ORPHAN'S COURT SALE.—By virtue of an order of the Orphan's Court to me directed, I will sell at public vendue on Monday the 21st day of April 1862, at the Court House in Wellsboro, at 2 o'clock P. M.
A certain lot of land in Delmar township, bounded on the north by the lands of James Leary, on the east by the highway, and east estate formerly of Israel Merrick, deceased, and lands of O. L. Gibson, on the south by O. L. Gibson, and Hartford Duffer, and on the west by lands formerly of John Fellows—containing one hundred and nine acres, more or less, with about fifty acres improved, a frame house, two frame barns, and an apple orchard.
SILAS JOHNSON, Admr.
March 26, 1862.

MARRIAGE—Its loves and fears, regrets and joys; MAN-HOOD, how lost, how restored; the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhea or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impotency; marriage, its duties, its joys, its sorrows, its mental and physical incapacity, resulting from venereal disease, are fully explained in the standard work by Wm. Wood, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incident to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given.
It is full of revelations. In real delicate secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not be about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.
Address Dr. Wm. Wood, No. 416 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.
Beware of cheap and unfortunate no matter what you may buy, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious Quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Wood's book, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.
Dr. Wood can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publication, at his office, No. 416 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia. Office hours from 9 to 3, daily.
March 26, 1862-ly.

FAIR WARNING!
The School Directors of Delmar township will meet at the Butler School House in Stony Fork on Saturday, the 26th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M., to engage teachers for the Summer Schools. Teachers will be expected to have their certificates with them.
I will also receive proposals and contracts to build two School Houses in the following School Districts, one in the Bridges District No. 16, and one in the Brewster District No. 13. The Houses to be built after the plan of the one in the Francis District No. 5.
The wood for the different schools for next Winter's use will be cut at the same time. All further particulars will be given the day above mentioned. By order of the Board,
JOHN DICKINSON, Secy.

EXPENSES.
Tuition, Room Rent, Fuel and Board per Term, in Common English $28 50 Tuition from $2 50 to $6 00 The success of the school during these times when the country's need demands the services of every able-bodied young man, has been beyond the expectations of the most sanguine of its friends. The department of Penmanship is very popular. Prof.
Stickney is a master of his profession. We are most happy to say that he has been prevailed upon to remain with us. Besides the daily instructions that he gives, Professor Stickney gives extra instructions to those desiring it for a reasonable compensation.
Those desiring to teach during the summer will be admitted for half or two thirds the term, others for full term only. Board in the Hall at $1 50 per week.
Rooms for self boarding can be rented in the village.
All kinds of produce taken in payment for tuition and board at market prices.

IMPORTANT NATIONAL WORKS.
PUBLISHED BY D. APPLETON & CO.
346 & 348 Broadway, New York.
The following works are sent to subscribers in any part of the country, (upon receipt of retail prices) by mail or express, prepaid:
The New American Cyclopaedia. A popular Dictionary of General Knowledge. Edited by George Engeland Charles A. Dana, aided by a numerous staff of correspondents in all branches of Science, Art, and Literature. This work is being published in about 16 large octavo volumes, each containing 750 two-column pages. Vols. I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, XIII, XIV, XV, XVI, XVII, XVIII, contain 2,600 original articles. An additional volume will be published about three months.
Price in Cloth, $3; Sheep, $3.50; Half Morocco, $4; Half Russia, $4.00.
The New American Cyclopaedia is popular without being superficial, learned, but not pedantic, comprehensive but not scientifically detailed, free from personal pique and party prejudice, fresh and up to date. It is a complete statement of all that is known upon every important topic within the scope of human intelligence. Every important article is revised and specially written for its price by men who are authorities upon the topics which they speak. They are required to bring the subject up to the present moment, to state just how things stand, to give the latest information, and to state the geographical accounts kept pace with the latest explorations; historical matters include the latest views of the world, the latest statistics, and the state of the dead but of the living. It is a history of the CIVILIZATION OF THE DEBATES OF CONGRESS—Being a Political History of the United States from the organization of the first Federal Congress in 1789 to 1857. Edited and compiled by Hon. Thomas H. Benton, from the official Records of Congress.
This work will be completed in 15 royal octavo volumes of 750 pages each. 14 of which are now ready. An additional volume will be issued once in three months.
A WAY OF PROCEEDING TO BE OBSERVED.
Form a club of four, and remit the price of four books and five copies will be sent at the remitter's expense for the range; or for ten subscribers, eleven copies will be sent at expense for carriage.

TO AGENTS.
No other works so liberally toward the portions known. AN AGENT WANTED in this County. Terms made known on application to the Publishers. Jan. 21, 62.

ELKLAND BOROUGH.
AN ORDINANCE.
Be it ordained by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Elkland, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, Sec. 1. That from and after the date hereof, no cattle, horses, sheep, geese or swine shall be permitted to run at large in any of the public streets or highways of this Borough, and any owner or owner of any cattle, horses, sheep, geese or swine as aforesaid, permitting, or knowing them to run or be at large within the streets or highways aforesaid shall, upon conviction, pay a fine of not less than fifty cents, nor more than one dollar for each and every offence, and for each and every of the cattle, horses, sheep, geese or swine, so found offending as aforesaid, and shall be said fine to go to the informer, and the balance to be paid into the hands of the Borough Treasurer.
Sec. 2. That any person or persons leaving, pitting, permitting or causing to be placed or left within the limits of any public street or highway of this Borough, any wagons, carts, lumber, logs, drifts, ploughs, farming utensils, or any obstructions or rubbish whatever, subject to a fine of not less than one dollar, nor more than two dollars for each and every offence, and it shall be the duty of the Supervisor and Constable, or any other citizen of this Borough, for each and every neglect, or refusal to obey the provisions of this ordinance to prosecute the offender and remove the obstructions.
Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of each and every person or persons owning, or holding land within the limits of this Borough, fronting respectively on any of the streets or highways, now existing, or which may hereafter exist in said Borough, to build and maintain a side walk of plank, boards, or gravel in the following manner: viz: If of plank or boards they shall be placed crosswise upon good and sufficient level shall be four feet wide and placed not less than one foot from the fence and filled between the fence and walk with gravel. The gravel walks shall be six feet wide and not less than one foot thick, the same to be constructed of hill gravel. The aforesaid walks are to be built under the direction of the Burgess and Town Council, who shall direct the building of walks of one or more planks in width when more is not necessary, to relieve persons from building any walks when they are not actually required for the convenience of the Borough. All walks to be completed within thirty days after receiving notice from the Burgess and Town Council under the penalty of having the said walks built by the Borough authorities and a charge of 20 per cent, in addition to the amount of constructing the same.
