Mr. Clement Vallandighum, in miner of Congress from Ohio, made a speech of few weeks since in which he avowed himsel, a "Copper-bend." Certain editors nearer him have like-wise rejoiced in the title. It becomes interesting to inquire what it means, ar how it came to be applied to a class of policions.

A "copperhead," according to the American Cyclopedia, is "a venomana serpent...the head is thick...the neck connected, and its scales smooth; there are no raties, the tail being short ... near the flanks are rounded dark blotches...it prefers dark and maist places...It called 'chunk-head' and 'deafadger.'".

It can not be denied hat the analogy bethe honest traveler of their insideous approach. Like the copperhead; their character is "stained by dark blowches;" and, like it they "prefer dark places" to the life of day. Like that sneaking reptile, their it will be of small, feeble creatures;" and they "si like of venture to attack a man." If we add that our political Copperhends, like their reptile type, are so "slow and clumsy in their medians" that they deserve the additional cognonies of "Chunkheads" and "Deakadders," and that "a very alight bliw" makes an end of the have made the analogy complete. It is creditable to the discount of the complete of the control of itable to the discernment of our Western fellowcitizens that they so quickly in lized the re-semblance between the opported snake and the peace politician, and baptized them by one common appellation.

We shall not waste time in a taing with the Copporheads. Men who are that the of justing whom the blood of some member; of almost every

How to Tell a Tory he Washington Examiner has a true standa d by which to tell a tory. He curses the Abolitionists, damns the Black Republicans and is threadfully savage on the "free niggers." He is terribly distressed about the suspension of the habeas corpus, and rages about Fort Lafayette, and "the Bastile." He is very much afraid there will be an insurrection among the slaves, but is perfectly easy shout the insurrection of the masters. He villifies the President and wishes he had sunk to the bottom of the ocean. He is wonderfully exercised on the subject of political preaching, but believes in Vandyke and the divinity of slavery. He talks a great deal about the en-ormous war debt, and is alarmed at the "bankrupting flood" of green badks. He calls the Southerners gentlemen and the New Englanders penurious and fanatically. He thinks the soldiers haven't any right to vote. He doubts whether Rosecrans was victorious at Murfreesboro, and don't care whether he was or not. You can tell him at a glance in a growd around the bulletin board, for the flash of patriotic joy is absent from his eye as the news of a brilliant victory is heralded from the Army of the Republic, while the intelligence of a defeat draws from him the exclamation, "you can never subjugate the South

GENERAL BUTLER ON JEFF. DAVIS'S PROCLA-MATION .- The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette tells this story:

"General Butler has told friends here the course which he should have pursued with reference to the proclamation of Jeff. Davis against him, had it reached New orleans while he was still in command. He would have sent a rebel General and several other officers then in his hands to Ship Island, with orders that upon receipt of authentic intelligence by the officer in command there, that a hair of Butler's head or any of his officers had been touched, these rebel prisoners should all be hung at once .-And, adds Butler, Jeff Davis knows me well enough to believe that what I promised I should perform. He knows that a Massachusetts man who dared to hote sixty-four times for him at the Charleston Convention, would dare to do anything."

Over one thousand certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years, attest the fact.

To Horse Owners:

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment for Horses is univaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Munge, &c., it will also cure speedily. Sparin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radicul cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horses to travel with comparative ease.

EVERY HORSE OWNER

DR. FRANKLIN SAYS: "When you have anything to advertise, tell the public of it in plain, simple language."

I am manufacturing good custom made Boots and Shoes which I will sell at fair prices, and only for READY PAY. Such work cannot be sold at as low rates per pair as eastern made slop-work, but it can and will be sold at prices which will enable the purchaser to protect his feet with good substantial boots more cheaply than with a poor slop-shop article, which, even if it chances not to fall in pieces with the first weeks service, is but a doubtful protection in wet and cold weather. Try me. Buck and Doeskins Wanted, in the red and short blue, for which I will pay cash and a good price. Beef-Hides and Calfskins Wanted, for which I will also pay cash. Sheep Pelts Wanted, for which I will also pay cash and the highest marfor which I will also per some ket price.

An assortment of sole, upper, callskins and linings, pegs, thread, nails, awls, knives, shoe-hammers, &c., &c., kept constantly on hand, which I will sell cheap for eash. Shop on Main Street between Wilcox's and Rullard's.
