Eye and Ear Institute—Dr. Up DeGraff.
Surgery—Robert Roland.
Administrator's Sale—Wm. C. Ripley, Lydia G. Bixby, Administrators.

A SMASHER.—Mr. L. H. ROBBINS of Richmond, has been upon his table a huge apple, weighing 18 pounds and measuring 13 inches in circumference.

We had the pleasure of an hour's chat with our old and valued friend and brother, Dr. Pratt, of the Coming Journal, a few days ago.

On our recent transit through Corning, we looked in upon Major FRIEDL of the Dickinson House, and applied for breakfast. The Major, who is a cautious, as well as a model landlord, looked over the list of applicants for like favors, and concluded that there was "still one more seat left," to which he gave us a special warranty.

The South Charleston Relief Circle forwarded on the 26th ult., another box to the U. S. Sanitary Commission, Philadelphia, containing the following articles: 35 lbs. dried apples, 8 lbs. dried berries, 5 lbs. dried currants, 1 bottle honey, 1 paper coffee, 1 paper corn-starch, 1 lb. tea, 1 bed quilt, 4 feather pillows and 2 hop pillows, 7 pillow cases, 10 towels and washcloths, 5 cotton shirts, 5 pairs drawers, 5 pairs socks, 6 pocket handkerchiefs, 139 rolls of bandage.

YANKEE BOYS' CONCERN.—The Yankee Boys, assisted by Prof. Townsend, gave two Concerts in the Court House, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week. Their Programme was an excellent one, consisting of patriotic, humorous, and sacred songs, of the best selections. Altogether, it was the best thing in the Concert line that has visited our village for years, and the many smiling faces we noticed among the audience seemed to convince us that every one was satisfied that they had received the worth of their money. We trust it is not their last visit to Wellboro.

To Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE KEENEY, on the death of their infant child, by CHRISTIANA SPAULDING:

Respected Friends you're called to mourn
The loss of one so dear,
An infant child is from your bosom,
To a world both bright and clear.

Report of the Secretary of the Soldiers Aid Society for the month of October:
New Members.—Misses Emma Johnson, Mollie and Anna Bryden.

Donations.—A "friend" $1.00; a "friend" 50 cts.; Mrs. Burnett, package of dried apples, 2 packages of raisins, 1 dozen finger cots, 1 lawn skirt, 4 gables apples; Mrs. Clynar, 2 bags of feathers, 1 gallon vinegar, stencil plate for marking clothing, &c.; Mrs. Young, package dried apples; Mrs. Cowden, bowl of jelly; Mrs. J. Root, cloth for patchwork; Mrs. Hurd, package of peppers and one of eggs; Mrs. J. Dickison, bag of wool, roll of white cotton cloth, and one dress skirt for patchwork; Mrs. Shearer, two cans tomatoes, 1 can pickled blackberries, cloth for patchwork, 4 lawn handkerchiefs; Mrs. Wm. Becho, 35 lbs. dried apples, 1 dozen crab apple jelly; bag of hops; — bag of hops; L. E. Moore, 2 gallons tomato pickles, 1 quart apple butter; Mrs. White, 2 quarts vinegar; Mrs. Pierson, bundle of tracts, 2 gallons tomato pickles without vinegar; Mary Cowden, bundle linen rags; Mrs. Sturcock, qt. can of honey; Mrs. George Emery, skin of yarn, package of lint; Mrs. J. F. Calkins, bundle of dried apples; Mr. Jerolman, exp. on package from Troy.

Contents of box No. 11, sent to the Sanitary Commission: 2 gallon jar fresh butter, 2 packages dried blackberries, 1 package dried currants, 2 packages dried raspberries, 1 package dried whortleberries, 5 cans pickled crab apples, 2 cans blackberry jam, 2 cans plum butter, 1 can apple jelly, 1 can tomatoes, 1 can pickled blackberries, 2 packages dried apples.

The children and young girls employ themselves in picking and quilting cloth. They have picked eight quilts and quilted four. Their stock of "patches" is becoming exhausted and they would be very grateful for more.

We must have fire in our work room at our weekly meetings. Will not some of our former friends bring us a load of short wood or bark? It will save us enough to buy some garment for a sick soldier.

OBITUARY.—The Rev. SAMUEL B. DALRYMPLE, rector of the Episcopal Church of this borough, died on last Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock, in the 30th year of his age.

Mr. D. was born in Philadelphia. He received his classical education at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., and pursued his theological studies at the Alexandria (Va.) Seminary. His first parish was at Lock Haven, Pa., where he remained about five years; from thence he came to Wellboro in May, 1861.

A year ago a tumor appeared on his leg. It was removed surgically two or three times, but without avail, and finally resulted in his death.

Mr. D. was a faithful minister, an exemplary citizen, and a genuine patriot. There was an openness, a sincerity, in his manners; an enlargement, a catholicity, in his principles; an unobtrusiveness, yet warmth in his piety; a gentleness and at the same time a persistence in his benevolence; that cast a charm over his whole character, conciliated the general respect, and won the admiring friendship of all who were admitted to intimacy with him. Rarely indeed, has any man, after protracted residence, drawn to himself so many friendships and acquired so strong and valuable an influence over his fellow citizens, as it was his fortune to achieve during a comparatively brief sojourn.

From the beginning of his labors here he was peculiarly serviceable to the church and congregation specially committed to his charge. But his seal, and love, and efforts were not confined to his restricted sphere, and he broadened the work of his ministry and usefulness. He was just gathering into his hands the means for eminent labors and success when he was called from the calm of earth to the enjoyment of heaven.—Tuesday, November 4, 1863.

At a regular meeting of Friendship Lodge, No. 247, A. Y. M., held at Mansfield, Aug. 24, the following resolutions were passed:
WHEREAS, Our Brother, Daniel E. Clark, has been removed from our midst by the hand of death; therefore
Resolved, That we are called upon to mourn the loss of one who was highly respected by us; and whose integrity as a business man, whose interest and efforts to promote the wellbeing of society, whose generosity, kindness, and public spirit endeared him to all.

Resolved, That we most sincerely sympathize with the family which has thus been called upon to part with a kind and affectionate son, a true and worthy brother. May the rich consolations of Him whose ways are above our ways, and yet who doth all things well, enable them to bear their sorrows with christian fortitude.
Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the county papers, and a copy given to the friends, and also a copy deposited among the Archives of the Lodge.
At a regular meeting of Friendship Lodge, No. 247, held at Mansfield, Sept. 24, the following resolutions were passed:

WHEREAS, By the Providence of our Heavenly Father, which has thus been called upon to part with this life.
Resolved, That in his death our Lodge has lost a faithful and worthy brother, one deeply interested in everything calculated to promote the good and welfare of the order.
Resolved, That the community has lost one who will long be remembered for his acts of kindness and good will to all.

MARRIED.
In Washington, D. C., Sept. 19, 1863, by Rev. Samuel Finckel, Mr. WM. ROSENBUCH, of Washington, to Miss CAROLINE MARGRAFF, of Wellboro.
In Knoxville, on the 27th ult., by J. P. Biles Esq., Mr. HENRY E. BOGDARDUS, to Miss MARY E. CARR, both of Tuscarora, N. Y.
In Tioga, on the 21st ult., by Rev. S. J. McCullough, Mr. MELVIN C. NICHOLS, of Buffalo, N. Y., to Miss MARY M. DePUI, of Tioga.

In Keeneyville, Tioga county, Pa., on the 22d ult., LOIS ANN BACON, aged 14 years, 2 months, and 25 days.

The subject of this obituary was one beloved by all who knew her. Society has sustained a great loss, and could she but have lived, would doubtless have filled a conspicuous place in society, but God in his Providence has seen proper to call her happy spirit to mingle with her mother who preceded her a short time before to a higher state of bliss, leaving an affectionate father and two young sisters to mourn their loss. Sermon by the writer from Amos 4, part of 12th verse. "Prepare to meet thy God." H. KENT.

In Lindley, Steuben county, N. Y., on the 5th ult., of convulsions, of the lungs, CORA BELL, youngest daughter of Joseph W. and Julia E. Guernsey, aged 2 years, 3 months, and 20 days.

She ne'er before was truly blest.—
The path grew rough and bruised her feet,—
She sleepeth now, and taketh rest."

On Hill's Creek, on the 20th ult., of apoplexy, MARIA LOUISA COPELY, aged 50 years, 4 months, and 2 days.
In Holidaytown, on the 20th ult., of heart disease, SARAH, wife of Elias Moore, aged 63 years, 9 months, and 21 days.

She joined the M. E. Church about 20 years ago, and was a faithful Christian, until her death, which was peaceful.

MADAME PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM
I have long tested the truth that there are simple principles in Medicine as there is in Science, and this Medicine is compounded on principles suited to the manifold nature of all the curable diseases in keeping open the pores, and in creating a gentle internal warmth, and this is caused by the use of this Medicine. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of blood through the lungs, it enlivens the muscles and assists the skin to perform its duties of respiration, and in gently stirring up the waste substance from the surface of the body, it is not a violent remedy, but emollient, warming, refreshing and effective. Sold by all druggists at 13 cent 25 cents per bottle. Sept. 9, 1863.

A GENTLEMAN, cured of Nervous Debility, Incompetency, Premature Decay and Youthful Error, actuated by a desire to benefit others, will be happy to furnish to all who need it (free of charge) the recipe and directions for making the simple remedy used in his case. Those wishing to profit by his experience—and possess a Valuable Remedy—will receive the same, by return mail, (carefully sealed), by addressing
