

The North and the South.

BROOKFILD, May 29, 1862. MR. EDITOR .- While looking over Kenyon's grammar the other day, I came across this sentence : "The other side has the best of the aran hour the smith made one of the party at gument." The thought suggested itself to my the rendezvous that was to start at midnight mind, that this must be precisely what the rebels are thinking concerning the North, since. "John," said the smith, as he grasped the their numerous defeats, and the question nathand of his rescuer, while his eyes glistened | urally arose, why have we the best of the arand a tear ran down his furrowed cheek, "I gument? There are several answers to the question. First, the north is the strongest in men and money. While the rebels are obliged In snother hour the blacksmith clasped his to manage every way, whether right or wrong, to furnish themselves with men and funds for It was an affecting scene—there, in that lone carrying on the rebellion and sustaining the house in the wilderness, surrounded by men miserable government which they have set up,

Corning, April 23, 1862. WOULD inform the public that he is per trannel. I located in Elkland Boro, Tiogs C. He, an invared by thirty years' experience to it it till dis autof the eyes and their appendages of reamtif inciples, and that he can care withdu full, the indial disease, called St. Vitus' Dance, the form factor Viti, and will attend to any other H stars i will a of Physic and Surgery. Insurance Agency. THE Insurance Company of North America have L appointed the undersigned an agent for Tiuga County and vicinity. As the high character and standing of this Company give the assurance of full protection to owners of property against the hazard of fire, I solicit with confidence a liberal share of the business of the . . . . .

Give Him a Call.

are cordially invited to felisboro, May 31, 1860.

line of Physic and Surgery.

April 1, 1882.-3m.

E. B. BENEDICT, M. D.

"He is a spy! an abolition hound !" ex-

"Do you give shelter to an abolitionist?" fercely shouted the leader. "I give shelter to a weak, defenceless man,"

"He is an enemy !" vociferated the leader. "Of the devil !" ejaculated Bradley.

claimed the leader with increased vehemence, replied the smith.

"Back! Touch him not; or, by the grace of God, I'll brain ve !"

They hesitated, and stepped backward, not wishing to encounter the sturdy smith, for his countenance plainly told them he meant what he said.

"Good evening, Mattie. Where is your father ?" he said. Then observing the strange der; his bonds were severed, and was hurried out of the open window. He was again a demeanor of the girl, he continued : "Why, woods at the back of the tavern, and through The young girl's heart was too full for her tongue to give utterance, and throwing herself them to a road a quarter of a mile distant, then upon the shoulder of to young man, sho sobbingly exclaimed : "They have carried him off! Don't you see the blood ?"

"Have they dared to lay hands upon your father? The infernal wretches !" Mattie recovered herself sufficiently to narfree man, but was bastened forward into the Mattie, what ails you? What has happened?"

into a wagon and driven rapidly off. In half across the mountains.

sitistid Boro, August o, 1000.	county. This Company was incorporated in 1794.	claimed the lenger with increased venemence, DENTISTBY.	Its capital is $500,000, and its assets in 1861 as per	"and we must have him. So I tell you, Brad-
C. N. DARTT	statement ist Jan. of that year was $1254,719 81.	ley, you better not interfere. You know you are already suspected; and if you insist upon
	CHARLES PLATT,	sheltering him it will confirm it."
WOULD respectfully say to the c. infra of Wellsboro and vicinity, that he h is priened	ARTHUR G. COFFIN,President. Office of the Company 232 Walnut Street,	" Suspected ! Suspected of what !" exclaim-
Woffice over WRIGHT'S FLOUR ALD WEED	Philadelphia,	ed the smith in a firm tone, riveting his gaze
FIGRE, where he will continue to do all, kifds of with in the line of DENTISTRY.	Wm. Buebler, Central Agent, Har-	upon the speaker.
Wellsboro, April 30, 1862.	risburg, Pa.	"Why, of adhering to the North, was the · TOOV LELDENN	JOHN W. GUEBNSEY,	reply.
TROY ACADEM,	Agent for Tioga County, Pa.	"Adhering to the North !" ejaculated Brad- ley, as he cast his defiant glances at the speak-
TROY, BRADFORD CO. PA		er. "I adhere to the North !" he continued;
t G. COWDREY, A. B 1ª incipal,	April 9, 1862.	"I adhere to my country-my whole country-
WITH COMPETENT ASSISTANTS	HOME FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY	and will, so help me God, as long as I have
Spring Term begins Feb. 25th,-Ends M y 14h.		breath !" he added, as he brought the sledge-
Summer " " May 20th,— " Av , Mh. Jull " " Sept. 9th,— " No . 24th.	NEW YORK; CAPITAL, $1,000,000.	hammer to the ground with great force.
Winter " " Dec. 2d.	a de la companya de l	"You had better let us have him, Brad- ley, without further trouble. You are only Therough instruction given in all Cor min and ligher English Branches, Classics and Mo lerge Lan-	Home Fire Insurance Company	risking your own neck by your interference."
figher English Branches, Classics and Mc lerry Lan- fages. Students fitted to enter the best Colleges.		"Not as long as I have life to defend him,"
Ierm's Tuition, $2 to $6.	NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT;	was the answer. Then pointing toward the Board and rooms for those who may desi i is board	CAPITAL, $200,000. These Companies have complied with the State law.	door, he continued, "Leave my shop !" and as tempolyes, can be proced at low rates,	Applications for Insurance received by	he spoke he raised the sledge-hammer.
for circulars or other information, addre is	CHARLES L. SIEMENS,	They hesitated a moment, but the firm de- meanor of the smith awed them into compli-
S. G. COWDREY, I:1 3 al. Troy, Jan. 39, 1862tf.	Wellsboro Tiogs County, Penns.	ance with the order.
	Wellsboro, Jan. 15, 1862.	"You'll regret this in the morning, Bradley,"
BLACKSMITHING	The target the the Materia	said the leader as he retreated,
THE undersigned wishes to announce, to his for- mer Customers in Sullivan and vic his, that	War! War for the Union!	"Go !" was the reply of the smith, as he
""""""""""""""""""""""""""""""""""""""	THE undersigned would respectfully inform his old friends, customers, and the public generally,	pointed towards the door.
while they will find him at his shop in Meinsburg with a good new stock of Iron and material mady to	that he has opened a	Bradley followed them menaoingly to the inf on them on reasonable terms. J. A. Elepis.	CABINET AND CHAIR SHOP	entrance of the shop, and watched them until they disappeared from sight down the road.—
March 19. 18626t.	on Main Street, opposite H. W. Dartt's Wagon Shop,	When he turned to go back in the shop he was
CORNING	where he intends to keep constantly on hand a gene-	met by the fugitive, who grasping his hand;
WHOLESALE DRUG AND BOOK HOBE.	cabinet Ware,	exclaimed:
DRUGS AND MEDICINES,	made of the best materials, and by the best workmen.	"O, how shall I ever be able to thank you,
PAINTS AND OILS,	Also Coffing made to order, and as cleap as can be	Mr. Bradley ?"
WINDOW GLASS,	procured alsowhere, accompanied with a Hearse. Also Chairs of every variety from the BEST down	"This is no time for thanks, Mr. Peters, un- less it is to the Lord. You must fly the coun-
KEROSINE OIL,	to the CHEAPEST, to	try and that at once."
ALCOHOL,	Suit Parchasers.	"But my wife and children?"
BOOKS AND STATIONERY,	Also Tarning of all kinds done to order and to suit	"Mattie and I will attend to them. But
W. D. TERBELL.	CUSTOMERS.	you must go to night."
	The undersigned having had many years experi- ence, both in France and in this country, feels confi-	"To-night?" "Yes. In the morning, if not sooner, they
Country Merchants supplied with these stilles at	dent that he cannot be excelled in either of the above	will return with a large force and carry you
NEW YORK PRICES.	branches of mechanism-and further would recom-	off, and probably hang you on the first tree
Corning, Feb: 26, 1862.	mend the public to CALL AND EXAMINE	You must leave to-night.
MILLINERY	his workmanship and prices before purchasing else-	"But how ?"
RRS. M. W. SHEARI N.	where. JACOB-STICKLIN. Wellsboro, March 18, 1862.	"Mattie will conduct you to the rendezvous
キャー・シャート たいわい ちょう 務 ア	in the second se	of our friends. There is a party made up who intend to cross the mountain and join the MILLINER,	Dentistry.	Union forces in Kentucky. They have pro-
NEW YORK AND ELLI IEA,	C. H. FIRMAN,	visions for the journey, and will gladly share
NVITES attention to her assortment		with you."
Norm	Formerly of Elmira, New York.	At this moment a young girl entered the
New Spring Go als,	A perfect master of DENTISTRY in all its branch-	shop and hurriedly said :
Imbracing every description of	as, would respectfully inform the citizens of	"Father, what is the trouble to-night ?" Her eye resting on the fugitive, she approached
French and American MI Bery,	WELLSBORO	him, and in a sympathizing tone, continued:
"bich the will sall at wholesale and ral She CASH	and surrounding country, that he is new stopping at the	"Ah Mr. Peters, has your turn come so
	PENNSYLVANIA HOTEL.	soon ?"
Special Inducement	where he can be found between the hours of $ o'clock	This was Mattie. She was a fine rosy girl, effered to MILLINERS. Goods and there fur-	A. M., and S o'stock P. M., ready to perform any op- eration pertaining to his art with skill, and at low pri-	just past her eighteenth birthday, and the sole
	A # 1	daughter of Bradley's house and heart. She
Small Advan	EXTRACTING done mechanically, and altended	was his all—his wife had been dead five years. He turned toward her, and in a mild, but firm
Have NEW YORK COST.	with vary little pain. EXAMINATIONS OF THE TEETH, and consultations	tone, said:
Rooms 22 Biccoker Street, New Cark,	Pres of Charge.	"Mattie you must conduct Mr. Peters to the and 187 Water Streat, Els ray N. Y.	N. BAli work warranted as represented.	wandarvous immediately . then return and we

N. B. All work warranted as represented Wellsboro, April 30, 1862.

Isttie you must conduct Mr. Peters to the must have him. So I tell you, Brad- | rate the events of the evening. ou better not interfere. You know you finished he exclaimed :

"Oh that I should have lived to see the day that old Tennessee was to be thus disgraced ! Here Joe !" At this the other person in the wagon alightnegro. "Joe," continued the young man, "would you like your freedom ?" "Well, Massa John, I wouldn't like much to leabe you, but den Ise like to be a free man." "Joe, the white race have maintained their liberty by their valor. Are you willing to fight for yours? Ay ! fight to the death ?"

"I'se fight for yours any time, Massa John." "I believe you, John. But I have desperate to engage in it without a prospect of reward. If I succeed I will make you a free man. It and opened a wide field for them to display is a matter of life and death-will you go ?" "I will, Massn."

"Then kneel down and swear before the everlasting God, that, if you falter or shrink from the danger, you may bereafter be consigned to everlasting fire !"

'an' I hope that Gor Almighty may strike me night." dead if I don't go wid you through fire, and water and eberything !"

turning to the young girl, who had been a mute Mattie is willing." spectator of this singular scene, he continued : "Oh, we arrange 'Now, Mattie, you get in the wagon, and I'll drive down to the parsonage, and you remain there with Mrs. Peters and the children until I bring you some intelligence of your father."

While the sturdy old blacksmith was awaithe had repulsed returned with increased numthe smith and carrying him off. They confloor, dimly lighted by a lamp which stood up-| Tennessee !"

on a small table in front of the chairman. In about half an hour after Bradley's arrival he was placed before the chairman for examina- beginning of the fifteenth century, mankind tion. The old man's arms were pinioned, but had looked to neither heaven nor earth, neither nevertheless he cast a defiant look around him, into the ear nor land, as has been done since. "Bradley, this is a grave charge against They had philosophy without experiment, mathyou. What have you to any ?" said the chair- ematica without scales, astronomy without dem-

"What authority have you to ask ?" demanded the smith, flercely eyeing his interrogator.

"The authority of the people of Tennessee," was the reply. "I deny it."

have you to say to the charge?"

rendervous immediately; then return, and we of the band that had captured Bradley, and materia medica.

should like to see Mattie before I go." "You shall," was the reply.

daughter to his bosom.

ed and entered the shop. He was a stalwart who had been driven from their homes for their and while they are actually suffering for the attachment to the principles for which their necessaries of life, the people of the north are patriotic fathers fought and bled-the sturdy living in the midst of plenty. They open their old smith, a type of the heroes of other days, purses voluntarily and pour forth the "yellow" pressing his daughter to his breast, while a shiners" into the treasury of the nation, while tear stole down his cheek. He felt that per- at the same time they place themselves under haps it was to be his last embrace; for his the good old Stars and Stripes, thereby convinbeart had resolved to saerifice his all upon the | cing the rebels more forcibly than words could altar of his country, and he could no longer do, that the Union must and shall be preserved. watch over the safety of his child. Was she that treason shall go down, that ere long they to be left to the mercy of the paricidal wretches shall do homage to that flag which they polluted work on hand to-night, and I do not want you who were attempting to destroy the country with their treacherous hands, and that the that had given them birth, nursed their infancy, "Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave, and one ned a wide field for them to display Oe'r the land of the free and the home of the brave." the abilities with which nature had endowed It is such vigorous action as this which them ?

"Mr. Bradley," said the resouer, after short pause, "as you leave the State it will be of the argument. necessary, in these troublesome times, for Mattie to have a protector, and I nave thought that our marriage had better take place to- rebels know that they are fighting against the his embrace and gazed with a fond look at her own is a most tyrannical one; consequently "I am satisfied, Joe," said his master; then who was so dear to him, "I shall not object if that little monitor within, called conscience, is

"Oh, we arranged that as we came along," replied the young man.

Mattie blushed, but said nothing. was called upon to perform a matriage service fathers for their posterity to enjoy, where all in that lone house. It was an impressive scene. | men, from the haughty Caucasion, to the lowly Yet no diamonds glittered upon the neck of the African, might enjoy equal privileges. And ing the return of his daughter, the party that bride; no pearls looped up her tresses; but a while the soldiers of the army are enduring pure love glowed within her as she gave utter- the bardships of camp life, and risking their bers and demanded the minister. A fierce ance to a yow which was registered in heaven. lives for the sake of their country, they may quarrel ensued, which resulted in their seizing | Bradley, soon after the ceremony, bade his have the assurance that if Washington, Adams, daughter and her husband an affectionate fare- and Jefferson, could look down from the lufty veyed him to a tavern half a mile distant from well, and set out with his friends to join others seats which they undoubtedly occupy, that they the shop, and there he was arraigned before who had been driven from their homes, and would receive an approving look from them .--what was called a village committee. The were now rallying under the old flag to fight | Here, then, the people of the north have a secwhat was called a village committee. The were now ranying under the old may to ught and, the providence of the providence of the union, and, as they said, "Redeem old ond advantage. In addition to brave hearts, floor dimit lighted by a lamp which should up. Tennessee "

strikes terror to the hearts of evil doers, and convinces them that they are on the wrong side

Second, The north is fighting to sustain the right-the south to sustain the wrong. The best form of government that the sun ever "Well, John," said he, as he relinquished shone upon, while they already feel that their very troublesome. But the people of the north have the approving smile of heaven on their labors, because they are engaged in a holy cause. They are engaged in preserving this In a shut time the hunted-down minister government which was purchased by our foreclear and approving consciences.

Third. The north is fighting for liberty-the OLD TIMES .-- Some writer says that at the rebels for slavery. But it cannot add much to their confidence in their strength, when they consider that for every slave that they keep, they harbor an enemy in their midst. Those four million slaves, will be four million voices, speaking in tones of thunder to the robels in onstration. They made war without shot, canlanguage too plain to be misunderstood, that it non or mortar-nay, mobs made their bonfires without squibs or crackers. They went to sea is impossible for them to succeed as long as without the compass, and sailed without the they are guilty of holding their fellow men in needle. They viewed the stars without tele-scopes, and measured altitudes without barom- the satisfaction of knowing that they are eneters. Learning had no printing press, no wri- gaged in a struggle that may be the means of "Your denials amount to nothing. You are ting, no ink. The lover was forced to send his ridding this country of the greatest evil that accused of harboring an abolitionist, and the mistress a deal board for a letter, and a billet. ever cursed a nation, for which they will repenalty of that act you know is death. What doux might be of the ordinary size of a trencher. ceive the blessing, not only of millions of Afri-They were clothed without manufacturers, and cans, but of the whole civilized world. But "I say that it is a lie, and he who utters such their richest robes were skins of the most for- more than this. While the rebels are tormenmidable monsters. They carried on their trades | ted (as I hope that they are) by the ghosts of "Simpson," said the chairman to the leader without books. They had surgery without John Brown whom they hung at Harper's Ferry, and hosts of others who were slain by them man.

•____

a charge against me is a scoundrel."

"I swear, Massa," said the negro, kneeling;