In the coming campaign, although victory is, in my opinion, certain and sure, we thall have a bitter and reckless foe to put down Should we fail, our defeat will be accepted as a declaration in favor of the rebelleion. The Administration will be arrested in the pro cution of this holy war, and the sympathise with Secesssion will insist that their ma kinstions have been triumphant and their trisson confirmed. The Breckinridgers expect viotory because they have been so generously seated and so kindly tolerated. Fulminating their batred of the country's cause in public and in private, corresponding with foreign monarcities who pray for their downfall, some of those who had hidden themselves in Paris and Lindon are quietly returning to their homes. A i to these men we have a right to demand that the Administration of the Federal Government shall put the strong hand of power upon them. .The sympathisers with Secession, whith it our elegant friend Mr. Haldeman, from toil meighborhood, whose correspondence with the traitor emissary, T. Butler King, has only tely seen light, whether the editor of a news aper, who is only saved from the punishment by his own insignificance, or the faithless representative who looks for re-election by the votes of a people he has deceived; they should be edmonished that there is a limit even to the influence and forbearance of a great Government; and that they cannot at the same time enjoyits protection and intrigue for its overthrow.

He who is false to the flag of his country, and yet dares to live in the loyal States, should either be compelled to go to a foreign land, or be driven with the seal of condemnation on his brow, among the rebels themselves. Let the administration treat such men as enemies, and with a firm and consistant policy the war will terminate victoriously, and the ballot-box will record an emphatic verdict in favor of the friends of the Union. [Tremendous applause.]

A Proclamation.

IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHOUTY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVINES, ANDREW the army will adopt the policy of General Pope, G. CURTIN, GOVERNOR OF THE BACK COMMON-

To sustain the Government in times of common peril, by all his energies, his means and his life, if need be, is the first duty of every loval citizen.

The President of the United States has made a requisition on Pennsylvania for twenty-one new regiments, and the regiments already in the field must be recruited. Et li ments will be made for nine months in the dewregiments and for twelve months in the old.

The existence of the present emergency is well understood. No patriot will pause now to investigate its causes. We must look to the future. Everything that is dear of us is at

This is no time to wait for Legislative action and the negotiation of loans. Delay might be fatal. To put down this rebellion is the business of every man in Pennsylvaria; and her citizens will show on this occasion that they do not wait for the slow process of legislation, and do not desire to throw on the Treasury of the Commonwealth a burden which they are indiwidually ready to bear themselves.

The conduct of our men already in the field has shed immortal lustre on Pennsylvania. Let their brethren fly to arms to support them, and make victory speedy as well as certain.

I designate below the number of companies which are expected from the seve al counties in the State, trusting the support of her honor in this crisis, (as it may be safely grusted,) to the loyalty, fidelity and valor of her freemen.

Whilst the quote of the several counties is fixed equitably so as to fill the requisition for twenty-one regiments, let not the gyal people of any county limit their exer lors to the enlistment of the companies name(...

General Pope has issued a series of orders which convinces us that he at least intends to carry out the spirit of the Confiscation Bill. He has ordered that hereafter soldiers in his army will not be employed to guard the property of rebels. He believes that a soldier's duty is to fight and not to play war with traitors. So for the future the hen roosts of rebels, their pig-aties, their milch cows, and baystacks, must take care of themselve. Coaxing, then, has come to a close; hereafter they are to be fought and fought too, with all the energy of the Government, and with all the means within its power. We trust every General in and the sooner the better.

THE WAR NEWS.

The brigand chief Morgan, made a recent raid into the heart of Kentucky with about 2.-500 cavalry, during which he succeeded in robbing and frightening the people of that State quite extensively. By rapid movements he pounced upon a number of small places successively, which he plundered of everything that he could carry away-doing a large business in horse stealing and store-robbing. The State was very much excited and alarmed by the audacity of this vagebond and his ragamuf fins-Frankfort, Lexington, and Louisville being threatened by turns. Morgan issued, a grandiloquent address, calling on the people of Kentucky to "rise," and all that sort of thing; but they didn't rise much except to meet the invader, though he, no doubt, anticipated a general rising of the Rebel element of Kentucky, but they seem to have been too shrewd to trust their fortunes to this would-be Attilla with his devastating Huns. The latest account we have from Morgan and his gang is that his headquarters would be on horseback. they were scattered and put to flight by an inferior cavalry force under Gen. Green Clay Smith, near Paris, after much of the plunder which they had taken at Cynthiana and other places had been recaptured. Among the brilliant exploits of this band was the crossing of seized upon and plundered the hospital, and compelled 85 sick soldiers to sign a parole, after which they skedaddled back to Kentucky.

Among the orders recently issued by Gen. Pope is one holding the inhabitants in his military district responsible for the acts of guerrillas, viz: Whenever a railroad, wagon road. bridge or telegraph is injured by guerrillas, the citizens living within five miles of the spot shall be turned out en masse to repair the damage, and shall also pay the expense of coercing such labor. If a soldier, or legitimate follower of the army, be fired upon from any house, the house shall be raized to the ground, and the inhabitants sent prisoners to the headquarters of the army. If such an outrage occur at any place distant from settlements, the people within five miles around shall be held accountable, and made to pay an indemnity sufficient for the case. Any persons detected in such outrages, either during the act or any time afterward, shall be shot without waiting civil process.

WAR MASS MEETING.

* * * * " "All quiet along the lines to-day," has been an every day saying ever since the fight and evacuation of White House Landing on the Paumunkey River. A few rebel desperadoes some times come out along the banks of the James and amuse themselves by firing upon transports and hospital boats, ust enough to frighten the cowardly and keep our gun boats in business, but a few well directed shells from the Monitor, Galena or Nanituck soon learns them that "discretion is the petter part of valor." You can't guess what a howling, screeching and yelling those hundred ound Parrott shells make as they go rushing through the air. I have known trees two and a half feet in diameter, to be cut entire, asunler, when they chanced to stand in their course. No wonder the Rebels did not dare to attack us near the river bank when such ready aid was at hand. One Monitor is better than a dozen field batteries anywhere within three miles of the river. There is where we have the advantage of them, and will have as long as the James is our base.

me dead or a prisoner? have you not received the letter I have sent or don't you care whether I hear from home or not? If you only knew how much good a letter does me you would be sure to write once a week instead of once a month. I sometimes think my friends have all forgotten me, and do not care whether I live or die. Then you know I have the blues some, and a little short letter from home would dispel all those gloomy thoughts and make a new man of me at once. If a soldier gets a little homesick nething but a long letter will cure him. Prespects of a speedy close of the war are at an end, and nothing but encouragement from home will keep up the cheer of the soldier, and that encouragement must come in more ways than on paper alone. We must see see you turning out to respond to the call for more troops. Let the three hundred theusand men be raised at once. Let all shoulder their gun that have a strong arm and use it in defence of his country. If you do not offer your ervice as a surgeon I shall think you a little behind the times. You can not say you are not needed for good surgeons are in great demand, and poor ones have but little troable to gain a position. I am in hopes to hear from you soon and to hear that you are in the service. I fear, or have feared that I was the only Webb that would lend a hand to help crush this wisked rebellion. I once heard an uncle and two cousins say they would go and help the South fight the North. If those are still their sentiments, would to God I could meet them in the field. I despise a traitor but when he is a near relation I hate him. I sometimes feel almost desperate, and wish that we could decide this struggle in one mighty battle. I would be willing to take the front and run my chances. Republican County Convention.

To the People of Tioga County: The People's State Convention which met at the Capitol at Harrisburg on the 17th of July, inst., was composed of all political parties loyal to the Union. With unprecedented harmony and unanimity a State from the speaker's stand; the audience called Ticket was formed competed of men from both the leval parties of the country. The following patriotic DEM of Delmar-Resplutions were passed without a dissenting voice: RESOLUTIONS OF THE PEOPLE'S STATE CONVENTION.

1. Resolved, That the convention representing as it does the loyal citizens of Pennsylvania without distihotion of party, re-affirms the sentiments embodied in the resolution adopted at a meeting of the loyal members of Congress at the national capital, July to stand by the Union in this hour of its trial; to unite their hearts and hands in earnest, patriotic ef-forts for its maintenance against those who are in arms against it; to sustain with determined resolu-tion our patrietic President and his administration in their energetic efforts for the prosecution of the war mid the preservation of the Union against enemies at home or abroad; to punish traiters and treason with fitting severity, and to crush the present wicked and causeless rebellion, so that no flag of disunion shall ever again be raised over any portion of the Repub-lic; that to this end we invite the co-operation of all large and enthusiastic war meeting was held at men who love their country, in the endeavor to rekinfarmington in the afternoon and evening of the strike at the Union of July 22d, for the purpose of enlising men in a company called the "Buck-tail Avengers," now son or palliate their guilt."

2. Resolved, That we have continued confidence in the honesty, capacity and patriotism of President Lincoln and his constitutional advisers; that we approve the principles on which his policy, both foreign and domestic, have been conducted: that we sanction necessary to adopt to guard the government against the assaults of traitors, their sympathisers and about tors; and that we esteem it eminently fortunate that in this most trying crisis of our cherished Union, we have at the helm of public affairs one so upright, temperate, prudent and firm as he has proved himself

3. Resolved, That we cordially approve of the administration of Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of this Commonwealth, marked, as it has been, by extraor-Commonwealth, marked, as it has been, by extraor-dinary vigor in the discharge of all public duties, by untiring seal in the cause of the country, and espe-cially in recruiting forces for the national army, by enlarged and liberal care for the sick and weunded soldiers of the State, by a wise and prudent economy in the expenditures of the funds committed to his care, and by the unsparing devotedness of all its members, and in particular of the Governor himself, to the constant, harrassing, complicated and novel labors which the exigencies of the great rebellion have imposed,

4. Resolved, That we acknowledge but two divisions of the people of the United States in this crisis; those who are loval to its constitution and every incl the integrity of the Union, and the maintenance of insolent domands of its enemies: that we fraternize with the former, and detest the latter; and that, forgetting all former party names and distinctions, we call upon all patriotic citizens to rally for one undivi-ded country, one flag, one destiny.

5. Resolved, That the government of the United States and its people, with an occasional exception among the reckless inhabitants where the rebellion was fostered, have wisely and studiously avoided all interference with the concerns of other nations, asking, and usually enjoying, alike, non interference with

be, its policy; that the intimations of a contemplated re from this sound fule of conduct the the part departure from this solutions of Europe, by an intervention of some of the ustions of Europe, by an intervention in our present struggle, is as unjust to them as it would be to us and to the great principles, for which we are contendinding; but we assure them, with a solemnity of conviction which admits of no distrust or feer, and from a knowledge of and a firm reliance upon the spirit and fortinde of twenty millions of freemen, that any attempt thus to intervene will meet a feetstance unparalleled in its force, unconquerable in its persistence. and fatal to those whom it is ina fesistance unpartitioned in the state whom it is in-tended to aid; and that it will tend only to strengthen and elevate the republic.

6. Resolved, That the skill, bravery and endurance o. Mesocree, That the BEIL, bravery and endurance exhibited by our army and many have elicited our admiration and gratitude; that we bahold in these qualities the assurances of sure and speedy success to our arms, and of rout and discomfiture to the rebels; that we urge the government to sid and atrengthed them by all the means in its power and carefully to them by all the means in its power, and carefully to provide for sick, wounded and disabled soldiers and their families; to presecute the war with increased vigor and energy, until the rebellion is utterly crashed, the integrity of the Union in all its borders restored, and every robel reduced to submission, or driven from the land, and that to accomplish these ends we pledge to our rulers our faith, our fortunes and our lives.

7. Resolved, That the course of the Hon David Wilmot, in the United States Senate, is manly, consistent and output lives. sistent and eminently patriotic, and we hereby en-dorse him as a true and faithful representative of the loyal people of this State.

I have not received the first letter erument should be vigorous; using all the means that was written in four weeks. Do you think within its power to this end; that among other acts, we endorse most henatily the measures for the confiscation of the property of rebels and the emancipation and arming of the slaves of rabels, and as these resolutions embody the patriotic spirit of the Resolution passed by the Republican County Convention which met last August at Tioga, and of the Union Convention which met at Wellsboro last September, we call upon all men to forget party names for the present, and rally upon the broad and patriotic platform thus presented by the Peoples' State Convention.

The citizens of Tioga County who believe in the sentiments above enunciated, are therefore requested without reference to party names to meet in the several election districts, at the usual places for holding elections on Saturday, the 16th day of August, between the hours of 3 and 7 p. m., to elect two delegates from each district, to meet in Convention at Tiogs. on Friday, August 22d, 1862, at 1 o'clock p. m., to select andidates for the following enumerated offices:

dents are especially drilled and trained to become practical teachers. The trustees have already taken measures, which it is expected will be consummated early in December, for offering and having the Seminary accepted by the State as a State Normal School. The Department of Penmanship, Book-Keeping, &c., offer all the advantages of a Commercial Cellege. The Seminary is under contract, to be finished and furnished by the 10th of September next. It will, when finished, be among the best school buildings in nerthern Pennsylvania and will afford excellent facilities for these regions to obtain a thorough scientific and practical education.

Special attention is given to the health and physical education of the students.

Nothing need be said to recommend the Principal to the confidence of the peeple, as his conduct of the o the confidence of the people, as his conduct of the Seminary for the past two years, has placed him fully before the public as one of the educators of the country. Profs. Reynolds and Johns—the former, the late Superintendent of common schools of the country. and the latter the present incumbent, are too well and too favorably known to head further notice we recommend them to the public. Students coming from a distance will have their rooms furnished—those from within a few miles will bring their own furnishing, except bedstead, table, chairs, wash-stand and store.
