The Troy District Ministerial and Layman's Association, will hold its next meeting at the M. E. Church in Wellsboro, on the 22d inst., at 7 P. M. Preaching in the evening of the 22d and 23d.

Again we leave the roller and the ink block, to mend the tripod; for up to this time, Tuesday evening, the Editor is still adrift among the flood-wood. We confidently expect him home in time to get out, but, while we wait his coming, the work must go on, and these how unfilled columns made ready for to-morrow's mails. So we take "the chair" with a mixture of reluctance and pride—a little fearing he will be voted a bore, half hoping some fair reader may wish the Editor may never return.

As we intimated above, it is election day as we write, and the streets are filled with eager, anxious men, and the same old battle is being fought over, for the thousandth time. We, still a minor—too young even for the militia—can neither sympathize with the feelings, nor understand the motives, prompting men of all ages and conditions in life to engage with so much earnestness in these annual struggles; and as we look out upon the street to-day, we more than half wish that the years may bring to us no love for the excitement of political strife. And now, while the issues of life and death are being tried upon the tented field, while our once peaceful and still glorious country is struggling for existence, it seems to us sadly out of place to awaken old animosities, rekindle the almost extinct fires of political passion, and distract the public mind with a contest for office. But, recognizing our ignorance of, and indifference to, matters of a political nature, we dismiss the subject by saying that all the returns we can collect at the time we go to press, may be found upon the opposite page.

GYMNASTICS.—A sound mind, in a sound body, has been considered the sum of individual happiness. Gymnastic exercises have a direct tendency to promote this end. By going through the various kinds of exercises, the muscular system is symmetrically developed, the vitality of the body is invigorated, is greatly increased, and in fact the whole system is built up and renewed. Chronic diseases can be thrown off by medical movements, &c. A diseased mind is incompatible with a healthy mind. Thousands have been brought to a premature and untimely grave, have been superinduced by mere inactivity. A certain amount of bodily exercise, is just as indispensible to the maintenance of health, as pure air and a wholesome diet. Thousands have been saved from death, by other means have failed, by gymnastic exercises.

A course to the people of Wellsboro and vicinity will be of advantages, a Gymnasium has been established in Union Hall, on Main Street. All those who lead sedentary lives, and consequently feel the need of exercise, should avail themselves of the advantages this institution affords, both male and female.

DEATH OF DR. POWER.—Dr. Pliny Power, an old and respected citizen of Detroit, died suddenly on Saturday morning, September 14th. He arose in usual health, but was seized by a paralytic stroke, and died shortly after nine o'clock. Dr. Rose was immediately sent for, and other physicians summoned, and everything that could be done to save his life, but unavailingly. This was his third paralytic shock.

Dr. Power was a native of Vermont, and has resided in Michigan, since 1836. His first field of practice was in Oakland County, and subsequently he followed his profession in Macomb County, having moved to Detroit in 1848, where he has resided until his death. He studied his profession in Boston, and attained a deservedly high as a physician. Previously to studying Medicine he re-sided and practised in Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, where a brother now resides, and where he married. He was 67 years old.

Dr. Power was a member of the Legislature in 1855, and largely instrumental in procuring the passage of the Maine law, having been for many years a zealous friend of temperance. He was well known as a citizen, and his portly form and pleasant face will be missed. He was a gentleman of the old character.

He has a wife but never had any children.—Detroit Tribune.

Here and there we meet an old man who has passed down the decline of life so gently that he has not lost much of the vigor of his earlier years. Though his face be wrinkled, they are the marks of time, and not furrows of sorrow; and though his head be covered, it is the emblem of ripened age, and not the ghastly whiteness that told and treable brings to so many heads. So it is, somehow, with the seasons. Here and there, we may recognize autumn that glided smilingly into the winter. The fruitage, fully ripe, dropping its seed and the frost into the lap of the thus-stripped forests, putting on their gorgeous livery of rich and healthful maturity, rest in calm and peaceful contentment until the early blasts of winter shall bare their branches, and leave them stark and naked, awaiting the shroud of the season's burial. Such is the present autumn. The leaves, turned yellow with ripeness, still tremble upon the branches, and cling to the yet warm, green earth, and the very coloring tints that the pencil of genius can not transfer to canvass. Gentle reader, we are not moralizing upon the lesson to be drawn, from the scenes of these, and we close, with the wish that autumn in life may be as peaceful as that of this season, and that, like a shock of corn fully ripe, we may be gathered into the garners of the Lord.

As it has been said, and well said, that great occasions develop great minds; or rather, that great minds, by great emergencies, are brought from their retirement which true greatness seeks, to their proper rank, when the strong powers of mind and heart are needed. The revolution had its Washington, every great crisis in public affairs since his day, has had its special champion. But, while true men are pressing forward, what sad wreck is sometimes made of those who promise well at the outset. The nation not only had its Washington, but its Benedict Arnold. To come down from a great crisis, and from great names, to our own county, we find the same contrasts. But for the war, who would have known that Adam Dockstader was skillful with the rifle? But for the same event, who would have known the beautiful but unfortunate Dora Deo? The one rises to the occasion; whenever a rifle was wanted Adam was found; his lungs knew no weariness, his nimble fingers knew no mistakes; he was the right man at the right time. The other,—but we will spare her blushes. Their work is completed. Adam returns to his profession, to wake woodland echoes with the "wry-tailed fly," while Dora retires from the public gaze. Circumstances have given her, and we trust she will be a wiser woman. We have published her contribution to the Democrat, for weeks, gratuitously; we think she is grateful.—Adam, and Dora, farewell!

A few more of our young men left the Boro this week for Camp Curtin, from whence they will go forth to the encampments of the "grand army." Thus, from time to time, in this, as in other communities, do we miss familiar faces. Few indeed are the circles that remain unbroken! Few indeed are the homes in which there is no "vacant chair!" Never did a people make greater sacrifices than the American people are now making; never did calamity befall a nation, that left its mark so vividly upon every individual, as does that now resting on us; and we may add, that never has the heroism of a people been so rapidly and so brilliantly developed. Our men go forth with a certain knowledge that toil is to be endured, danger encountered, suffering felt—but they do not falter. Behind them are desolate homes, and lonely hearts,—and in the night-hush of the camp, with the dread silence broken only by the measured tread of the sentinel, home memories gather around them, and the influences that sadden the heart, strengthen the resolve. But the sacrifice is not made alone by those who go. It is easier to leave, than to be left; to strike out upon new scenes, than to remain within a broken circle, and amid the ruins of cherished hopes. How many mothers, and sisters, and fathers, have hallowed this second struggle for liberty with holy tears, and with sacrifices no mathematician can compute! Is it nothing to long, yet dread, to hear from the field of strife? Nothing to live, from day to day, in feverish anxiety,—in expectant grief? Yet thousands, yea, tens of thousands of mothers are thus living to-day, and giving out to the world no sign of woe. They are heroines. God bless the self-sacrificing mothers of this land, and bring back their sons; and God bless the brave boys who have left home and friends to defend the honor and preserve the liberty of this nation.

We referred last week to the flood, which had recently visited this section of country. During the past week, the reports of damages occasioned have not only been confirmed but considerably enlarged.—A correspondent at Knoxville, informs us that every "bridge across the Cowanesque in this county as far as heard from is impassable, and the most of them gone. The two Westfield bridges, the Jamison bridge, the Knox bridge and the Academy bridge (all covered bridges but one, and all county bridges) are wholly destroyed. The amount of damage done in this vicinity to crops, stock, houses, lands &c., is incalculable. Several houses were carried off at Westfield, one small dwelling from Knoxville, and at the Academy corners a fine house was carried several rods, the family being unable to escape until the flood abated. The beautiful residence of Chester Hoyt, above Osceola, was carried about one fourth of a mile and brought up all right in Bosard's corn field, the family taking a sudden pleasure excursion of which few can boast." We learn also that every grist mill on the Cowanesque was either destroyed or so injured as to be incapable for business, and the saw mills suffered in about the same way. Other sections of our county suffered more or less. At the "Meadows," the water surrounded the dwelling of Mr. Loib, and materially injured fences, ungathered crops, &c. In Southern New York, the flood was if possible, more destructive than in our own county. Considerable damage was occasioned at Corning, and along the line of the Erie Rail Road, extending almost to Dunkirk. At Hornelsville, and other points, bridges were carried away, and the business of the road is still embarassed in consequence. During the present week we have had heavy rains here, and it is feared further losses may be occasioned.

Sept. 18, 1861.-6w. Administrator.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES!!

In the month of December, 1858, the undersigned for the first time offered for sale to the public Dr. J. Bovee Dods' Imeprial Wine Bitters, and in this short period they have given such universal satisfaction to the many thousands of persons who have tried them that it is now an established article. The amount of bodily and mental misery arising simply from a neglect of small complaints is surprising and it is therefore of the utmost importance that a strict attention to the least and most trifling bodily ailment should be had; for diseases of the body must invariably affect the mind. The subscribers now only ask a trial of from all who have not used them. We challenge the world to produce their equal.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS'

These BITTERS for the cure of Weak Stomachs, General Debility, and for Purifying and Enriching the Blood, are absolutely unsurpassed by any other remedy on earth. To be assured of this, it is only necessary to make the trial. The wine itself is of a superior quality, being about one-third stronger than other wines; warming and invigorating the whole system from the head to the feet. As these Bitters are tonic and alterative in their character, so they strengthen and invigorate the whole system and give a fine tone and healthy action to all its parts, by equalizing the circulation removing obstructions, and producing a general warmth. They are also excellent for Diseases and Weakness peculiar to Females, where a Tonic is required to strengthen and brace the system. No. Lady, who is subject to lassitude and faintness, should be without them, as they are reviving their action.

THESE BITTERS
Will not only Cure, but Prevent Disease, and in this respect are doubly valuable to the person who may use them. For

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, and for all cases requiring a Tonic

Dr. Dods' Celebrated Wine Bitters
ARE UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, and for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to the use of excessive strong drink, and who wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poisons contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen, and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

In all Affections of the Head, Sick Headache, or Nervous Headache, Dr. Dods' Imperial Wine Bitters will be found to be most Salutary and Efficacious.

FEMALES.

The many certificates which have been tendered us, and the letters which we are daily receiving, are conclusive proof that among the women these Bitters have given a satisfaction which no others have done before. No woman in the land should be without them, and those who once use them will not fail to keep a supply.

DR. J. BOVCE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS

Are prepared by an eminent and skillful physician who has used them successfully in his practice for the last twenty-five years. The proprietor, before purchasing the exclusive right to manufacture and sell Dr. J. Bovee Dods' Celebrated Imperial Wine Bitters, had them tested by two distinguished medical practitioners who pronounced them a valuable remedy for disease.

Although the medical men of the country, as a general thing disapprove of Patent Medicines, yet we do not believe, that a respectable Physician can be found in the United States, acquainted with their medical properties, who will not highly approve DR. J. BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS.

In all newly settled places, where there is always a large quantity of decaying timber from which a poisonous miasma is created, these Bitters should be used every morning before breakfast.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS

Are composed of a pure and unadulterated Wine, combined with Barberry, Solomon's Seal, Comfrey, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, Spikenard, Chamomile Flowers, and Gentian. They are manufactured by Dr. Dods himself, who is an experienced and successful Physician, and hence should not be classed among the quack nostrums which flood the country, and against which the Medical Profession are so justly prejudiced.

These truly valuable Bitters have been so thoroughly tested by all classes of the community for almost every variety of disease incident to the human system, that they are now deemed indispensable as a

TONIC, MEDICINE AND A BEVERAGE.

GROVER & BAKER'S

CELEBRATED NOISELESS
SEWING MACHINES,
FOR FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING USE,

Agencies in all the principal Cities and Towns in the United States.

The Grover and Baker Sewing Machine Company are now manufacturing, and have on exhibition at their different salesrooms, machines making the Shuttle or Lock-Stitch, of the same patterns and at the same prices as their celebrated Grover and Baker Stitch Machines, thus affording the public the advantage of comparing the stitches of the two leading machines and exercising their own judgment as to their respective merits. This is the only company that manufactures both kinds of machines, and therefore the only one that can offer this privilege to the purchaser.

We speak from experience when we say that, after having tried all the principal Sewing Machines, we must accord to that of Grover and Baker the pre-eminence. Those indispensable features of sewing, strength uniformity and elasticity, all of which are brought out in this incomparable invention, make it the first sewing machine in the country. Others have their good points, but this combines all, and possesses every characteristic necessary to make it most desirable."—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

"MERIT VS. PRETENCE.—We perceive that the Grover and Baker Sewing Machine is every day growing more and more in favor, both for manufacturing and family purposes—but especially as adapted to all the requirements of family use. Other machines, by dint of brazen puffery and conniving with committees at annual fairs, have been thrust forward into the first place; but they are fast losing this unmerited position. The real merits of the Grover and Baker Machine are beginning to be known in a practical way, and daily is the demand for them increasing while the demand for heretofore better known, but inferior machines, is proportionally decreasing. So it turns out in this, as in many other instances, that honesty is the best policy, and the right, in the end comes uppermost.

"A trial of over two years enables us to say with the greatest confidence that there is no better machine for general family use than Grover and Baker's Sewing Machine Co. It makes a beautiful elastic seam that does not rip with wear or washing, runs almost noiselessly, is plain, simple, easy to work, and not liable to get out of repair, fastens the ends of its own thread, and uses threads and silks directly from the spools on which they are bought."—N. Y. Leader.

Grover and Baker's Machines' work in their peculiar stitch, and fabrics put together by it, may wear and drop to pieces from original weakness or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they can not; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.—N. Y. Daily News.

"The points we conceive most necessary and important to meet the wide range of requirements in a machine for family sewing, we find more fully combined in the Grover and Baker, viz., extent of capacity, simplicity of construction, ease of management, advantage of using thread from two spools without re-winding, strength of work, elasticity, durability and regularity of stitch, and quietness of movement. We therefore mark award to the Grover and Baker."—Report of Tennessee State Fair of 1860—also of St. Louis State Fair of 1860.

IMPORTANT NATIONAL WORKS.

PUBLISHED BY D. APPLETON & CO.

346 & 348 Broadway, New York.

THE following works are sent to Subscribers in any part of the country, (upon receipt of retail price,) by mail or express, prepaid:

The New American Cyclopedia. A popular Dictionary of General Knowledge. Edited by George Ripley and Charles A. Dana, aided by a numerous select corps of writers in all branches of Science, Art, and Literature. This work is being published in about 15 large octavo volumes, each containing 750 two-column pages. Vols I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, and XI, are now ready, each containing near 2,500 original articles. An additional volume will be published once in about three months.

Price, in Cloth, $3; Sheep, $3,50; Half Morrocco, $4; Half Russia, $4,50 each.

The New American Cyclopedia is popular without being superficial, learned, but not pedantic, comprehensive but sufficiently detailed, free from personal pique and party prejudice, fresh and yet accurate. It is a complete statement of all that is known upon every important topic within the scope of human intelligence. Every important article in it has been specially written for its pages by men who are authorities upon the topics of which they speak. They are required to bring the subject up to the present moment; to state just how it stands now. All the statistical information is from the latest reports; the geographical accounts keep pace with the latest explorations; historical matters include the freshest just views; the biographical notices not only speak of the dead but of the living. It is a library of itself.

ABRIDGMENT OF THE DEBATES OF CONGRESS.—Being a Political History of the United States, from the organization of the first Federal Congress in 1789 to 1856. Revised and compiled by Hon. Thomas H. Benton, from the official Records of Congress.

The work will be completed in 15 royal octavo volumes of 750 pages each, 14 of which are now ready. An additional volume will be issued once in three months.

A WAY TO PROCURING THE CYCLOPAEDIA OR DEBATES.

Form a club of four, and remit the price of four books, and five copies will be sent at the remitter's expense for carriage; or for ten subscribers, eleven copies will be sent at our expense for carriage.

MANHOOD. How Lost, How Restored. Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope. A lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical Cure of Spermatorhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness and involuntary emission, producing impotency, Consumption and Mental and Physical Debility. By ROBT. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.

The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without internal medicines or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and other empirical devices, is here clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. This lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on the receipt of two postage stamps, by addressing

Dr. CH. J. C. KLINE,
127 Bowery, New York. Post Office box 4,586.
