WRESTLING M. rou -A large concourse assembled on the public Soy ir: Monday afternoon, to wilness a wrestling-match) to reen two muscular young men, Messas. Williams is Recse. Williams was declared the winner, though the match was pretty nearly neck and neck. The affair went off pleasantly and all parties went home in good humor.

On Saturday last Mr. O. V. Chans, agent for the sale of Ball's House & Reaper, as well as for improved Agriculteral implements generally, had a very interesting exhibition of his muchines on the public Square. The Bull Hower and Reaper appears to us to be the most compact, the most ship-shape, and altogether the nearest machine of its kind. It seems to combine strength, lightness, ease of operation and of draught, with capacity to do much work and do it well. These machines may be seen at all times two doors below Holiday's.

Ir has been remarked that certain of our citizens turned their backs pon the work of sending off the Wellsboro, Charles on, and Delmar volunteers last week. We suspent that they must have been allied to an individual of whom we heard but just now. On Monday, while ch his way to town, Mr. Deane of Delmar, was neoste I by a man, with-

"I hear that jour two boys have gone off to the war ?"-

"Yes;" said Mr. D.

"What did ye' his them go for?"
"To defend the flate, and preserve the free institutions of our columny," was the reply. "Ugh!" ejack a ed ihis questioner, whipping up his team and dailing off in high dudgeon. That man will rote for Judge Woodward.

LARGE FLEEC ... Mr. G. W. D. Eastman, of Delman, exhibited in our office on Saturday last, the fleece sheared from a se cop eleven months old, which rather beats all other fly id is that we have seen. The fleece weighs (washed) 142 pounds, and is of the very finest quality of wool. The clip is three inches in length. The sheep produ is g this magnificent fleece has rur with the other at my p, faring the same in all kinds of weather. It is a rull-blood Spanish Merino, and was purchased by Mr. Eastman last summer. He has several bucks and wes of the Spanish and French Merine crossed, al very fine sheep.

Farmers will d ubtless do well to change their breed of sheep for the Spanish Merino, or the mixed Spanish and Frenci. The fleece alluded to, in these times, is worth $14.25 a pretty good return for the investment of $20 n year ago.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM .- We are indebted to R. T. Hall, Esq., P. M., at Farmington Hill, for the particulars'd a destructive starm, accompanied with hail which passed over farmington, Chatham, Middlebury und Tiogs, on We needay, the 17th day of June, instant. The wind ras very violent, unroofing houses and barns, and pristrating timber and fences in its courset Mr. Hirs m Merritt of Farmington had a barn unroofed, and the same same fate befell two barns owned owned by Mr. P. M. Close, and the house of Mr. Senech Hotton. These are but a few-cases of the entire number but all in regard to which we have reliable informatid ...

The damage for a to crops was very great. The hail was very lorg -some stones measuring an inch in diameter-and nade great havoc with windows as well as with crops: A great deal of damage was done to the timber in it, track of the tornado.

The track of the storm was from North-west to WELLSBORO, COARLESTON, and DELMAR, have responded nobly to the Governor's call for troops to serve in defence of the State. By reference to proceedings in any her place it will be seen that a company was organized on Friday afternoon. The greater part of them let for Harrisburg Saturday morning, and took the cars at Troy at 61 in the evening. The county has never gent off a better set of men. They were young, and pigorous, and intelligent, and what was significant @f good service, they departed quietly but where? at without fuss anade. We predict that they will never give their friends cause to be ashamed of them. The officers-Cop, Merrick, and Lieutenants Deane and Young, are in m of the right stomp and well qualified for the positi his they hold. Messrs. Merrick & Deane have good totive service.

These noble fell two, one and all, have the grateful remembrances of every loyal man and woman in this region, as well as locat wishes for gallant service and a safe return.

STRUCK BY LIGHTAING .- During the thunder-storm which prevailed in this region last Friday evening, the lightning passed down the conductor attached to the house owned by Mrs. Meek, in this borough, and thence under the foundation wall into a bedroom usually occupied by the family, destroying the floor and Julie. Lucibly the house was unoccupied.

The lesson taught by this freak of lightning is this: Never leave the under ground end of the lightning rod pointing toward the building. Bury the lower end deep enough to keep it moist, and turn it away from the building of above we have received a note from R. T. Hall, Esq., of Farmington Hill, stating that that neighbirthood was again visited by a severe storm on Sunday a little before noon, accompanied with hall. The hunder and lightning are described at terrific. The house of Reve H. B. Turk was struck, and Mrs. Tuck siverely shocked. The fluid entered the roof, passed fown the store-pipe into the kitchen, where Mrs. T. h ippened to be, and struck her arm near the elbow, Jassing off at the fingers. The track of the current wis visible for some time in a blue streak from the (bow to the finger ends.

Doings on the Fourts. -The rural neighborhoods are preparing to observe the national holiday in an Appropriate maniar. There is to be a pic-nic in the Grove near the Close School House, in Chatham under the suspices thithe Soldiers' Aid Society of Chatham. The pie nice is for the benefit of our sick and wounded soldiers, and will, no doubt, be largely pat-rehised. Every one who can command the time aught to counternance such laudable doings by their presence.

We have no details of other rural selebrations but may have them is time for next week's issue. The people of Coving on will celebrate in the old-fash-ioned way, we joint.

There will be a Ball at the house of Mr. B. B. Holiday, in this village, on Friday evening July 3de-Also, a party at the House of Col. Yenkin, Blossburg, same evening. There will also be a dance at the House of Mr. Abrams, Codar Run, on Thursday evening, July 2. Among so many opportunities for spending the Fourth, no doubt every one will find something to his or her mind.

MB. J. TELLER of Knoxville, Pa., stopped, over night on Tuesday at Mr. Payne's on Post Creek, above Bucher's tayern. In the morning his horse was missing. The stolen horse was a chesinut sorrel about five years old. $50 reward is offered for the horse and thief, or $30 for the former.-Corning

A DISGRAMSFUL AFFAIR.—Some loafers went to the house of a colored barber, in Shippen, the other day, insulted his wife, and conducted themselves as rowdies de on such occasions. Word reached the barber's care as to the proceedings going on at the house. He at once repaired thither, in company with a young man by the name of Ellsworth. Upea the approach of the two to the house the rowdies skedaddled, hotly pursued by the barber and Ellsworth, the former armed with a stot gun and the latter with a shillallah. Ellsworth caught his man and gave him a severe pummeling, but the barber, finding that his legs were not quite tong enough to evertake the man he was after, delivered the contents of his gun at him, literally elling his back with shot but not injuring him seriously. Both parties were arrested and all were bound over to Court.—McKers Miner. CLOAK CLOTHS.
