Farm For Sale.—Mr. H. P. Dockstader, of Charleston offers this week a valuable farm for sale. It is situated in a fine farming region, and is in a fine state of improvement.

Friends, Countrymen and Patrons: Messrs. Bodine, Robbins, and Alford are some on apples; but we claim the premium on Sauer-Kraut material: We raised in our garden the past season, a stalk of cabbage, which bore 22 nearly all perfect heads. Beat that!

Improvement in High Life.—We hear that quite a sensation was created in the neighboring township of Delmar during last week by the elopement of a preacher with another man's wife. If we have a true relation of the affair, and it comes well authenticated, the Reverend gentleman deserves the extreme penalty of the law in such cases made and provided.

The "Smasher" Skinned.—We last week published the dimensions of a big apple, raised by our friend Robbins, of Richmond. It was a big apple; but we have now to acknowledge the arrival of a larger one grown by Mr. STEPHEN ALFORD of Tioga. This specimen measures 14 inches and weighs 20 ounces! We insist upon it that this last can't be beat.

Accident.—An accident happened in Charleston, at a house-raising for Mr. B. Bowen, on Tuesday last, by which several well known citizens were seriously injured. The frame was actually up, but not properly secured. Messrs. Bowen, Bertrand-Dumaux, and Luther Porter being on the frame when it gave away were precipitated to the ground. Mr. Porter had a leg broken besides being severely bruised. The others were more or less bruised by falling timber, and injured otherwise by the shock of the fall.

For Good Little Boys.—There was a little boy, he was not a big boy, if he had been he would have been wiser. This little boy had a little knife—it was not a very sharp knife, if it had been the little boy would have done himself damage. But the little boy had a bad habit of whittling with the edge of the little knife toward him; and so he was constantly cutting his thumbs. The little boy got no wiser for the bloody lessons, and so it came to pass that this little boy was never seen without a bandage on both his thumbs. The teaching of this little boy should not whittle toward himself.

Take Notice.—We find it necessary to reiterate the rule that no anonymous communications will be published in this paper. The name of the writer must be submitted in evidence, if not for publication. Several communications are rejected for the reason that the writer's names are not given.

We wish also to notify advertisers that advertisements should be handed in as early as Monday morning of every week in which they are intended to appear. It is desirable that we go to press as early as 2 p. m. Tuesday of each week, so that the papers can be mailed in time to reach the remote offices by Saturday, at latest.

Iron City College, Pittsburg, Pa.—There is no institution of learning in this country, at present, attracting so great an amount of attention as this. Students are flocking to it from all parts of the country, on account of the reputation it has among business men for making thorough practical and reliable accountants.

Its graduates take precedence over those of all other Commercial Schools, a Diploma from this College being a certain passport to success in business life.

The Faculty is composed of skillful and experienced men, who stand at the head of their profession, and who are well known to be eminently fitted for the positions they occupy. Every young man in the country should try to avail himself of the advantages afforded by a course of study in this College. Circulars of the College, containing full information, can be had on addressing the Principals, Messrs. JENKINS & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa.

SOLDIERS' AND SOCIETY. At a meeting of the "Soldiers' Society" on Saturday, Nov. 7th, the following letter, enclosing Twenty-five dollars and thirty-five cents, was presented by Mr. G. D. Smith, Treasurer of the Society.

Wellboro, Nov. 3, 1863. To Mrs. G. D. SMITH, Treasurer Wellboro Ladies Aid Society: MADAM:—At the request of the subscribers to the fund for the celebration of the late Union victories in Virginia, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, I enclose you Twenty-five dollars and thirty-five cents, being the amount which remains in my hands unexpended. The donors of this money desire me to express to you, and through you to your Society, their appreciation of the good work in which these organizations are engaged.

After reading the above the Society unanimously adopted the following Resolutions: Resolved, That the "Soldiers Aid Society" duly appreciate the motive and the true patriotism that prompted this gift, and in behalf of the soldiers for whose use it was made they tender to the "subscribers to the fund for the celebration of the late Union victories in Virginia, Tennessee, Ohio, Iowa, Indiana and Pennsylvania" their most grateful acknowledgments.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Aid Society be requested to acknowledge the receipt of the donation, and present a copy of these Resolutions to High Young, Esq., Treasurer of the Committee, and a copy of the same together with the correspondence to the county papers for publication.

The MAGAZINES.—The Atlantic, for November, though somewhat heavier than common, has several fine articles. There is herein enough in it for half a dozen numbers. The contributors are Longfellow, Holmes, Agassiz, Miss A. M. Aldrich, Mrs. Hopkins, Frothingham Sumner, Lowell, Thoreau, J. R. Lowell, J. K. Marvel, and others scarcely less noted. Harpers is not as plain illustrated articles as usual, but makes up for the deficiency in its variety. "Cap and Bell," a new novel in ten chapters, is commenced, and promises to be very well worth reading. Like every November number of the various Magazines, it is heavy than usual, but still worth more than its marked price.

The Continental has a very good article on Buckle, Draper, and the law of Human Development, though not quite elaborate enough. It also has a letter to Prof. Morse—rather in the nature of "a message." An well written "Memoir" about the weather. E. G. C. contributes a "Sensational November lay"—very interesting piece. "The Asses of Normalism," forms an interesting piece.

"Godey's Lady's Book" is most excellent, especially in the Receipt and Pattern department. Every family should take a copy. Why borrow? Eh? "The History," is the title of a neat little monthly paper just issued by Dr. Thad. S. Up De Graff, at Elmira. It is devoted to the Doctor's specialty—diseases of the ear and eye—and is extremely well edited. The Doctor is a man of rising fame for skill and success in the department of his labors. His advertisement will be found in another column.
