With this request we comply. It is as follows: "Make two small bags that will rench from earite ear, apd fill them with ashes and salt; dip them in hot water, and wring them out so they will not drip, and hpply them to the throat; cover up the whole with a flannel cloth, and change them as often as they become cool, until the throat becomes irritated, near historing. For children, it is necessary to put flan-nel cloths between the ashes and the throat to pre-vent blistering. In the fall of that year he opened the coal mines and built houses about Fall Brook, in which he expended $50,000, He has upon the railroad now seven engines which are worth at a low estimate $50,000, and has about three hundred coal cars which are worth $50,000. are worth at a low estimate $50,000, and has shout three hundred coal cars which are worth $50,000 more. In 1860 Juhn Magee transported over this road seventy-one thousand tons of coal, and profiled his own cars to carry it in. In 1861 he transported over the Tioga railroad eighty thousand tons, and in 1862 one hundred and thirty-seven thousand tons. The Tioga railroad company charged him for the use of their road S0 cents per ton, he furnishing cars. Thus, in 1860 they tharged him $56,800. In 1861 $64,000, and in 1862 in the same proportion, till October or November, when different arrangements were made. Eighty cents per ton would have been enough provided the Tioga railroad had found all the cars, which they did not do, and which is the main portion of expense. Thus the people will see (if "Pennsylvanian wont) that the monopoly has been on the side of the Tioga railroad company. They have been fairly plundering Juhn Magee because he strument furnished to them, Percons able to come to him are desired to do so, and will generally find him at his Furniture and Car-pet Rooms in Lawrenceville. Those who are unalled to come, he will visit on being requested to do so. He has made this arrangement and gives this notion that no che in this sounty may die of these disectors without the trial of this last and most successful triumph of medical colonce.

CONSUMPTION, A ND Diseases of the THROAT and LUNGS, A can be cared. Not however by any medicine taken into the stomach, as has been fully shown recently in a series of essays by Dr. Robert Hunter of New York City, published in the Daily Tribuar but by inhaling the suitable medicine combined with oxygen, into the Lungs. The subscriber is so fully satisfied of this that he has entered into an arrange-ment with Dr. Hunter, by which any person suffering from diseased throat or lungs, on giving him a full statement of their symptoms, and paying the regular fac, which is very reasonable, can have their care entric the Doctor and the medicine and inhaling In-strument furnished to thom. strument furnished to them.
