List of Letters - Wellsboro Post Office. List of Letters - Tioga Post Office.

The citizens of Keamsville had an intellectual entertainment and a Ghrii tree at the Church on Christmas eve for the benefit of the Sunday School which was well attended.

We learn that the name of John Barnes was so much mentioned in the head, on Tuesday of last week, in Penn Township, this county, by a tree falling on him.

This following is in addition to the list of killed and wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg, published in our last issue.

Small Pox - The people of the eastern part of the county are unnecessarily alarmed in regard to the small pox.

Mrs. Field, of the Dickinson House, Corning, has resumed special services. We had the pleasure of teaching a 1/4 of a dollar in change at his office about 3 weeks since, and our fingers have not stopped since.

To School Directors - I mail this week to the Secretary of each of the Districts in the County, the blanks for the Annual Report and Affidavit for the school year 1882-3.

Obituary - It is a sad task to chronicle the death of another of our brave and promising young men. In the battle of Fredericksburg, while courageously fighting the head of his Company, Lieut. Reuben M. Prentiss was mortally wounded.

REBEN M. PRENTISS was a resident of this village. Here he had a public law in the office of Henry Shetwood, Esq.

There are not a few persons who will long cherish the memory of our departed friend. He was a man of great worth of character marked by unobtrusiveness, firmness, morality and piety.

In the red and short blue, for which I will pay cash and a good price.

Boots, shoes, leather and findings.

When you have anything to advertise, tell the public of it in plain, simple language.

Shop Pelts Wanted, for which I will also pay cash and the highest market price.
