THE sale of the 5-20 U.S. bonds averages about $1,500,000 per day at present. Every man who can lend material aid to the Government ought to avail himself of this opportunity to do so.

PARSONS, of Corning this week testifies to the fact that advertising pays? We commend his liberal bill of fare to our readers, specially those residing in the northern townships. Shey will find him a live man.

We apprehend that an examination of our advertising columns this week will pay. Our borough merchants have filled their shelves and counters with excellent assortments of goods, and are selling them at reasonable prices. See advertisements of Bullard & Co., Jerome Smith, and J. R. Bowen. Call and sep them.

WICKHAM'S NURSERY .- Persons wishing to procure fruit trees of all varieties, as well as evergreens and flowering shrubbery for oroamental purposes, will do well to visit Wickham's Narsery at Tioga. It is becoming an "institution," and deserves the patronage of all Tioga county people. It is the duty of all to patronize home industry and home enterprise.

THE SOLDIER'S ATA SOCIETY of this borough is now firmly established, and cernestly and efficiently cooperating with the National Association. We learn that its receipts are encouraging. If there was ever a worthy object upon which the liberality of our people could expend itself it is presented in the appeal of this Society. Every dollar dropped into its treasurv is an earnest of sympathy with the noble fellows who languish in hospitals and bleed on the battle-

WE have had the pleasure, since Monday, of taking the hands of very many old friends. Their warm greetings have encouraged and cheered us, as showing that the cause we advocate is as heartily sustained by them as ever. There seems to be a fixed determination to stand by the Government to the end, and to bruise the head of the sorpent until the Scripwith them, heart and hand,

We are also indebted to our friends for handsome additions to our subscription list, with the promise ofheavier additions in the future.

THE DRAFT.-Col. Emery has received the appointment of Deputy Provost-Marshal of this District and is prosecuting the work of enrolment in this county preparatory to the draft. For convenience the county is divided into seven districts, and an enrolling officer appointed for each district, as follows:

PERSONAL .- We learn that our village lately had the honor of the presence of FLUMMUX KERPLUM-MUX, Esq., late traveling agent for Floyd, Buchanan, & Con and now Grand Worthy Chief Drummer of the K. G. C'a. Mr. Kerflummux is quite a permanent, if not prominent, candidate for Governor under the auspices of the nondescriptive, Trigonocephalus contortrix, or Copperhead party and will run against the SQUIRTEM SQUIROB, Esq., Chief Bait-cutter and cleaner for Hon. Minnew Littlefish, is also here for the purpose of instituting a Lodge of the Knights of den Circle in Wellsboro and adjacent ter Mr. Squibob finds a mana of incongruous materials, very difficult to assimilate, but is a man of great erergy and deserves success. Several great men will be initiated at the first formal meeting of the Lodge in the third basement story of the illustrious Pigwig, this evening. Whiskey free. No reserved seats.

WE are indebted to HUGH Young, Esq., Postmaster, for a number of the Tioga Pioneer, published by RANKIN LEWIS & Co., in this borough. The paper is dated "Saturday, December 9, 1826," is a little less than half the size of the Agitator, printed on coarse brown paper, at $1.50 per annum, in advance. Besides the news of the day there are plenty of advertisements, some of them curiosities in their way :-Mary Ann Caulking informs her friends that two Innkespers who, made an agreement with her to discount county orders did not stand to their agreement, thus injuring her business; also that hereafter she will receive county, orders lat par. William Eliot, of Lawrence, gives notice that he will not pay a certain note given for 10,000 feet of boards, unless compelled by law—the same having teen fraudulently obtained. Smith & Hill, merchants, advertise new goods that day opened. John Daily protifies the public that a stray calf came to his "ipantation" in Delmar, and desires the owner to appear, prove property and take it away. Among the news items we find an announcement of a tumor to the effect that Washington Irving "is in a fair way of marrying her Highness the arch-duchess of Parms, widow of the deceased . Napoleon." There are notices from Uriah Spencer, Napoleon. There are nucleos from orisin Spences, Register, and John Beecker, Sheriff. We are also informed by the Hink Note Exchange, "corrected weekly," that Mari land money was par, and N. Y. State funds from 1 s Zecats discount.

The Oscood Set (EE of School Books.—We have never advocated clange in anything for the sake of change. We have decided objections to change in any direction without cause, and reasonable prospect of benefit. In the matter of School books, the demand for a change has been pressed constantly, both by disinterested and interested persons, for the last fifteen years. Thee Has been room for improvement nor is it to be assumed that the best series of school books has been prepared.

In the "Osgood Progressive Series," of which we purpose to speak, we relegaize more real progress than is to be found in any other series that we have examined. The method stopted is strictly inductive, and carried out without glaving inconsistencies, either than is to be found in any other series that we have examined. The method stopted is strictly inductive, and carried out without glaring inconsistencies, either in conception or execution. Take, for example, the First Reader, in which the child meets only words of rus Larrison, dec'd. one syllable, and the same words many times during the lesson. In the Second Reader, only words of one and two syllables occur, and in the Third words of one, two and three spilables, Thus, the pupil ascends one, two and three syllables, Thus, the pupil ascends by say and natural grades, and by mastering the significance of words, becomes "a good reader," and speller.

We have precised to the following the significance of words, becomes "a good reader," and speller.

We have precised to the following the following the significance of words, and by mastering the significance of words, becomes "a good reader," and wellsboro, May 13, 1863.—3w.

We have practical knowledge of both Town's and Sanders' series of hieks, and are free to confess that their defects are i merally avoided in the Origood series, so far as we have examined. The advanced readers we have no yet had time to examine,

ATLANTIC MONTHLY FOR JUNE. - This number, the 58th, completes the eleventh volume of a periodical of great popularity and merit. The best article here, is on Mountains and their Origin, by Professor Ages. six. There is a pleasant, account of "The Hancock House, and its Founder," by Arthur Gilman. "Ike Maryel" and Gall Hamilton saverally discourse. The story of "Paul Blecker" is continued, and a couple of lively tales are also given. "Why Thomas was discharged," a sea-side sketch, by George Arnold, and "The Members from Foxden," by some clever anonymous author. Among the poetry, "Violet Planting," by Mrs. Elizabeth Akers, is thoughtful and Shelleyish.

HARRER, for June, is a first-rate Number. There are two illustrated articles—"The Indian Massacres of 1862," and "The Almaden Quicksilver Mines". both full of information. "Romola," and "The Small House at Allington" are continued; there is a first-rate and timely article on "Insects injurious to the Vine," and a fine variety of stories. For sale at Robinson's Book Store.
