer than a brother."

SPECIAL NOTICES. WHO SHOULD USE DR. J. BOYER DODD'S VEGETABLE IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS?

All who are afflicted with Indigestion, Consumption or Weak Lungs should use them. All who suffer from Weak Stomachs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, or Pleth should use them. All who are afflicted with General or Nervous Debility, Restlessness, or Sleep should use them. All persons who are convalescent after fever or other sickness should use them. Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, Lecturers, and all public speakers should use them. Book Keepers, and all persons leading a sedentary life should use them. All who require a stimulant or tonic should use them. All who are afflicted with a dull spirit and wish to reform, should use them. They are made of a pure Sherry Wine, and of the native plants and herbs of the country, and should be recommended to all physicians, clergymen, and all friends of humanity. They are prepared by an experienced and skillful physician, and contain no medicinal properties, are a most delightful beverage; and yet, as a medicine, are as innocent and harmless as the dew of heaven.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

For the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Erysipelas, Ringworms, Salt Rheum, Itch, Pimples, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases. OAKLAND, Ind., 24th June, 1859. J. C. AYER & Co., Gentl: I feel it my duty to acknowledge that your Sarsaparilla has done for me what no other medicine could. Having inherited a Scrofulous Taint, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands, which would not heal until I used your Sarsaparilla. It cured me of all these troubles, and I feel that I owe you a public acknowledgment. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. I read in the Boston Herald of your Sarsaparilla, and I bought a bottle of it. I took it as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a glass of water, three times a day. My skin soon began to form under the skin, which itches while I sit up. My skin is now clear, and I know by my strength and the good effects of your Sarsaparilla, that you do believe that I feel well. I am now a healthy man, and I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours, ALVIN R. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworms, Salt Rye, Dropsy, &c. I have written you on the 12th Sept. 1859, that you had cured an intractable case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the use of your Sarsaparilla, and since that time I have been cured by large doses of the same; and I can cure the common Scrofula by it constantly. Bronchitis, Catarrh of the Stomach, &c. Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three weeks ago I was afflicted with a violent attack of Biliousness, which I had suffered from over two years. I was cured by your Sarsaparilla, and I feel that I owe you a public acknowledgment. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. Having inherited a Scrofulous Taint, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands, which would not heal until I used your Sarsaparilla. It cured me of all these troubles, and I feel that I owe you a public acknowledgment. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. I read in the Boston Herald of your Sarsaparilla, and I bought a bottle of it. I took it as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a glass of water, three times a day. My skin soon began to form under the skin, which itches while I sit up. My skin is now clear, and I know by my strength and the good effects of your Sarsaparilla, that you do believe that I feel well. I am now a healthy man, and I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours, ALVIN R. TALLEY.
