CORRY CITY NEWS .-- We have received the first six | casion by the writer. numbers of a paper of the above name, published at Corry, Erie county, Pa. By looking over the advertisements we should judge that our friend W. A. Roe has come to the conclusion that the way to be succesful is to use printer's ink. The paper is got up in good style and presents a neat typegraphical appearance. We wish it success.

We have just received some beautiful sheet music published by Oliver Ditson & Go., 277 Washington Street, Boston. "General Grant's Grand March," "La Mia Letizia," a charming fostrumental plece from the opera of "I. Lombardi," by Brinley Richards; "The Shadow Song Polka Redown," by I.S. Knight; and the comic song "Cousin Jededinh." The postage on sheet music is but one or two cents for each piece and therefore persons at a di tance can obtain it by. mail much cheaper than by express. All orders addressed to these publishers will be promptly attended to. . .

DIE.

In Wellshofs, on Saturday scening, Dec. 5, 1863, of dropsy, Mrs. ELENOR ALLEN, aged 62 years, and 5 months.

She was married at the age of fifteen to John Allen, She was married at the age of fifteen to John Allen, whom she loved and cherished as a husband for many years. They first lived together at Newport, Bucks county, Pa, next at Philadelphia where they remained five years, and next in Delmar, linga county, Pa, to swhich town they came forty-lin years ago. They were among the earliest sexifiers in the last named township, finding it when they came almost a wilderness. Mrs. Allen was converted to a Christian course of life, at the age of 17, in a prayer meeting held at Newport. At Philadelphia, she was a member of the St. George's Charch, on 5th Street. She had long been a member of the M. Eccauch in Wellsboro. member of the M. E. Church in Wellsboro.

Said she to her pastor, a few weeks before her death "Many and many years haye." I tried to love and serve the Lord; but I have to asknowledge that I have been a poor erring creature. But He is merciful. Praise lifts name!" Her husband was parted from her by death, seven years ago last June; and now their bodies, free forever from the pain that once racked them, sleep in one grave in the new Cemetery of Wellsboro, while their happy spirits are united in heaven. Mrs. Allen had for a long time required the most assiduous and indefatigable care, involving laborious and sleepless watchfulness; and her neighbors and friends in the Borough, faithfully and in a commendable manner attended her to the last.

In Knoxville, Nov. 30, 1863, of typhoid fever, CLARENCE E., son of Isanc and Helen M. Loghrey, aged 15 years, 9 months, and 8 days.

A dutiful son, a kind, affectionate brother and companion, honest and upright in all his dealings with his employers, he won the love and esteem of all who knew him. During an illness of several weeks no murmur escaped his lips, but he expressed a perfect resignation to the will of God. He left his friends the happy assurance that their loss is his everlasting

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple proparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I de this the more readily in regard to Hooflands German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try-them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bedily, and mental vigor which I had not felt for eix months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefere thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
