

THE AGITATOR.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Wellsboro, Wednesday, Oct. 28, 1863.

Entry—Danl. P. W. Close. Union Flour and Feed Store—Albert Russell, Tioga Co. Court Proclamation—Sheriff Storell. Canton—James L. Plimley. Notice to Teachers—L. S. Harkness, Sec'y. Auditor's Notice—A. P. Coon, Auditor.

WOOD.—Subscribers who have promised to deliver wood on subscription, are requested to send it along immediately. We are out of wood, and must procure a winter's stock elsewhere, and for cash, unless the contracts with subscribers shall be fulfilled without delay.

UNION FLOUR AND FEED STORE.—Mr. Albert Russell has located himself in Osgood's Block, and advertises to furnish the public with a prime article of Genesee Flour at reasonable prices. We commend him to the patronage of a generous public.

HUMAN FOR THE GUILD'S.—Mr. Andrew Tipple, of Charleston, has left with us a lot of Chili potatoes averaging rather more than a pound weight each. These samples are part of a lot of twenty-three bushels raised by Mr. Tipple from a bushel of seed. Perhaps somebody will try to beat this.

We see by the Jamesville (Wis.) Gazette, that our old friend J. B. Cassady, has donated the Union harness for the campaign in Wisconsin. He will tell the Wisconsin people a straight and pointed story, without vain repetitions. Whoever goes to hear him will bear no nonsense.

We are in receipt of the Atchison Champion, published at Atchison, Kansas by our old friend, FRANK A. ROSS, Esq. It is a large paper, and an earnest advocate of the cause of the country. FRANK will be good enough to imagine our dexter hand outstretched to the Mississippi, where it professes an old-fashioned welcome: Come to your old boy!

G. WASHINGTON GIBBINS sends us the following mathematical puzzle:

Mr. Agrivator—Subliming Chap: Having visited several "neighboring townships" since the election, I took pains to work out several "sums" in Gain & Loss for the "four-year-olds." I took the election returns for a base of operations, and the following table shows the gains for the Republican ticket in the five "neighboring townships":

Table with columns: Name, 200, 400, 600, 800, 1000, 1200, 1400, 1600, 1800, 2000. Rows include Polly Wood, Crow Nest, ELIZABETH, Turnip-Top, Slab-Hollow, Total.

Unless some concerned soul sets up to criticize my mode of expressing my grief for the downcast and sorrowful, that calculation will stand good till next election. I am about to publish a work on chronic sections. Also a new rule for addition.

UNION CELEBRATION.—The celebration in honor of the recent Union victories in Tennessee, Virginia, Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, took place here on Monday night last, under the auspices of the Wellsboro Loyal League. Want of space prevents us from giving full details of the proceedings, but all who were present (and there were delegations from nearly every township in the county) concur in pronouncing it the "gayest of times" of the kind ever held in the county.

At six o'clock in the evening a salute of thirteen guns was fired on the Public Square in honor of the thirteen original States of the Union. This was the signal for the illumination of the Court House and Loyal League Rooms, and for a grand supper at Bigony's, where almost everybody and their wives, not to mention their children, partook of the tempting viands. All the private residences around the Square were beautifully illuminated; also the residences of Messrs. Harkness, Donidson and Roy on Main Street, including, of course, the Agitator Office.

During the evening all these places were visited and serenaded by the Brass Band. We regret want of space to speak of the many transparencies at Bigony's, but that one, "HAY YOU HEARD FROM CHATHAM?" attracted most of the attention and created the most fun, probably on account of the immortal "Twenty Two" who joined the Academy Club in that township, and afterwards voted for Curtis in a solid body.

After the festivities at Bigony's, which included a free supper to every man, woman and child, the crowd assembled at the Court House. Only one fourth of the people present could get in, and those organized by calling Hon. Judge Williston to the Chair, "Patriotic songs" were sung by the Glee Club, and short congratulatory addresses were made by the Chairman, and by Messrs. Williams and Willson, of Wellsboro; by Capt. Mitchell of Tioga, and by G. M. DePui, Esq., of Williamsport, who happened to be present. The band then played "Hail Columbia" and the audience adjourned with three rousing cheers for Curtis, three for the soldiers, and three for Honest Old Abe. A balloon ascension, a magnificent bonfire on the square, thirty-six guns for the thirty-six States of the Union, and a grand ball at the Court House concluded the rejoicings.

The Committee appointed for each part of the Programme, deserve a word of praise. Nothing was attempted which was not successfully carried out; and this is the best praise which can be spoken of them. And although it was evident during the evening that some of the young men had "got on a considerable head steam," yet not a row for drunken fight disturbed the general good feeling. Take it altogether it was a Celebration such as all loyal men may be justly proud of.

BOLDIERS' AND SOCIETY. Editor Agitator, Dear Sir: Will you permit me, through your columns to offer a few suggestions in behalf of the Sanitary Commission; whose supplies of comforts for our sick and wounded soldiers, it rests upon the loyal men and women of the land to provide. And Mr. Editor, can you not induce the stay-at-home men of our country to take a little more interest in this matter? There are some noble exceptions, but as a general rule, the men are mere "dead weights" in this undertaking, instead of assisting friends. If asked to contribute something beyond ridicule and grumbling, they either refuse outright, or give so ungenerously that refusal would be more painful. And the continual taunt, that our labor is for nothing, and never reaches those for whom it is intended, is reiterated by those who would do us wrong, if they would only take the trouble to inform themselves. Of course, though we are not soldiers, we "Ladies Aids," we look to our fathers, husbands, brothers, and friends, for material "aid and comfort," and in this as in all our laudable undertakings, and our efforts are apt to languish, if these are withheld. (This by way of episode, and now to return.)

The varieties of dried fruit are in much demand in Hospitals, and this being the season for drying apples, I would respectfully urge upon all in Tioga county who have orchards, (and surely their name is legion,) to prepare a quantity, expressly for the soldiers. A very pleasant arrangement would be to make a "paring bee," (as some of our Antislavery friends call it) in each family. Or if more convenient, let each family set apart an evening each week for the purpose, when the willing hearts and nimble fingers of parents and children shall be employed for the poor soldiers, and the young shall learn what no one can learn too early, that it is more blessed to give than to receive. There are Aid Societies in most of our villages which will gladly take charge of the dried fruit and forward it to the Women's Pa. Branch of the Sanitary Commission, from whom they may be as sure as man can be of anything as early, that it will reach the soldiers.

This is also the season for preparing, non-croût, and pickling cabbage, which with onions, are invaluable as "anti-scurbutic." Let each garden contribute a few onions; they are greatly longed for by the invalids, and are almost essential to good cooking. They are also butter. Let each family or a few sent from each family, or a drink contributed by several neighbors. And eggs—why can we not send several barrels of these; so plenty and cheap with us, so scarce and dear in the army. There is also cheese, and honey, and apples, apple-butters—all in season now. What a wealth of luxuries God has given us! and what a privilege it is to share them with those noble men, who, perilling life and limb in defence of our country, have fallen from the ranks by wound or sickness, and now think often with keen longing of their fathers' houses, where we always enough and to spare, and more inviting to feeble appetites, than the strong food they relied in camp and on the march. Government labors untiringly for the comfort of the soldiers; but it is pleasant to think that we can do something to alleviate their sufferings, and therefore let us be diligent for our own good. And looking back in after days, whatever may be the fate of this beloved land, we shall rejoice to remember that we did what we could to aid in this hour of grief and peril, and our one regret will be that we could do no more. S. E. MONAGHAN, Associate Manager for E. Section of Tioga Co. Mansfield, Oct. 17.

Dr. L. DARLING, JR., late of Lawrenceville, Pa., surgeon in a Hospital at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, was recently presented by his patients with a gold-headed cane.—Corning Journal.

LARGE BIRD.—W. W. Shaw, of this borough, shot in the river, just below the pool, one day last week, a Pelican, measuring seven feet and seven inches across the wings. As the Pelican is a salt water bird, it is supposed this one must have been a "refugee" from North Carolina.—Bradford Reporter.

The Elmira Advertiser states that a buggy was stolen on Thursday night from the Franklin House, Elmira, and tracked the next morning in the mud by E. C. Crane, who kept on to Knoxville, Pa., and found the buggy, a good horse and harness and the thief who was lodged in the Wellsboro jail to await a requisition of the Governor. The horse found is a large bay twelve year old. The harness a silver-plated one, well worn. Who owns the harness and horse?

MARRIED.—In Wellsboro, at the Parsonage, on the 20th inst., by Rev. J. D. Bell, Mr. D. C. LAMPMAN of Wellsboro, to Miss HARRIET HART of Charleston, Pa. [In their newly-intended home at Lock Haven, Pa., may they find themselves locked in the arms of a happy married life. J. D. B.]

In Middlebury, on the 25th inst. by the Rev. B. Towner, Mr. SELDEN B. KEENEY of Middlebury, to Miss IRVINE BOUGHNER of Chatham.

In Ellikand Boro, on the 16th inst., by Rev. E. B. Benedict, Mr. SIMON DEAN of Woodhill, Steuben Co. N. Y., to Miss MARIA HIPOLITE, of the former place.

In Nelson, on the 20th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. E. B. Benedict, Capt. R. C. BAILEY, U. S. A., to Miss SARAH A. RYAN, of Nelson, Pa.

DIED.—In Wellsboro, on the 25d inst., of consumption, SAMUEL ANDRUS MACK, aged 58 years. Mr. Mack was born April 5, 1805. He was married Sept. 3, 1828, to Laura Ann Kenard, who died at Wellsboro, Sept. 8, 1862. He was the father of nine children, six of whom are yet his survivors. By trade, he was a blacksmith; and had industriously pursued his vocation in Wellsboro during nearly thirty years. His health began to fail him about one year since, when he found it necessary to disengage himself from his regular occupation, and give himself scope to provide as far as possible against the steady inroads of disease. At the moment of his secret anxiety, consumption, had taken his strength beyond the possibility of re-establishment, and he continued to decline. On Thursday last, his illness assumed an unrelenting intensity; and on the next day, Friday, resulted in his death.

As a neighbor, he is represented by those who knew him well, to have been uniformly kind, generous, and companionable. He was a servant to the sick, and a friend to the needy. As a citizen, his loyalty, (a point of character not to be overlooked in these days of our country's peril, and distress) was unquestionable. He fervently loved his country, and honestly sympathized with all faithful supporters of the Union and the government. While we forget his faults and his frailties, just as we would have our own forgotten when death shall befall us, let us be mindful of his good traits, believing that he is in the hands of God, who will deal justly with him, as he ever does with all. His funeral took place on Sabbath, Oct. 25, at the M. E. Church, in Wellsboro, the services being conducted by the pastor. It was largely attended. J. D. B.

Drowned on board the West Point, which was sunk by coming in collision with the Geo. Peabody on the 15th of Aug. 1862. GEO. HASTINGS, a member of Co. H, 45th Regt. P. V., formerly of Chatham, Tioga Co. Pa.

He was the son of N. E. and S. Hastings. He was an amiable, unassuming young man, respected by his acquaintances. In Chatham, on the 13th inst., of Diphtheria, Miss ELIZABETH V. HASTINGS, sister of the above, aged 13 years, 6 months, and 9 days. By these dispensations of Divine Providence, the parents are called to mourn the loss of kind, dutiful children, and brothers and sisters the loss of a worthy brother and sister. Sermon on the 15th inst., by the writer, from Psalms, 88, 18: "Lover and friend hast thou put far from me and my acquaintance into darkness." J. ISERICK.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

[COMMUNICATED] PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, A CURABLE DISEASE!

A CARD. TO CONSUMPTIVES. The undersigned having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colic, &c. The only object of the advertisement in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburgh, Kings County New York. Sept. 23, 1863-4m.

MADAME PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM has long tested the truth that there are first principles in Medicine as there is in Science, and this Medicine is compounded on principles guided by the manifold nature of Man! The cure of Colds is in keeping open the pores of the skin in creating a gentle internal warmth; and this is caused by the use of this Medicine. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of blood through the lungs; it enlivens the muscles and assists the skin to perform its duties of regulating the heat of the system, and in general throwing off the waste substance from the surface of the body, as it is a violent remedy, but one that, waiting, searching and effective. Sold by all druggists at 13 and 25 cents per bottle. Sept. 9, 1863.

A GENTLEMAN, cured of Nervous Debility, Incompetency, Premature Decay and Youthful Error, actuated by a desire to benefit others, will be happy to furnish to all who need it (free of charge) the recipe and directions for making the simple Remedy used in his case. Those wishing to profit by his experience—and possess a Valuable Remedy—will receive the same, by return mail, (carefully sealed), by addressing No. 60 Nassau Street, New York. Sept. 16, 1863-3mos.

ESTRAY.—Came into the enclosure of P. M. Close in Farmington township, on the 9th inst., a Red Heifer, six year old. The owner is requested to pay charges, and prove a title, and take away. DANL. P. W. CLOSE. Oct. 28, 1863-1w-5.

DR. FRANKLIN SAYS: "When you have anything to advertise, tell the public of it in plain, simple language."

I am manufacturing good custom made Boots and Shoes which I will sell at fair prices, and only for READY PAY. Such work cannot be sold at as low rates per pair as custom made shop-work, but it can and will be sold at prices which will enable the purchaser to protect his feet with good substantial boots more cheaply than with a poor shop-made article, which, even if it chances not to fall in pieces with the first weeks' weather, is but a doubtful protection in wet and cold weather. Try

Buck and Deskins Wanted, in the red and short blue, for which I will pay cash and a good price.

Beef-Hides and Calfskins Wanted, for which I will also pay cash.

Sheep Pelts Wanted, for which I will also pay cash and the highest market price.

An assortment of sole, upper, calfskins and linings, pegs, thread, nails, awls, knives, shoe-hammers, &c. &c., kept constantly on hand, which I will sell cheap for cash. Shop on Main Street between Wilcox and Bullard's. G. W. SEARS.
