Probably no one remody has ever been known which, ured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no numer aid can reach; but even to thuse the Cherry l'ectural

Aston House, New York Crrr, March 5, 1866.

Dr. After, Lowell: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife, she had been five months laboring under the daugerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but in free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried Ayer's Cherry Fectoral. It is made by, one of the best medical chemists is the world, and its cures all around us because the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia i edger.

their utmost to produce this best, most perfect pury nitwo which is known to man. Innumerable proofs ere-shewed that these Pills have whitnes which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to teke, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the toul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they care the every-day complains of every body, but also forn idable and dangerous di-cases that have bailed the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-costed, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are tree from any risk of lawn. Cursa have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such explicit position and chiracter as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clear graen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have cent me the assurance of their conviction: that my Preparationa contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering settlements.
