good, at any rate for Mr. Badger, and worked her unremittingly; and when it was found, at the end of the year, that she had not increased the population, they redoubled their efforts...

and two persons entered making a great fuss with a baby. I turned my head away, and looked out of the window, not caring to interfere in matters that I didn't understand...

FROM THE TIOGA BOYS. BUCKINGHAM FERRY, S. C., Feb. 10, 1862. FRIEND AGITATOR.—Thinking that our friends at home would like to know something of our doings since we landed at Port Royal, Dec. 10th, I purpose to give the plain narrative of facts, as near as I can...

as much comfort to soldiers stationed there, as any fort I have seen. For the last two weeks we were stationed there, our company drilled on heavy artillery, and most of us learned the drill easily, and we soon got to be expert gunners...

as large as the world. He is a general favorite among the officers, field, staff and company, and so far as I can ascertain, among the privates also. He is always pleasant and prompt in the discharge of all his duties...

THE WOMAN WITH A BABY

Never in my life did I know a girl so changed brought about by a baby as in the case of Hanner Marier Ivins. The clergyman, Anna Maria Evans, but he was a pious man, and up to the time of her marriage, she was a very respectable young lady...

change her appearance, and she was a very different person from what she had been before. She was a very respectable young lady, and she was a very good mother...

Altogether, Hanner Marier, compared with what she used to be, was gorgeous. But what surprised me most was the complete ascendancy she had gained over her sister-in-law. She was a widow, who had buried an only child...

The plan of this stupendous work, was as follows: The piers were to be made of Palmetto logs, locked together like a log house; the bodies of them at out 10 to 12 feet on the inside, this space to be filled with barrels of sand...

THE SOLDIERS' AID SOCIETY. MR. EDITOR.—The Secretary of the Richmond Soldiers Aid Society, has received the following letter from the President of the Philadelphia Ladies Aid (acting under direction of the U. S. Sanitary Commission)...

THE TAKING OF FORT DONELSON. GEN. GRANT'S OFFICIAL REPORT. HEADQUARTERS ARMY IN THE FIELD. FORT DONELSON, Sunday, Feb. 16, 1862. Gen. G. W. CULLUM, Chief of Staff, Department of Mo. GENERAL: I am pleased to announce to you the unconditional surrender, this morning, of Fort Donelson, with 12,000 to 15,000 prisoners...
