THE Ice Cream Party given by the Soldiers' Aid Society, in the Court Hou to last evening, proved a great success.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT .--- W regret to learn that Mr.

THE "Green Mountain (If Man," held a levee in the open air, at Bigeney's Monday evening. The crewd was large, and the II man full of song and story, but the antics of a gmowhat too jolly woodman caused a postponement of the entertainment to a more convenient season.

Awong the wounded in the reconnoissance across the Rappahannock below Fredericksburg, on the 5th inst, we notice the name of James H. Boyce, of Sullivan, in this county, of the 5th N. Y. Engineers. He was wounded in the leg-

RETURNED.-The three companies of the 136th Ps. Volunteers, from this coint is returned to their homes and friends on Monday (1 last week. These companies were mostly recruited in Westfield, Deerfield and Tioga. We shall publish the muster rolls of these companies next week, if our friends send them on by Monday, or earlier, as some have promised. Meantime, we take the liberty to tender the brave fellows the congratulatory welcome of the loyal people of Ti-

THE OIL WELL .-- We las week received a call from Mr. CADY MURBAY, of wh se enterprise in Farmington we have several times nade mention. Mr. Murray is a very intelligent gritteman, not at all an enthusiast, but full of hope and perseverance. The boring, which is presedued without intermission, save on Sundays, has now i eached a depth of upward of 200 feet. We have a mall specimen of the rock through which the work a progressing at present. It is a fine sandstone, of bearp grain and very hard on the drills. We did hof speak much with him in regard to particulars, by nothing is more certain than that he thoroughly falleves in his enterprise. Success to him.

Mrs. Niles had been twice married. Her first bus-band bere the name of J. M. Kilbourne. She was horn in 1798, in the town of Keene, N. H. She came inte Northern Pennsylvania, about 57 years ago; and on March 4, 1833, became connected by marriage with Aaron Niles, of Niles Valley. She joined the Meth-odist Episcopal Church at Wellsboro, about 38 years ago. Having settled in the town of Middlebury, she found no Methodist Society within convenient dis-tance, and therefore formed a connection with a Bap-tist Society in that town, which society was then un-der the pastoral supervision of Rev. James Coffin. About five years later, she was again attacked with the same disease. She became very infirm in conse-quence of these repeated strokes, so much so that it was very difficult for her to mave herself from one place to another in the room. She received a third and final attack of the same malady, on Saturday, May 30, having been prostrated by it upon the floor, while making her way to her bed at evening. She remained in a semi-conscious state till Wednesday, June 3, when she died at 7 o'clock A. w. Her funeral took place at the Niles Valley school house, on Thursday, June 4.
