To an editor who has the least care about what he selects, the writing he has to do is the easiest part of the labor. Every subscriber thinks the paper printed for his own benifit, and if there is nothing in it that suits him it must be stopped, it is good for nothing. Just so many subscribers as an editor may have, so many tastes be has to consult. One wants something smart, another something sound. One likes anecdotes, fun and frolic, and another wonders why a man of sense will put such in his paper, instead of something argumentative, and thinks the editor is a dull fool. And so, between them all; you see the poor fellow gets roughly handled. And yet to ninety-nine out of a hundred do these things occur. They should reflect that what pleases this man, may not please the next ran, but they insist that if the paper does not at it them it is good for nothing.

SIPPINGS FROM "VANITY." MASONRY. People are very anxious to to know what are the "secret orders" of the two captured Rebel Commissioners. V. F. is not exactly informed; but he has no doubt that at Fort Warren they find themselves in rather odd fellowship. It is also quite certain that one of them, at least, is not a free Mason.

An Axion.—The cuff of a lady is much better on the sleeve than upon the ear.

"COURTIER DE LA MODE."-In the colored world of fashion, the peculiar head-dress of the Southern female slave is now quite the rage, under the name of the Coutrabandanna.

We hope that after this war is over, "C. S. A." will still be the motto of the South—"Can't Secede Again."

"On A WIND."-Wit believe that we are not violating the confidence reposed in us by the Government, in statisty that when the Stars and Stripes were given gloriously to the breeze at Pig's Point, the wind was blowing from the Sow-west. It then chopped round, with a regplar Pork chop, and has been blowing a steady Northerner ever since. Bristles are up, in consequence, and Newport News is sought after with avidity. .

- Vanity Fair may be obtained at the Post Office News Room.

COFFEE THAT IS BEATEN IN A MORTER.-It is not genearly known that coffee which has been beaten, is better than that which has been ground .- Such, however, is the fact; and in his brief article on the subject, Savaria gives what he considers the reasons for the difference. As he remarks a mere decoction of green coffee is a most insiped drink, but carbonization developes the arount, and an oil, which is the peculiarity of the c. ffee we admire. He agrees with other writers, that the Turks excel in this. They employ no mills, but beat the berry with wooden pestels in mortors. When long used, these pestels become precious and bring great prices. He determined by actual experiment which of the two methods was the best. He burned carefully a pound of good Mocha and separated it into two equal portions. was passed through the mill, the other beaten after the Turkish fashion in a mortar. He made coffee of each Taking equal weights of each, and pouring on, in equal quantity of water, he treated them both precisely alike. He tusted the coffee himself, and caused other competunt judges to do so. The unanimous opinion was, that coffee beaten in a mortar was far better than that ground in similt.

POLITICS OF THE VOCUNTEERS.—The Harrisburg (Pa.) Telegraph, of the 28 ult., gives some facts in regard to the scent election of members of the Legislatur in that State. It has been claimed that a sarge proportion of the volunteers were from the democratic party.-The election discloses a different condition of affairs. The Republican or Union vote is diminished; the Democratic vote just about the rame as last year. The Telegraph gives statistics, showing that he changes in the vote from last year correspond with great exactness to the enlistments in the several districts, and indicating at least a proportion of three-fourths Republicans, or those who voted last year for Lincoln. It adds:- These figures present a strange contrast to the claim that the Democratic party has furnished the largest number of men for the war; and that contrast is still further strengthened when the fact is quoted that the military vote, in the camps was almost unanimously cast for the candidates of the Republican or Union party,"

SENSIBLE.—Jane Eyre says: I know that if women wish to escape the stigms of husbandseeking, they must act or look like marble or clay, cold expressionless, bloodless, for every appearance of feeling, of joy, sorrow, friendliness, antipathy, agmiration, disgust, are all alike construed by the world into an attempt to hook a husband. Never mind! well meaning women have their consciences to comfort them after all. Do not, ther store, be too afraid of showing yourself he you are, affectionate and good hearted; do not therefore, too harshly repress sentiments which are exilent in themselves, because you fear that some puppy may fancy that you are letting them come out to fascinate him; do not condemn youreself to live only by halves, because if you showed too much animation some pragmatical thing in breeches might take it into his pate to imagine that you designed devote your life to his

Tacitus says: " e early ages man lived a life of innucence and simplicity." Upon this

a critic remarks :--"When was this period of innocence?-The first woman went astray. The very first man that was born in the world killed the second. When did the time of simplicity begin?"

I say, Sambo, can you tell what color Cain was. "No you quisitive darkey, you don't spose I'se Abel do you.

TIOGA

OF THE UNITED STATES! In the month of December, 1859, the anacreigned for the arif time offered for sale to the public Dr. J. Bovce Dods' Imeprial Wine Bitters, and in this short period they have given such universal satisfaction to the many thousands of persons who have aried them that it is now an established article. The amount of bodily and mental misery arising simply from a neglect of small complaints is surprising and it is therefore of the utmost importance that a strict attention to the least and most spilling bodily ailment should be had; for diseases of the body must invariable wifee? the mind. The subscribers now only ask a trist of SEWING MACHINES

DR. J. BOVEE DODS'

IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS!!! from all who have not used them. We challengs the world

These Bitters for the cure of Weak Stomachs, General Debility, and for Purifying and Enriching the Blood, are absolutely unsurpassed by any other remedy on earth. To be assured of this, it is only necessary to make the trial. The wing itself is of a superior quality, being about one-third stronger than other wines; warming and invigorating the whole system from the head to the feet. "As these Bitters are fonic and alterative in their character, so they strengthen and invigorate the whole system and give a fine tone and healthy action to all its parts, by equalizing the circulation semoving obstructions, and producing a general warmth They are also excellent for Discuses and Weakness peculiar to Fomales, where a Tonic is required to strengthen and brace the system. No. Lady, who is subject to lassitude and faintness, should be without them, as they are reviving their action.

THESE BITTERS

Will not only Cure, but Prevent Disease, and in this respect are doubly valuable to the person who may are them. For INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nerveus System, Paralysis, Piles, and for all cases requiring a Tonic Dr. Dods' Celebrated Wine Bitters ARE UNSURPASSED! : .

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly saluable.

For the aged and infirm, and for persons of a weak constitution-for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all pub. lic speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Stn dents, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taske. They produce all the exhibitanting effects of Brandy er Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to the use of excessive strong drink, and who wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poisons contained in the adulterated Winesaid Liquides with which the rountry is flooded. These Bitt rs not only CURE but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water
