COLLECTOR. We announced last week that the President had appointed Geo. Bubb, Esqu of Lycoming, as Collector of this District under the Nasional Tax Law. Mr. B. has appointed Mr. John Phelps, of Mansfield, as his deputy for the county, a selection which will gratify Ropublicans regy where in the county. Mr. Phelps is a young mis of integfity and of good business habits, and will do his duty to the entire satisfaction of both of the government and the people.

A CORRECTION.—It will be remimbered by most of our readers that our lamented coires pundent "Cnockerr," in one of his letter to the Agitator, early last summer, charged that Mr. B. V. Ochen, of Gaines township, but now living in Iowa, her kept certain sums of money sent in his hands by the Bucktail boys to their friends at home. This was a grave charge against a man whose houses, had never before been questioned, but we printed to because we knew that "Crockett" (Sergeant O. M. Stebbins) had positive evidence of the truth of his statement, otherwise it would never have been mide.-We wrote to Mr. Stebbins and asked him to mivestigate the matter closely: he did so, and wrote again (privately) that there was no doubt that some of the money was lost; and again, just before his death, he said in a private letter to us, that he was satisfied that Mr. Ogden had not kept any of the money himself; that he (Mr. O.) had done the best he could te deliver the money sent by him; that he would make some more inquiries in regard to the matters and that he would vindicate Mr. Ogden's character, as the had first publicly assailed it. A rebel bullet prepented this. Stebbins loved the Right and hated the rong. We have also made inquiries. We have positive oridence in our possession that Mr. Ogden either delivered in person, or mailed every money retter sent by him.' It is true one of the letters sent never reached the right owner, but we have the testimony of the Post Master at Cedar Run that that letter with the others, was mailed there. . the others, was mailed there.

Thus time, which "makes all things even," has proved that an honest man may be assailed unjustly upon evidence apparently trustworthy. It gigs us pleasure to make this correction, for we know that "Crockett" himself intended to do so.

EDITOR OF THE AGITATOR: Sir-The subjoined statement of the graduates, their place of birth, and year of graduation of the West Point Cadets who headed the classes from 1818. (no class rank having been established prior to that date) to 1861, is compiled principally from a statistical work of the garduates from that institution by G. W. Cullum, U. S. A., and will, doubtless, be examined with pleasure by your intelligent readers, as it clearly shows that northern men are not quite as brainless as some would have us believe they are:

Mainsburg, Oct. 8, 1862.

mai School Editor Agitator :-- I am happy to announce the fact to the readers of your paper, that on Thursday last the Mansfield Classical Seminary was made a State Normal School, as the subjoined formal recogsate the Mansfield Classical Seminary was made a state Normal School, as the subjoined formal recognition of the State Superintendent will show.

It is questionable whether any one event has occurred in our county so highly calculated to bless things that are seen and him and his heretofale. Hence the property of the state Superintendent will show.

It is questionable whether any one event has occurred in our county so highly calculated to bless things that are seen and him and his heretofale. Hence the property of the present and coming ages as this. the youth of the present and coming ages as this. We have reached a new era in our educational histothings that are seen and heard to the invasionant unheard, we commend him and his heretofore happy but now broken and weaping family, to Him who is but now broken and weaping family, to Him who is but now broken and consclution in the porest school in our midst, cannot be otherwise than much more effective from year to year, till finally each school shall be under the charge of a full professional teacher, who has had thorough normal training with teaching.

This success comes as a just tribute to the almost superhuman energy, self-sacrifice and untiring zeal that have characterized the efforts of the people of Mansfield and vicinity, to establish an institution in their midst worthy of the confidence and patronage

tion, which I hereby certify to be true and correct.
