M. H. COBB, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. WELLSBOROUGH, PENNA. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 12, 1863.

UNION STATE TICKET. FOR GOVERNOR, ANDREW G. CURTIN. FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, DANIEL AGNEW, OF BEAVER COUNTY.

Republican Co. Convention, Aug. 28th. Election of Delegates, August 22d.

It is with great satisfaction and renewed hope for the future of the country that we announce the re-nomination of ANDREW G. CURTIN, by the Union Convention which assembled at Pittsburg to-day's week.

We look upon ANDREW G. CURTIN as invincible against the power and popularity of any man, by what party soever championed, who can be brought against him.

THERE was a man who had great possessions. His granaries, likewise his purse, were always full to overflowing.

He suffered seed-time to come and go, and sowed no wheat, neither did he plant corn; and when his neighbors remonstrated with him...

Gen. Logan on Peace and War. The correspondent of the Chicago Tribune reports a recent earnest conversation of Major-General Logan, the well-known Western War Democrat.

"It makes no difference whether you call me Democrat, Republican, or abolitionist—as some have of late named me. It does not change my feelings—does not alter my action. I am for my country every time—

Every mother's son who is opposed to the war should be compelled to take up arms against us or for us. There would be no talk of peace here in the North, no talk of resistance, no such men as Vallandigham, no such cowards as those who support all such men, and say these things.

Vallandigham says he has travelled over the Confederacy—using the term "Confederacy" not the phrase so called Confederacy (for I do not acknowledge the existence of any authority or Government in America aside from that of the United States), and has not seen man, woman, or child, who does not sustain the war, and is not determined to fight it out to the death or the bitter end.

Now who cannot see that a vote for Curtin in this county is as good as if cast for him in Copperhead Berks, or Schuylkill? If we can poll one hundred votes more than were polled last fall, by any extra vigilance or labor; it will count as much in the State canvass as if that added number of votes had been gained in old Berks.

our strength? What inducements? Think a moment; ask yourselves what would have been the attitude of Pennsylvania to-day had the pro-slavery traitors defeated Audie Curtin in 1860.

Look back to the dark days that ensued upon the first Bull Run, when Gov. Curtin threw the gallant Reserves, provided by his foresight, into the trembling scale, and electrified the North with renewed hope and confidence.

What if the Executive of this Commonwealth had been a Woodward-Seymour-Vallandigham-sympathizer in that trying hour? Does any loyal man doubt that the State would have been treacherously handed over to Jefferson Davis?

The prize is national existence. Let us strive for it like men who can forget self in remembering their country. LET US TO WORK.

HURRAH FOR KENTUCKY!

This seems to be the season of Union victories. Kentucky has held a general election since our last issue, with glorious results for the Union.

Pittsburg Convention.—The Resolutions.

We give herewith the platform adopted by the Union State Convention which nominated CURTIN and AGNEW, at Pittsburg, last Wednesday.

The loyal men of Pennsylvania, in Convention assembled, disclaiming all partisanship, and knowing no cause but that of the country, declare for themselves and their constituents:

First. Their indefeasible purpose to maintain, by every necessary effort, service, and sacrifice, the National Union, as the first, highest, most solemn, and most overshadowing of all political duties.

Second. That the rebellion which threatens the existence of the Union was without cause, was conceived in wickedness, organized in perjury, and developed by reckless violence, is stained with every crime, and detestable in object, and infernal in purpose, and must be suppressed by the people of the United States.

What inducements have we to put forth all fection and regard of the whole American people; and, always bearing himself clear in his high office, has maintained the integrity of the Union, and kept our honor untarnished throughout the world.

Resolved, That the amendments proposed to the Constitution in giving to our soldiers in the field the right of suffrage, merit our hearty approval, and will receive our united support.

Resolved, That we tender to the gallant sons of Pennsylvania now in the armies and navies of the Republic, the thanks of a grateful people, for their unselfish and heroic valor; that we mourn for those who have sealed with their blood their devotion to their country, and will cherish their memories tenderly and fondly.

Resolved, That Governor Curtin, by the effective support he has given the Federal Government in the prosecution of the war, and his vigilant care for our soldiers, alike in the field, in camp, and in hospital, has gained for Pennsylvania proud and foremost pre-eminence among the loyal States, and entitled himself to the thanks of all her loyal citizens, and in placing him again in nomination the Convention but gave expression to the spontaneous wishes of the people of the Commonwealth he has served so well.

Resolved, That in the nomination of Judge Agnew, we present an accomplished jurist, a pure patriot, and a loyal citizen, who will add the highest judicial tribunal of the Commonwealth, and give additional security to the right of persons and property.
