

THE AGITATOR.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Wellsville, Wednesday, April 9, 1883.

New Advertisements.

Binghamton Commercial College—Lowell & Warner. Election Notice—Wm. Ellis, Treasurer. Agency—John W. Guernsey.

On Tuesday, March 28th, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Fuller, were driving along Railroad St., when their horse became frightened at the case, and unmanageable. Mrs. Fuller was thrown violently from the buggy, breaking an arm and otherwise seriously injuring her.—Corning Democrat.

FIRE AT MANSFIELD.—About noon on Monday last, the cottage house below the Seminary in Mansfield, occupied by Mr. J. W. Denton, was discovered to be on fire. The flames succeeded in saving a part of the furniture. The loss was $400. No insurance. The fire originated from a defective stove pipe.

STATEMENT.—Reports I have come to me that a certain person claiming to have been appointed "Deputy County Superintendent" by me has been visiting schools.

LETTERS FROM THE RESERVES.—We understand that the writing of letters by soldiers in the Army of the Potomac, now in Virginia, is prohibited by an order issued from headquarters. How long this rule will be enforced it is impossible to say. Those who have friends in the army and receive no letters will understand the reason.

On Monday an Irishman by the name of Cornelius Steele a resident of Corning was found dead in the river at the Gang mill, a mile south of Painted Post. Coroner Horrington held an inquest, but the jury adjourned until Saturday to give time to obtain further testimony. Steele was last seen at Coopers Plains, nine weeks ago. He was of intemperate habits. He left a wife and a grown daughter. He was about fifty years old.—Corning Journal.

LITTLE BIRDS.—"Winter still lingers in the lap of Spring." Sleighting is fashionable again. —There was a freshet in Pine Creek last week below Babbs. Several lumbermen "went out." —The ice-cream party of the Ladies Aid Society last night was a success. Quite a collection was taken up.

There is a rumor around town that the Reserves left Alexandria last Friday at 8 A.M. bound farther South.

MAX. FIELD is making extensive improvements by way of cleaning and repairs in the Dickinson House, for the accommodation of the traveling public. He is also preparing to build an addition to the house, which will enable him to comfortably entertain all who may call upon him no matter how large the number. Mr. Owen Sawyer, late of the American, Elmira, commenced his duties as Clerk, on Tuesday. The Major is bound to do business and is adding in every possible way to the attractions of his already unrivaled Hotel.—Corning Democrat.

AN APPEAL.—The Ladies of Wellsville are collecting boxes of articles for the comfort of the sick and wounded soldiers. They will meet at the Court House at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of this week, to make such materials as are contributed for that purpose.

Materials are wanted for quilts, bedspreads, double gowns, bed-ticks, pillow-cases, drawers, night-shirts, also sheets and pillow-cases, and a large quantity of clean linen and cotton rags for dressing wounds.

It is not deemed necessary to make formal application to the people of Wellsville on this occasion. It is hoped that this "appeal" is all that is necessary to induce them to contribute freely. Two boxes will probably be ready for forwarding on Friday.

A SWINDLE.—Sir: I would caution your readers against an advertisement which appeared in the Tribune two weeks since, relative to the firm of Bostwick, Tiffany & Co., of New York, selling jewelry and watches very cheap, on account of the hard times. I wrote to the firm for some information in regard to their advertisement, but received no answer from them, but the following one from the Superintendent of Police, which speaks for itself, and needs no comment from me. Yours &c., CHAS. S. SEARLES.

Daggett Mills, April 3d, 1882. New York, March 30, 1882. Sir: I am directed by the Superintendent of Police to inform you that the firm of Bostwick, Tiffany & Co., is a swindle. Any money sent them is lost. Respectfully, Geo. H. SCRAFT, Clerk Metropolitan Police.

GOBY FOR APRIL.—Let every one examine this number closely; for beauty and variety it has never been equalled. First, we have the exquisite plate of "Ask for It, Nanny," next, the exquisitely beautiful colored fashion-plate containing seven figures; another extension fashion contains four figures; "An April Shower," a seasonable engraving; then seven more figures of spring fashions; "Costume and Portrait of the Prince Royal of France," and a variety of other useful and ornamental engravings.—Drawing Lessons, Model Cottages, and Health Department, Juvenile, Horticultural, Musical, and Fashion departments. But what will be valuable to the ladies is "the science of Dress Cutting," with diagrams. A treatise upon this (to the ladies) indispensable science, by which every lady is enabled to cut her own dresses, is worth at least one year's subscription. For sale at Robinson's Book Store.

GOOD JOES.—Many good things are told of the unlettered simplicity of the office of the law in the early days of the Commonwealth. While on a visit to the county seat at Tioga recently, one of these "good Joes" was met, by association, probably. The first Registrar and Recorder of Tioga County, was a man whose ignorance was proverbial, and was notorious. He was incompetent for the duties of the office. On one occasion, a wag of a lawyer made out a certificate that all persons connected with the office, and was not "unintentionally" and "duly" advised of the contents of all order loving citizens, and handed it to the Recorder with the customary fee. That officer after having it copied into the records, and the law to the court to be signed, returned it to the lawyer who exhibited it for many years afterwards as a standing joke against the courts of Tioga county.—Williamsport Bulletin.

It will diminish the excellence of the above "good Joes" to the frequent order of the Bulletin, when we inform him that "the first Registrar and Recorder of Tioga County" lived in Williamsport, and there performed his duties as such; this county not then having a County Seat. Afterwards, when Tioga County did boast of a County of Record of her own, the first Recorder was an English gentleman who had been educated for one of the learned professions, and was graduated from one of the best Colleges in the world. These facts, of course, take all the laugh out of this poor "good Joe," if indeed there was a laugh in it. If the editor

SYMPATHY FOR REBELS.—Some months since Judge Flanders, the Editor of the Malone (Franklin N. Y.) Gazette, was arrested on the charge of disloyalty, and sent to Fort Warren. His wife continued to publish the paper during her husband's imprisonment. Duncan S. Magee, of Watkins, sent $50 to sustain the paper, and for this act the Democratic Presses of this section are now liberally "puffing" him. Mr. Hull, of the Courier, thus takes the starch out of Magee.

"Judge Flanders was arrested and sent to Fort Warren, we think, instead of Fort Lafayette, for his disloyalty. "Judge Magee, who contributed $50 to his wife, to enable her to continue the publication of the disloyal sheet, was probably influenced by one of two motives—either by sympathy with suffering humanity generally, or sympathy with the pro slavery rebellion in particular; which, we can not say, but we are slightly suspicious that the latter was the moving cause. "If Judge Flanders had been travelling in "Dixie," and had been thrown into Jail on the charge of being an abolitionist, we do not believe that Mr. Magee's bowels of compassion would have been moved thus actively towards the disloyal Mrs. Flanders; he would probably have said, 'kicked him right, he had no business down there,' and 'nary a red' would have escaped him.

"If this thing had happened last October, we do not believe that the Democratic papers in this Senatorial district would have made the least mention of it until after the election; for fear that the electors would have called to mind a homely but familiar adage, 'as the old cock crows the young ones learn.'"—Corning Journal.

FIRE AT BLOSSBURG.—A correspondent at Blossburg writes us that on Saturday morning, a week ago, about one o'clock the store of Gillick & Taylor was discovered to be on fire. The flames spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save anything in the store or Post Office, both of which were consumed with all their contents. The Grocery of J. H. Mennell was also destroyed, though a part of the stock was saved. The house adjoining the grocery occupied by a Mr. Janieson was also destroyed together with J. H. Gillick's office.

The loss of Gillick & Taylor was $4,000. Insured for $2,500. J. H. Gillick's individual loss about $100. No insurance. Mr. Mennell's loss about $150. No insurance. The office of J. H. Gillick, and the Store House of Gillick & Taylor were owned by Ex-Gov. Seymour of New York, and were in one of Herring's Safes, and though they showed the effects of the heat, they were not destroyed.

On Wednesday last about 2 P.M., a fire, first discovered in the residence of W. H. Coon, and the citizens early succeeded in saving a part of the furniture—the greater part of the beds, bedding and clothing being lost. The origin of the first fire remains unknown; that of the second is supposed to have been a defective stove pipe.

We had the pleasure of attending the examination of the Graduating Class of the Binghamton Commercial College, on Tuesday, March 11th. The exercises were initiated by a general Lecture on Law, from the Hon. Ransom Balcom. It was a clear, practical and highly instructive lecture, exhaustive of the subjects treated, and was an admirable supplement to the general course of Law Lectures delivered during the winter by O. W. CHAPMAN, Esq. These we are informed, are delivered regularly, on the Tuesday forenoon of each week.

The Graduates, by the promptness and correctness with which they met the various questions and problems proposed, did themselves great credit, and clearly evinced that they were masters of the different subjects taught in this high toned and most excellent institution. Some of them who were pointed out to us as having been in attendance but some six and eight weeks even astonished all (but their Professors) who seemed to take it very much as a matter of course) at their ready proficiency. At the close of the examination they were favored with appropriate and suggestive remarks from the Rev. Mr. Boardman and Pierson of this place.

The success of this Institution, in these stormy times, has been wonderfully better than we could have any right to expect. As we truly feel that that the energetic and laborious Professors who do honor to the Village of the honor of locating their College therein, are worthy of the highest credit, and they should be warmly supported and encouraged.—Binghamton Democrat.

SPECIAL NOTICES. IMPORTANT TO FEMALES! THE HEALTH AND LIFE OF WOMAN. I continue in peril if she is made enough to neglect or maltreat those sexual irregularities to which two thirds of her sex are more or less subject.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS, prepared from the same formula which the inventor, CONELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, M. D., of New York, has for twenty years used successfully in an extended private practice—immediately relieve without pain, all disturbances of the periodical discharge, whether arising from relaxation or suppression. They act like a charm in removing the pains that accompany difficult or immoderate menstruation, and are the only safe and reliable remedy for Fluxes, Sick Headache, Pains in the Loins, Back and Sides, Palpitation of the Heart, Nervous Tremors, Hysterics, Spasms, Broken Sleep, and other unpleasant and dangerous effects of an unnatural condition of the sexual functions. In the worst cases of Fluor Alba or Whites, they effect a speedy cure.

TO WIVES AND MATRONS. DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS are offered as the only safe means of renewing interrupted menstruation, but LADIES MUST BEAR IN MIND That on that very account, if taken when the interruption arises from natural causes, they will inevitably prevent the expected events. THIS CAUTION IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY, for such is the tendency of the Pills to restore the original functions of the sexual organization, that they inevitably arrest the process of gestation.

Explicit directions, stating when, and when they should not be used, with each Box. Price One Dollar for each Box, containing from 40 to 50 Pills. A valuable Pamphlet, to be had free, of the Agents, Pills sent by mail promptly, by enclosing the price to the Agent. Sold by druggists generally.

The New American Cyclopaedia is popular because of its superior, learned, but not pedantic, comprehensive and sufficiently detailed, free from personal pique and party prejudice, fresh and yet accurate. It is a complete statement of all that is known upon every important topic within the scope of human intelligence. Every important article in it has been specially written for its pages by men who are authorities upon the topics of which they speak. They are required to bring the subject up to the present moment; to state what has stood now. All the statistics, information, &c. from the latest reports, geographical accounts keep pace with the latest explorations; historical notices include the freshest just views; the biographical notices not only speak of the dead but of the living. It is a library in fact. ABRIDGMENT OF THE DEBATES OF CONGRESS.—Being a Political History of the United States, from the organization of the first Federal Congress in 1789 to 1869.
