NATIONAL THANKSOWING. The Episcopal Church will be open for Divine service to morrow [Thursday] evening, at eight o'clock! A sermon appropriate to the eccasion will be delivered by the Rector.

A collection will be taken up for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers, and will be sent to the U. S. Sanitary Commission for that purpose.

Lieut. Rockwell was in town on Monday. His wound is improving slowly, but it is doubtful if he regains the use of his leg for months to come. He is in good spirits and full of pluck, as usual.

Ma Coss - Dear Sir : I am permitted to take the following extracts from a letter to Mrs. Hills, from her husband, Lieut. Col. Hills, of the 45th Reg't, Pa. Vols. The letter is dated July 15th, 1863.

[EXTRACT.]

"We arrived withingthree miles of Jackson, on the 10th. Our regiment was deployed as skirmishers.—We drove the rebels two znies, toward Jackson, when night overtook us. We were very tired and wellnigh worn out. At daylight we were up and after them again, being still in the advance. We drove them within three-fourths of a mile of Jackson, when they having the advantage of the ground, made a stand. Here, I am sorry to say; James Naval, of company I, was killed; being shot; through the neek. At a meeting of the Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Wellsboro, Pa., held Monday evening, August 3d, 1863, the following Preamble and Recolutions were unanimously adopted.

As it has pleased Almighty God in his wise Provinces, to remove from among us our much esteemed friend and brother in the Lord, Dr. Otis L. Gibson, one of the founders of this Parish; and for many years an of the founders of this Parish; and for many years an active—and influential member of the Vestry, and Warden in the church; and believing it to be most fit and proper, gratefully to acknowledge the good deeds of those who labor in the cause of Christ and humanity; therefore

Resolved, That while we deeply mourn the decease of a true friend, and faithful christian, we how with reverence to the will of Him who doth not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men.

Resolved, That in the protracted weakness and sudden death of Dr. Gibson, this Parish has sustained a heavy loss, and been deprived of one of its brightest ornaments.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the members of this church to cherish a grateful memory of the valua-ble services, earnest zeal, and good example of one who was identified with this Parish from its com-mencement 'till his death, a peried of nearly thirty Pears.

Resolved, That we extend our warmest sympathy to the bereaved widow and family, who so recently have been called to mourn the loss of a devoted husband been called to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and affectionate parent, and may they find consolation in "Him who doeth all things well."

Resolved, That this preamble and resolutions be published in the papers of this village, and be recorded in the Church Register, and that a copy be presented to the family of the deceased.

In Wellsboro, July 31st ult., OTIS L. GIBSON, M. D., at the age of 56.

The subject of the above notice, was born June 3th, 1807. He removed to this Borough from Vermont, in the summer of 1820, and began the practice of medicine and surgery. In a country comparatively new and and thinly settled, with few roads to facilitate travel, his practice was one of arduous labors, frequent exposure to the zeverst weather and exhausting fatigue. Few physicians have accomplished more in the same number of years. He rode far and near. He never thought of self-comfort, or Interest; and is the dead of night, in the coldent winter, he would cheerfully visit a poor patient in some distast part of the county, though there was no prospect of remneration.

Dr. Gibson was a physician of rare skill and superior scientific attainments. He was devicedly attached to his profession and followed it, not with eye service for the sake of gain, but like a true servant of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart. A man of great firmness and decision of character, he was always candid and out-spoken. At the bedied of his patients, he was a man of few words, but the hours in his absence were given to reflective study for those under his care. Those who have been intimately acquainted with, and have known his practice, agree in the opinion that few physicians have hades successful a practice. Like every scientific man, he had an innate detestation of quackery and chariatanism. To the eminence of a physician, he added the brighter fusier of high christian graces and virtues. Dr. Gibson received the rite of confirmation, hus becoming a communicant in the Episcopal Church, at the hands of Bishop Onderdonk, at his first visitation to this village, October 20th, 1839. From that time he continued as Vestryman and Warden, in St. Paul's Pazish, an earnest and faithful worker, nutil through waskness and disability, he was obliged to relinquish all active duties in the church, as well as in his profession.
