- A piece of very dirty official, or rather officious interference has come to our knowledge which deserves a passing word. Some time ago J. Bill Means of Towards, who was First Lieutenant in Co. F. 5th Regt. of the Penna. Reserve Corps of Volunteers, was appointed to a Second Lieutenancy in the Regular Army. Ties created a vacancy in Co. F. A short time ago, the Company proceeded according to law to elect an officer. The Second Lieutenant became First, and our friend R. W. Sturrock, Orderly Sergeant of the company, was unanimonally elected Second Lieutenant to fill the vacancy. The Governor was notified of the election, but instead of sending Mr. Sturrock his commission, he sent a young man named Riddle, of Pittsburg, with a commission in his pocket as Second Lieutenant! It is needless to say that this is in direct violation of the statute which is so plain as not to be liable to misconstruction. We cannot believe that Governor Curtin lent himself to this small potatoe business; and we assume, therefore, that it Their new was done by the corrupt Ring he keeps about him-a Ring which is disgracing the State Administration every day by its open and flagrant favoritism in the distribution of the offices within its control.

He is a native of Massachusetts, and his paper and been largely supported by the advertising of Northern merchants, who were made to believe that its circulation was something fabulous. Although one of the first to expouse the cause of treason, the people of Norfolk have no confidence in him whatever."

The Ewing referred to is J. Harvey, son of the Rov Jame Ewing, of the Methodist Church, for two years a resident of fais place, and recently deceased on the Juniata. Harvey learned the printing business in the Luminary office, and was a faithful apprentice. He possesses considerable ability as a newspaper writer, and his remaining at Norfolk and espousing the cause of the rebels is a source of great regret to his friends. He has wished us twice, however, since his residence in Virginia, where he has made considerable money at the printing business, and from what we know of him we never could believe that he is a sincere traitor. and the above would seem to indicate that our conclusions were well formed.
