Celebration at Knoxville.
Knoxville Borough Ordinance.
Administrator's Notice.—Estate of D. H. Spurr.
Army Garments.—Ballou Brothers.
Mohawk Chief.—E. A. Smead.

☞ Dr. Humphrey of Osceola, has been appointed Assistant Surgeon in the Reserve Corps of this State.

☞ Letters from our correspondents at Harrisburg, are necessarily crowded out this week. The Regiment is not yet formed.

☞ In consequence of the delay, and non-arrival of paper from the Paper Mills at Ithaca, we are obliged to go to press this week with only a half sheet.

☞ "KEEP COOL."—Our enterprising friend, Mr. E. Roy, is again keeping folks "cool" with his Soda Fountain. Drop in, and let "Billy" fix you up a glass.

☞ KATE DEAN'S Concert last night, was well attended by a large audience. To-night she sings again with a change of programe. Those who did not attend last night, had better not miss the opportunity to hear her to-night.

☞ Mr. Wilson McAlarney, has purchased, and will hereafter conduct the Potter Journal on the pay down system. As he is a graduate of the Lewisburg Chronicle office, we have reason to expect that he will make a good Journalist. Success to him.

☞ Our friend Strock, of the Johnston House, at Tioga, intends to have a Ball on the evening of the Fourth, as well as Taylor. We should therefore conclude that the young folks of that neighborhood who desire to "trip the light fantastic," will not lack for opportunities.

☞ PLUCKY.—A number of the volunteers from Knoxville, who returned from Camp Curtin because they could not wait to be accepted, have joined Capt. Erwin's Company of Painted Post, and are to be immediately mustered into the Sickl's Brigade. They are bound to see something anyway.

☞ The Towanda papers contain an obituary of N. T. Bogart, who died at East Troy, (late Camp Mason,) aged 26 years and 5 months. He contracted the disease of which he died, by exposure while on his way with his company to Harrisburg. He was among the first in Bradford County to respond to the call of the Government, and he seems to have been beloved by all who knew him for his generous and noble qualities. He was an only son, and his death comes upon his parents with bitter sorrow.

☞ KNOXVILLE ITEMS.—Our correspondent at Knoxville, writes us that on the night of Wednesday, the 5th inst, a fine, young, spotted grey horse, belonging to John Kelts, Jr., of that place, was stolen from the pasture, and every effort is being made to recover it, but as yet without success. A young man, about twenty-three years old, said to be formerly of Sand Creek, Otsego Co. N. Y., has been boarding there at Closson's Hotel for about a week, and is now missing. Various circumstances point him out as the thief.—Twenty-five dollas reward is offered for the recovery of each, or either, thief or horse.

☞ THE FOURTH OF JULY.—Up to this time, our citizens have taken no action whatever in regard to the celebration of the coming National Anniversary. Knoxville, Farmington, Mansfield and other places in the County, have already moved. Why should Wellsboro be behind them? Let us have some action in the matter. We had an excellent celebration, for a local one last year, let us repeat it—and better it. The associations clustering around the day, will awaken at this time in every bosom, newer and stronger feelings of love and veneration for our glorious Union. Who will move?

☞ NOTICE.—By an act of Assembly passed May 1861, the Associate Judges and County Commissioners are authorized to make a temporary loan for the purpose of supporting families dependent upon such volunteers as have been enrolled and mustered into service from this County under orders from the Government.

Now notice is hereby given, that said Judges and Commissioners (composing a Board of Relief) will meet at the Commissioners Office, on the 1st day of July next, for the purpose of receiving proposals for a loan (on short time) of $1000, and for the transaction of such other business as may be legally brought before them. By order of Board of Relief,

A. J. SOFIELD, Secretary.

The Small Pox in Lawrenceville.

EDITOR AGITATOR, Dear Sir: The aerial flights of "Invisible Green," I fear, are not so much, above the murky atmosphere of this delightful city, but that, the prying eyes of the villagers, occasionally get glimpses of greenness, out rivaling the leaves of the trees.

Again—Your fair correspondent "Invisible Green," calls your attention "to this beautiful valley, where sits, at the confluence of the Tioga and Cowanesque a city, the denizens whereof, believe it to be situate very near the centre of the world." Oh! the fantasies of balloon dreamers! Lawrenceville is composed of about six hundred inhabitants. The most of them, not "untravelled persons." Besides, having read something of the mighty globe, they live on, in my estimation, know—pretty well, the situation of their own town. Which is a

"Little spot of happy ground
Where village pleasure goes around,
Without the village tattling."

CHAPTER II.

Now, "Editor Agitator," please allow me—who with all the "umbleness" of Urial Heep, taking my position in the heat and dust of the "terra firma," with the rest of my fellow mortals (for balloon ascension, sometimes produces giddiness in the head, which must render the close, strait for wind, practical examination of earthly objects, especially in a murky atmosphere, rather difficult to achieve) to give you the plain facts of "the excitement without a parallel"—which so disturbed the nerves "of Invisible Green," as to require a sedative to quiet them.

It was reported, a few weeks since, that three or four miles above here, a family lay sick of the small pox. The homeopathic doctor of our town was their physician. He pronounced their sickness, chicken pox. Time sped on—no one of that family died. A girl who was employed by said family to help take care of the sick—was taken ill—carried home. A physician from Tioga pronounced her case the small pox.

This same family sent for another young girl to work for them. She came, not knowing that they were sick of the small pox. In time, she was taken sick and died, and was buried in the night. Her parents knew nothing of her fate, until a messenger went to tell them. A few hours before she died, her feeble voice was heard, calling "some one to come to her," but no one went. She died alone, with none to comfort, or sooth her spirit in its struggle with its mortal form.

This was the third case of the chicken pox in that direction.

Shortly after, the homeopathic physician "of our city," was taken sick. With his face full of eruptions, he made his appearance on our streets, in the stores, shops, etc., as usual. Whether he was deceived in thinking it the chicken pox I do not know. Therefore will not upbraid him, but mention these facts, to explain "the facts without a parallel."

Shortly after, a Mr. Cottle, (who visited in the family of said physician,) was taken sick at one of our hotels, right in the centre of our town, on its principal street. His case being "rather a hard looking one," was pronounced by said homeopathic physician, to be the erysipelas. The man being in no condition to be taken into his buggy, in order to escape the clutches of practical physicians—three or four experienced doctors, who are well known to the denizens of this town, and many other larger ones, called upon him and pronounced his disease "small pox in its worst form." The man rotted and died in our midst! Shortly before his death the homeopathic doctor pronounced it the small pox.

During his sickness, he was attended by a lady friend, who was relieved from watching two or three nights, by a gentleman of our town. Two or three days before the patient died, this lady applied to the Burgess of our town for more help. Her call was immediately responded to. A man over that night.

It is true the people did not rush to the sick man's chamber, in large numbers. Having something of a dread of said erysipelas. But they were sorry that a fellow mortal should be so stricken down. Had it been in the power of any one to heal the sick man, it would have been done.

But the days of miracles lie in the dim past. Jesus of Nazareth walks the earth no more in human form.

In the interval of these transpiring events, the children of the homeopathic physician came to light, and certainly had had the same chicken pox! judging from the looks of their faces.

A few days since the first gentleman, who went to the assistance of Mr. Cottle, was taken sick. His daughter left the house by the advice of friends. He did not come "nigh death's door," nor even within the shadow of it, having had the small pox in early youth. This time it only impressed his face with a few marks. He again breathes the pure air of heaven, convalescent like, snuffing it from his honey suckled portico.

The last man who was sent by the Burgess, has been sick. Probably a touch of "the chicken pox."

Now, Mr. Editor, while the above was transpiring, the streams of commerce went on as usual. "The noise of the wheel and the anvil," echoed to their own music. The trade was paralyzed to some extent. People fearing to visit our town. The war news was eagerly read.

The female portion of the populace, "true to their instincts," cooked, swept, mended old clothes, planned, plotted and contrived to make the two ends of the day bring forth fruits, meet for the approbation of their lords and masters—pausing to read the war news, and feel sorry for the sick man, a few doors from them—to look surprised at people from abroad, who exclaimed, "I never did see such people! Why you are blindly calm to your dangers. Nothing done to remove the contagions? Such an imposition practiced upon your community! Let a man come into our place and coolly spread the small-pox, and before he got half through with his work, he would be hung." But said some of our people, perhaps he was deceived—did not understand this disease. "Fudge! no man should pretend a knowledge of medicine, and much less practice it, who is so liable to be deceived; for thereby, he might endanger the lives of hundreds of his fellow kind."

As for the five hundred cases of inflamation of the brain—let me ask you, Mr. Editor, doesn't a high ascension in a balloon, produce singular effects upon the brain for the time being? Should we be capable of judging of the condition of our fellow mortals below, who look like specks, or nuts, moving upon "the wilderness of wo."

As for the forty thousand rumors, we, the male and female portion of this city, don't take those papers containing such news. As for the thirty-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine lies, Invisible Green's arithmetical calculation, must have been made from Madam Rumor's journal. The people of this city don't take that pamphlet.

As for "having another chase," probably we may walk out to see the wonderful phenomena recently discovered, a green speck of a balloon, with a face peering over its sides, endeavoring to penetrate the fog, (which the geological position of our town, subjects us to) which surrounds the city of sundown.

BOROUGH ORDINANCE.

Be it enacted by authority of the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Knoxville:

That the act of the said Council, passed Dec. 1st, A. D., 1851, and amended and published April 2d, 1853, be further amended so as to exclude that part of the side walk on the south side of Main street between Water street and the west end of the Boro, from the provisions of said act.

And also to extend the side walk from the west line of H. G. Shorts lot to the east line of said Boro.

Also that the side walks shall be graded before paving, so that the top of the pavement will be not less than six inches, nor more than ten inches above the grade of the ditch alongside as fixed by the Council.

Also that good plank or gravel walks approved by the Street Commissioner and Council will be accepted in lieu of Flag pavements if desired by parties.

Also that the time for completing said walks be extended to 1st Sept. 1861. J. P. BILES, Burgess.

GROVER & BAKER'S

CELEBRATED NOISELESS

SEWING MACHINES,

FOR FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING USE,

Agencies in all the principal Cities and Towns in the United States.

The Grover and Baker Sewing Machine Company are now manufacturing, and, have on exhibition at their different salesrooms, machines making the Shuttle or Lock-Stitch, of the same patterns and at the same prices as their celebrated Grover and Baker Stitch Machines, thus affording the public the advantage of comparing the stitches of the two leading machines and exercising their own judgment as to their respective merits. This is the only company that manufactures both kinds of machines, and therefore the only one that can offer this privilege to the purchaser.

"We speak from experience when we say that, after having tried all the principal Sewing Machines, we must accord to that of Grover and Baker the pre eminence. Those indispensable features of sewing, strength, uniformity and elasticity, all of which are brought out in this incomparable invention, make it the first sewing machine in the country. Others have their good points, but this combines all, and possesses every characteristic necessary to make it most desirable."—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

"MERIT VS. PRETENCE.—We perceive that the Grover and Baker Sewing Machine is every day growing more and more in favor, both for manufacturing and family purposes—but especially as adapted to all the requirements of family use. Other machines, by dint of brazen puffery and conniving with committees at annual fairs, have been thrust forward into the first place; but they are fast losing this unmerited position. The real merits of the Grover and Baker Machine are beginning to be known in a practical way, and daily is the demand for them increasing, while the demand for heretofore better known, but inferior machines, is proportionally decreasing. So it turns out in this, as in many other instances that 'honesty is the best policy,' and the right, in the end comes uppermost.

"A trial of over two years enables us to say with the greatest confidence that there is no better machine for general family use than Grover and Baker's Sewing Machine Co. It makes a beautiful elastic seam that does not rip with wear or washing, runs almost noiselessly, is plain, simple, easy to work, and not liable to get out of repair, fastens the ends of its own thread, and uses threads and silks directly from the spools on which they are bought."—N. Y. Leader.

Grover and Baker's Machines work in their peculiar stitch, and fabrics put together by it, may wear and drop to pieces from original weakness or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they can not; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.—N. Y. Daily News.

"The points we conceive most necessary and important to meet the wide range of requirements in a machine for family sewing, we find more fully combined in the Grover and Baker, viz., extent of capacity, simplicity of construction, ease of management, advantage of using thread from two spools without re-winding, strength of work, elasticity, durability and regularity of stitch, and quietness of movement. We therefore mark award to the Grover and Baker."—Report of Tennessee State Fair of 1860—also of St. Louis State Fair of 1860.
