Situation of the Tioga Boys.

We print below the latest accounts we have from the lifferent companies in the army from this County .-We desire to give each week, if possible, the exact possible of each company, not alone for the benealt of the people at home, but for the benefit of the boys themselves. Every soldier from the County desires to know where the "other companies" are, and they ought certainly to be gratified with this intelligence. We would therefore be grateful to any person for the latest intelligence from the soldiers.

- Following is a complete list of the casualties in the three companies of the 45th Regiment Pa. Vols. from this county:

Co. H, 45th Reg't., Ps. Vols., Capt. Schieffelin-Killed: Aaron Burr, James R. Tremaine, John N. Hotchkiss.
