Wellsboro, Wednesday, Dec. 2, 1863.

New Advertisements.

Executor's Notice—Israel Stone, Executor, Stray Mare—John Wilson.

REMOVAL.—Dr. Johnson has removed his office to the room over Jerome Smith's Store.

Hon. G. A. Snow will please accept our thanks for valuable public documents.

LOCAL NEWS.—Our friends in different sections of the county will oblige us by sending items of local interest.

LARGE TURKEY.—Mr. James Kelly, of Charleston, has left at this office a turkey weighing seven pounds, and measuring thirty-two inches in circumference.

LADIES.—If you wish to have a dress made in the best manner and latest fashion, go and leave your pattern with Mrs. Newcomb, as we have heard she makes the nicest dress in town. Shop over Bullard's Store.

WINTER GOODS.—JEROME SMITH has just returned from New York with a good stock of Winter Goods, and is ready to wait on all customers and sell to them as reasonably as any other store in town. First come, first served.

WOOD.—Since our last issue we have received a load of wood on subscription. Now is an excellent time to bring the Printer his winter supply of wood. Don't wait till you see our Devil but bring it now. We'll bring the next load!

NOTICE TO TEACHERS.—As the time for visiting Winter Schools has arrived, the undersigned will be at home only on the first and third Saturdays of each month to attend to official business for all who may call.

V. A. ELLIOTT, Co. Sup't. Cherry Flats, Nov. 30, 1863.

The suits brought against Simon Cameron for alleged illegal arrests and false imprisonments, by some Baltimore secessionists have been withdrawn by the prosecutors.

We see it stated that the 3rd U.S. Reserve Corps, and some other Regiments of this State, have mostly re-enlisted for the War, but will first come home and recruit.

Hon. W. C. Webb, the Union nominee, is re-elected to the Assembly over the Democratic candidate by some 700 majority, including the army vote. This is Mr. Webb's fourth election to the Assembly from Washburna county. Wis.—Washburna Argus.

CAPT. W. C. BRESS, arrested and brought to this place, two men respectively named Dr. Brown, of Addison, N. Y., and Jeremiah Stoddard, of Knoxville, Tioga Co., Pa., for willfully disobeying men from the performance of military duty.—Poker Journal.

THANKSGIVING IN WELLSBORO.—Last Thursday was very generally observed in this place as a day of thanksgiving. At half past 10 a. m., Rev. J. D. Bell delivered a sermon at the M. E. Church, choosing for his subject: "Patriotism in these Days," which was well suited for the times. In the evening Rev. G. H. Jenks preached a sermon at the Episcopal Church, choosing for a text: "The True Thanksgiving."

THE MAGAZINES.—We have received Harper for December and it is a choice number. There is "Twilight on Sumner," a sad suggestive little poem of the war. A continuation of those sprightly pictures of the Japanese. A sketch of William H. Prescott will interest the lovers of this great historian. The stories are representations of real life and almost every article is of permanent value. The new year furnishes an excellent opportunity either for the formation of clubs or the commencement of new subscriptions.

The Atlantic Monthly with each publication increases in interest. The prose articles by Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Prescott, Bayard Taylor, Agassiz, Robert Dale Owen, and poems by Bryant, Longfellow and Whittier, should make this Magazine almost indispensable to every cultivated reader. A Christmas story by the author of "Life in the Iron Mills" will appear in the January number.

The Continental Monthly for December contains a number of very interesting articles. Its power is exhibited mostly in its political department which is certainly marked as "A Magazine for the times." Park Benjamin contributes a pleasant paper on "Letter Writing," and "The Diary of Frances Krasiak" is a fascinating picture of high life in Poland. Under its new staff of editors it will present unrivalled attractions, and to new subscribers it offers very liberal inducements for the new year.

MADAME PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM has long tested the truth that there are first principles in Medicine as there is in Science, and this Medicine is compounded on principles suited to the diseased nature of Man. The cure of Colds is in keeping open the pores, and in creating a gentle internal warmth, and this is caused by the use of this Medicine. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of blood through the lungs, it softens the mucus and assists the skin to perform its duties of regulating the heat of the system, and in gently throwing off the waste substance from the surface of the body, it is not a violent remedy, but efficient, warming, searching and effective. Sold by all druggists at 13 Cent 25 cents per bottle. Sept. 9, 1863.

A GENTLEMAN, cured of Nervous Debility, Incompetency, Premature Decay and Youthful Error, actuated by a desire to benefit others, will be happy to furnish to all who need it (free of charge) the name and directions for making the simple Remedy used in his case. From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, this distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, and was followed by the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Sherman, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWN.

DISEASES OF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER In Young or Aged, Male or Female Are speedily removed, and the patient restored to health.

DELICATE CHILDREN, Those suffering from NARASIMUS, wasting away, with scarcely any flesh on their bones, are cured in a very short time: one bottle in such cases, will have a most surprising effect.

PARENTS Having suffering children as above, and wishing to raise them, will never regret the day they commenced with these Bitters.

LITERARY MEN, STUDENTS, And those working hard with their brains, should always keep a bottle of HOOFLAND'S BITTERS near them, as they will find much benefit from its use, to both mind and body, invigorating and not depressing.

IT IS NOT A LIQUOR STIMULANT, And leaves no prostration.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the late published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from soldiers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.
