Ministry - ---

We miss the athome yes, we miss they At morning, at noon and at night, And we feel, though a raseal has left us His wits were confeundedly bright; For he "diddled" id out of our money, By promising to pay again, he "tens" and the "twenties" and "fiftee" The He borrowed of credulous men.

Oh ! when shall we all learn discretion, Oh i when than we an team the team. To lend to no rellicking scamp, Who, one day is dressed like a nabab; And the ment is off on a tramp? Who laughes and boasts of his exploits. And thinks it is wonderful smart, To cheat a poor tailor and landlord, And got on the Sheriff the start !

But the hearts of said tailor and landlord, But the hearts of said tailor and landeord, Are waxing bold in their wrath, And they swear they will "beef" youstle instant That brings them into your path. And the band that you blarney'd so crelely Has effored a handsome per cent, To any whe'll kindly inform it; Of the road or the path that you word!

Oh ! I tell you you'd better "scratch gravel," And make an extended cost tail, For the Sheriff, with a "poss com' totus" For the Sherin, with a "Descont total" Is sweeping down on your trail. Now go it, old fellor he'll nab you, And hang you (by way of a shange) With your heels in the air and head d'wnwards, Which would look most "infernally itrange."

And when you return to the village, We'll gather around you, old boy, And dance in w "jig" and a "hee down" The depth and extent of our joy !

Then some of our jovis! fellows Will give you a hice coat of mail, Made all out of tar and geese feathers And "horse" you around on a BALL Scott vs. Buchanan.

General Scott has replied to Mr. Buchanan' plea. Such o proceeding was hardly necessary. as the veteran soldier could very will afford to let the case go to the country up in his first letter and the Ex-President's defence. Whilst every one saw that Mr. Buchanan by an ingenious use of dates and details, hid managed to impeach General Scott's memo y in these particulars, still every candid and thoughtful man perceived through the intrid scies of the Ex-Presidential epistle two conspi uous facts, viz; that General Scott urged, Mr Ruchanan to proceed against the threatened woult at an | early day as Jackson did on a simalar pecasion, and that Mr. Buchanan, upon the ples that he could not do all that should be done compromised by doing nothing. It is in this light the correspondence was treated by the press; net only that portion of it which give a partisan support to the Administration, but also that portion which occupies a position of independ-

Gen. Scott gives the following crusher in answer to the remark of Buchan in, that "a'l my Cabinet must bear me witness that I was the President myself responsible for all the acts of the administration." It settles the hash for the old dodger most effect ally :--

"Now, notwithstanding this brad assumption of responsibility, I should be svery to be live that Mr. Buchanan specially persented to the removal, by Secretary Flore, of 115,000 extra muskets and rifles with all their imple-ments and ammunition, from no their reposi-torics to southern arsenels, so that on the breaking out of the maturing rebellion they might be found without cost, except the United States, in the most convenient politions for distribution among the insurgent, So, too, of the one hundred and twenty or any hundred and forty pieces of heavy artill ry, which the same Secretary ordered from Pitisburg to Ship Island, in Lake Borgne, and Gal eston, Texas, for forts not yet erected."

A QUICK REPARTER --- The fc lowing anecdote of Gov. Morris is related by a correspon-"dent of the New York Times :

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq. of Urica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pzcronit inyself and in my family ever since you durented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose sver put out. With a bad cold is should sooner pay twenty-five colligitation is bottle than do without it, or take any other emedy.'

Asrob House, New York Cirx, March 5, 1856. Dr. Ayrs, Lowell.: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to in-form you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife.
