The Convention of delegates from the light counties of Western Virginia, sitting at Wheeling, passed an ordinance establishing a new State, composed of thirty-nine counties of Virginia, lying went of the main chain of the Allegheny mounts ins, the extreme Southern point being about in the latitude of 37° 20'. It seems to have then considered prudent not to include any cornties in the new State, except those where the U-con feeling is unmistakably predominant. But Jertain adjoining counties may be annexe !, il their people vote to do so. The counties it cluded in the boundaries of the new state-whi is name, by the way, is to be Kanawha-had a population according to the Census of 1860 of 281,786. It may be interesting to have them named, with their respective population, and we have, therefore, prepared the folloging list: POPULATION OF KANAWAHA

The whole Copulation of Virginia in 1861 was, 1,593,199 including 495,826 slaves, feaving a white population of 1,097,373. Not more than eight or the thousand of the slaves were in the countier now included in the State of Kanawaha, so hak in losing this population of 281,780, Virgit a loses one-fourth of her white inhabitants. As there are a number of other counties that will be sure to come into the new State if the Fe eral Government affords their people sufficien protection, the loss will soon be still grenter. Moreover, the territory of Kanawha, including the fine valley of the river of that name, and the fertile region along the Ohio, is as fine as any in the State, and in the decade between 1850 and 1860, population incressed there more rapidly than in any other part of What effect this new movement is to have ppon Federal operations, we cannot tell. But we presume that the action of the Convention has been in accordance with the views of the Government.

GEIL McCLELLAN.

Gen. McClullan seems to be the right man for the head of the army. Like Napoleon, he looks after the confort of his soldiers and applies summary publishment to direlict officers. The following which we take from a Washington despatch vi is Philadelphia Inquirer of Tuesday, is a sample of his vigilance and prompt justice

"Gen. McClillan is in the habit of riding around occasionally in citizen's dress, accompanied by a few of his staff. A few days ago he was walking through one of the encampments, across he Potomac, and passing the rear of the tents he saw a bucket of coffee standing near a fife. He asked what it was, and one of the so diers said 'coffee."

"It looks more like slop," he replied.
"Oh," said the soldier, "it is not fit to drink, but we have to put up with it, and our food is not a bit hetteri". "Well, whose fault is it?" he asked.

"Oh, our Quartermaster is drunk most of the time, and when he is not he is studying holy to cheat."

McClellan presed on, and seeing more evidence of the lirty and slovenly manner in which she Quar ermaster conducted his orierations in his ter, he accosted him with the remark that the min were complaining of bad treatment from him.

The Quarter patter flew into a passion, and swore it was it one of his business, and he had better not come eneaking around trying to make mischief. Mc Hellan answered him, telling him he had bet er be cautious how he talked. Quartermaster eplied,

"Who are pu, that you assume so much apparent authority?" I sm George B. McClellan, and you can pack up your trans and leave !"

The Quartergonster was struck dumb, and McClellan turned and left him. That evening, the Quartermaster left to the tune of the "Rogue's March," played by some of the boys who had got wind of it. They now have a Quartermaster wio does not "get drunk and cheat," and that regiment would risk their lives at the cannon's mouth for the man who does care how the men are provided for.

The story has been circulated around some of the eamps, and the officers are now always on the lookout for the General, and of course do not have too much lying around loose.

THE BOY'S ANSWER .- Two boys of a tender age, who went by the names of Tom and Jack, become members of a district school, in a certain New England town. On making their appearance, the teacher called them up before the assembled school, and proceeded to make perinterrogatories, concerning their names, age, &c. "Well my fine lad," said the teacher to the first one, " what is your name?"

"Tom," promptly answered the juvenile.
"Tom !" said the teacher, "that doesn't sound well. Lemember always to speak the full name. You should have said Thomas. Now my son, " (turning to the other boy, whose expectant face suddenly lighted up with the satisfaction of a newly comprehended idea,) "now then, will you tell me what your name

" Jackass," drawled the lad in a tone of confident decision.

Boils, Blains, sind all Skin Dicases.

J. C. Ayra & Co. Bonts: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous intection, I have suffered from it invarious ways for years. Sometimes it burst on it illers on my, hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scept said cars with one sore, which was painful and louthsome beyond description. I fried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsapa illa), for I knew from your ropatation that anything you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, yours.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Cronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zobulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hidgous swelling on the neck, which I have suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhoes or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Femate Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Chanhing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cuted many inveterate cases of Leucorrhease by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured.—Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Nothing within in his nowledge equals it for these female de-changement."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A danger-ous avarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cuted by your extract of Sarsaparilla. Our plysician thought hothing but extipation could afford re-lief, but he advised lithe trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cuttling, and it proved effectual. Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

New Orleans, 25th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarapartilla.

I have cured with it in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the citre of Venereal and Mureureal Disease Une of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his threat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Saraparrile, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believed the lisorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Saraparrilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by murcury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Saraparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this preparation form your labratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised mo.

Fraternally yours,

Rhemstism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

Rhemstism, Gout, Liver Complaint. Ds. J. C. Ayer: Sir; I have been afflicted with a painful chronic lihematism for a long time, which basiled the skill of phyticians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, uptil I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured medin two weeks, and restored my general leaths so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been a Julea Y. Getchell of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afficted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health." I tried every thing, and everything failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilk, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones. A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. who call for them. Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melan-choly, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stamulates the vital functions intolvigerous action, and thus overcomes dis-orders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident this will do for them all the

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its univivaled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly won-derful cures of pulmonary disease, have mape it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even faunties among them, who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remetly, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
