Young ladies past the age of fifteen, and from that delicate and interesting age all the way up to forty, and perhaps even later, are generally supposed to be, more, or less, on the look-out for a husband. Nice cresses and pretty bonnets, music and dancing, and the polite accomplishments in societies, where these are cultivated, and very much of what is called society, are supposed to have this object in

We do not say how just this is but such is undoubtedly the popular idea. It is believed that nine out of ten of all young unmarried ladies would not object to a good husband.

But the supply of good husbands is not equal to the demand. Consequently we have some hundreds of thousands of old maidsnons who have taken no veils or yows, and who do not live in convents, but who are none the less living in a state of celibacy. Some think that this is a dangerous and immoral state.

We are not of that opinion.

The surplus of women makes the celibacy of many a necessity. The unworthiness of men is the cause of a number. We see thousands of men around us, whose married state is a constant marvel to us. We cannot conceive how they ever induced any woman to have them. Rough in manners, careless in their morals, slovenly in appearance, and filthy in habits, how can these men be the fit husbands of tender, delicate, loving women &-Still such men do get married. We read about them in the newspapers. Sometimes they are complained of for beating, bruising, or stabbing their wives. Sometimes it is a shirt for divorce. But there are thousands of such cases that are never heard of. Many a proud, sensitive woman, dies of a brutal husband, and the world never knows it.

Until the standard of husbandry virtues is raised, and the market better supplied, women will do well to prepare for the struggle of life without their help. There is too much marrying in haste; and of consequence, too much repenting at leisure. Marriage which developes all that is lovely in woman, sometimes brings out the worst qualities of men. Many a woman at forty exceeds the promise of her girlhood; but how few are the men who do not fall very far short of the hopes of youth.

Probably the chief motive to many a marriage is never avowed and scarcely suspected. Women are such angels of charity, that they marry bad men out of pure benevolence, in the hope of making them better. They know how much men need their society, and influence, and how much worse they would be without them; and so they give themselvs up, for better or worse, sacrifices on the ditargof charity.-

KNOWS, TO THE EXTENT OF HIS NOSE .- Anything that the horse can touch with his nose without being harmed, he does not fear. Therefore the hand, the halter, girth, blanket, saddle, harness, umbrella, buffalo robe, or whatever is brought in proximity, to him, should first be "introduced" to and touched by that sensitive organ. A knowledge of these important facts, as we learned by attending a course of his lectures, is the main secret of Rarey's success in his horse taming. His strap method of throwing horses is useless except in cases of aggravated ill-temper; and such cases are usually the result of mismanagement.

As nothing can be more conducive to security, so nothing can better insure a quiet and pleasant life than to live innocently, and upon no occasion to violate the columnn covenants of peace and propriety.

WHEN LONG JOHN WENTWORTH WAS a candidate for Congress, it was said of him that he was so tall that instead of mounting a stump to address the people, a hole had to be dug it the ground for him to stand in.

That will restore them to their usual health. Such has been the case in thousands of instances, and a fair trial is but required to prove the assertion.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. B., Editor of the Encyclo-pedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to isvor or recommend Patent Med-icines in general, through district of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man. may not testify to the benefits he believed himself to have renot testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hooflands German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Eaq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debitity. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. It therefore thank find and priend for directing me to the use of them.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS: AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOPLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be acticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofsand's German Bitters. We have no heritation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.
