Wellsboro Loyal League. Meets every MONDAY EVENING, at the CLUB and READING ROOM, Roy's Hall.

New A Ivertisements. Kerosene Oil and Lemps-W. D. Terbell. Fire and Water Prabf Cement-J. A. Boy. . . Announcement - G. W. Stanton. List of Letters-H. Young, P. M.

There will be a special Meeting of the Loyal ague at the Club and Reading Room, to-morrow THURSDAY EVENING. A full attendance is de-Bired and expected.

WE state for the differmation of the public that Breanan and Creanor, the men who killed Farrey at Blossburg two weeks hince, have been put in irons. It is not likely that they will escape from jail until legally dismissed. It may not be complimentary to Gov. Seymour to treat his, "friends" se cavalierly, but it will not greatly failled the friends of law and order.

Information Warring of Luther P. Wheaton, a lad of fifteen years old, who enlisted into Capt. Merrick's Company, without the knowledge or consent of his parents, and went to Harrisburg with Lieut. Deane on Thesday, Aug. 18. Not being accepted for six menths, he is believed to have enlisted into the regular army at Harrisburg. Any information concerning the boy will be thankfully received at this office.

NARBOW ESCAPE. As Rev. GEO. C. ROBINSON (who s now an invalid spending the sesson at his father's in this village) was taking a carriage drive on Sunday, the horse trok fright about a mile below town and became uncranageable. After plunging about for some time he succeeded in clearing himself about for some time be succeeded in clearing himself from the carriage and lashed away down the turnpike. Happily Mr. Relinson received no serious injury, save from the excitement, which in his weak state quite prostrated him.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.—Mr. J. E. Andrews, of Middlebury, has left with us a sprout from a pear graft which measures about 5 ft. 11 inches. This is the growth for this season. The graft producing it is en a thorn apple stock, only three years old; and produced this year half a bushel of Bartlett pears—perfect beauties. We jublish this hoping that farmers in every part of the county will act upon the "fruitful" anggestion of Mr. Andrews, and save all "fruitful" suggestion of Mr. Andrews, and save all the hardy Thorntrees in their premises to graft on. It is a good thing to do.

A Corncidence.-Soine evil-disposed person cuttee halyards of the flag-staff on the Public Square Saturday night, and pulled them down. As they could not be replaced without taking down the pole, that difficult job has been perferined, and renewed, and painted, it will be raised to its position in a few days.

The coincidence is this A Copperhead meeting was held in this village the same evening. That party has been guilty of many like insults to the old flag in other places, and the animus of that faction is the same everywhere. The perpetrator of the deed was nrested and brought to town Monday evening, and tried before Justice Crowl on Tuesday. The evidence against him was clear, and he was held to bail in the sum of $200, for his appearance next term. Not being able to procure bail he was lodged in jail.

Bennett had been at the Copperhead meeting that evening, and from the tankt of the speeches made on that occasion, we cannot but regard the deed of which he is accused as quite natural—a part of the Copperhead programme. Not that we suppose that he is more than the willing tigent of some more cunning principal; but the agest commonly takes the brunt, as witness the coming to grief of Gov. Seymour's "friends" in the New York Courts.

"SHAKINESS" DEFIED.-A certain/ Copperhead having delivered himsel! of a speech before the Copperhead "Bludgeon" of Wellsboro, recently, a loyal man remarked to the applicating "Copper"—"I thought —— was a Union man." "Ob," said the momentarily candid "Sopper," "--- is about to redeem himself this fall. He was a little 'shaky' last er."

From which we extra the following definitions: SHAKY :- Somewhat lolining to be loyal to the Government. REDEENING ONESELD Laboring in the interest of Jeff. Davis. of Jeff. Davis.

We give this as it was told to us. Much obliged to "Copper" for the candid admission.

We are requested announce GEO. W. STAN-TON, of Lawrenceville as a candidate for Assembly, subject to the decisions the Republican Convention.

List of articles in box No. 9, Aug. 24, 1863.

5 jare of pickles, 2 has of jelly, 3 bottles raspberry vinegar, 2 bottles currents wine, 1 bushel dried apples, 7 rolls of bandages, 1 peck dried whorldeberries, 1 peck dried currants, 2 dozen eggs, 1 bundle cotton clethes, 4 pairs weeks socks, quantity of papers, pamphlets &c.

The Aid Seciety will pay for blackberries brought to the Court House, Esturdoy, August 29th, after 2 o'clock, and we would arge the importance of each one trying to contribute, more or less, of these berries to the Aid Seciety, as there is an urgent demand for them, and we trust each one will feel that a blessing is awarded to him who giveth but a cupjof water to one of those brave and wounded soldiers. to, one of those brave and wounded soldiers.

The following extract from the August number of the Sanitary Reporter published at Louisville will be read with interest and Eneded with profit. As will be seen, it conveys a message to our Copperheads as well seen, it conveys a message to our Copperheads as well as to the loyal:

"We request that die circulation be given to Dr. Warriner's appeal to the semi-loyal and these not loyal at all, in behalf of their rebel brethren at Vicksburg. It is not at all probable that this class will send a greater quantity of those articles than can be usefully applied to alleviate the suffering or save the lives of those whom the fortunes of war have thrown upon our liands.

"We desire to call the attention of all who wish to contribute to the heath, comfort and efficiency of our troops, to the facts that pickles, dried, fruit and crout are at all times atlong the most useful articles which can be sent to the army. Immense benefit followed the use of their articles during the last winter and spring, and not other articles are so universally and anxiously shiled for as these. Let every one, then, who has a girden put up pickles and sour crout; and every one they owns an orchard dry his simplus fruit for our trave defenders. To a soldier threatened with scurry for whose digestion has been weakened by camp table, a few pickles or a tin-cup full of dried apples presences a value scarcely calculable in meney.

Preserve it like any other jam, and it will be found very useful in families, particularly for children—regulating their bowels and enabling you to dispense with cathartics. It may be spread on bread or on pudding, instead of butter; and even when the blackberries are bought, it is cheaper than butter.

DEATH OF JUDGE PURPLE.

To the numerous friends of the deceased in Penn To the numerous friends of the deceased in Pennsylvania the annunciation of his death at this time will be as unexpected as it is and and unwelcome.— Although at the bar and an the bench upward of thirty years, Judge Purple had not yet reached that period of life when the faculties of hard working professional men are expected to fail. He was still in the prime of life, and but a short time previous to his death had been engaged in his professional avocations, exhibiting much of his accustomed energy and avidity.

Judge Purple had many, warm-friends in Tiega county,—some of these have preceded him in their Judge Purple had many warm friends in Tioga county,—some of these have preceded him in their journey across the dark valley. Others survive him who will learn with profound grief the intelligence of his early death and will cherish while they live the recollection of his friendship. By these, his high professional and social reputation in his adopted State will be regarded with just pride and gratification.

Here is an example worthy of the consideration of our young men. Behold hew much can be accomplished by integrity, industry, energy and perseverance. Judge Purple occupied in early life an humble position. Thirty-three years of honest and well directed effort have given him an enduring name and fame,—the name and fame of a citizen "who was everywhere known and respected as possessing the highest integrity and patriotism"—of a judge "who added honor to the ermine and dignity to the bench," added honor to the ermine and dignity to the bench," and of a lawyer who was regarded "as the leader of the law in the State." [Resolutions next week.] WAR NEWS.

From the army of the Potomac we have, no stirring tidings, but it would seem to be pressing forward gradually, by divisions, while the entire army is under marching orders.

It is now known that Lee's army is rapidly weakening by wholesale desertions - whole companies going off in a night. Add to this the admissions of the Mobile papers, to the effect that the 31,000 men captured and paroled by Grant at Vicksburg, are dispersed and beyond recall, and the affairs of the rebels seem in hopeless case.

The rebel guerilla chief, Quantrell, with a force 800 strong, suddenly descended upon the city of Lawrence, Kansas, last Thursday night and sacked and burned that city, murdering many of the inhabitants. Jim Lane, who was in the city, rallied a few men and pursued the thieves, but with what success we do not learn The loss by this raid is estimated at $2,000,000.

Charleston is evidently to share the fate of Vicksburg soon. Gen. Gilmore's batteries of 200-pounder Parrett guns have knocked several ugly holes into Fort Sumter. The Richmond papers of the 21st say that Gilmore's guns are too much for Sumter, and the Fort replies only at long intervals. Gov. Bonham has ordered the removal of all non-combatants from the city of Charleston at the earliest moment. It is said that the rebels will fight from street to street, as long as a foot of earth is left. That sounds well, but a single Monitor can render every street untenable in sixty minutes, without loss to our side. The Savannah papers are bitterly lamenting the evident doom of Charleston, as are the other rebel papers. With the fall of that city goes Mobile, Savanuah, and the occupation of the blockade-runners; and with that accumulated disaster Northern Copperheadism dies the death. The cause of rebellion and the cause of Copperheadism are identical.

LATER.—An official despatch from Admiral Dahlgren to Secretary Welles announces that Fort Sumter has been silenced, as well as Fort Wagner and Battery Gregg. The probability is that Charleston is ours ere this time.

From the West we learn tidings of a great battle in progress between Gen. Rosecrans and Gen. Johnston, at Chatanooga. Burnside is is also on the march. There is little don't that Rosecrans will gain a decisive victory and close the fight in the Southwest. This news is up to 4 a. m. Tuesday morning.
