INTANOUS .- We learn that recently at Lat tence ville, two young ladies of highly respectable i milics went from a Donation with two young men is however to get a carriage and take them out riding. Theter way they called at a drug store where one of the young men was a clerk and drank some will and Wyoming Mills Wrapthen went to a Hotel to await a carriage, ta ing a lottle of wine along with them. Both ladie were soon taken sick or became intoxicated and venited all over the room, and became nearly or quite helpiess. Both passed the night in the Hotel, with at the knowledge of the landlord, who supposed the had left, one of the young men staying all nigh, with them. One of the ladies remembers nothing that transpired after reaching the Hotel, until the found herself at the home of her female om union about day break. The other young lady one i that her female friend was so very ill that she was x nable to be removed home sooner. It is surply that they did not call upon the landlady for the if and assistance. The excitement consequent with this affair has been so great that the young man '4 10 was with them during the night has left town, having prewouldy been horse-whipped by the justly infuliated father of one of the girls .- Corning Journal

In 1860 it gave Abraham Linceln 3,500 majority; at the last election, with 1800 Union soldiers in the field, it gave Governor Curtin 2,870 majority. I only cite this as one of the many instances of political revolution in the "northern tier;" or rather the fact that while the modern leaders of Democracy have foresken their principles and wandered mocracy have forsaken their principles and wandered off after strange gods, the people have stood by the Democracy of Jefferson, the faith of their fathers, and the flag of their country without a condition or qualification. "Olmsted, of Potter, is Chairman of the Committee on Banks. This is an important committee and the appointment of Mr. Olmsted is not only judicious but well-deserved. Mr. Olmsted is one of the ablest lawyers of northern Pennsylvania, having placed himself at the head of his profession by a life of per-severance and great labor. He is a ready and effective speaker, and has contributed largely to reclaiming his portion of the State from the misrule of modern democracy. If I do not greatly misjudge him, he will not only well acquit him as chairman of this most responsible committee, but render the Union side of the House material aid and comfort during the stormy session which is looming up before them.

Mortimer came to Wellsboro about four years ago last autumn; and during that period, he proved him-self kind, generous, and honest-hearted. The regard felt for him by his young associates, was indicated in the large gathering at his funeral, on Wednesday, the Fire Company of the Borough, with whom he had been connected, attended in their uniforms, and assisted at the burial.

His young wife, now cast down in the earliest grief of widowhood, claims not only the sympathetic word and tear, but also that sympathy which tells itself in active kindness and truthful generosity. * * * * 1 have known Hooshand's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hooshand's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours truly,

I do this the more readily in regard to Hooflands German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefere thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

From the Rev. Jos. H, Kennard, Pastor of the 10th Bap tist Church.

Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere. I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may full; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above

Or. C. M. Jackson;—Dear Sir:—Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. Dr. Jackeoff;—Dear Sir:—Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge.

Dr. C. M. Jackson; — Dear Sir; — I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear festimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to their great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it to be a tonic that cannot be surpassed.

STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS: Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Hendache, General Debility, Nervousnass, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic. Intermittent Fo. vers. Cramps and Spasms, and all Com-plaints of either Sex arising from

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTEN'S STOMACH BITTER'S. This popular preparation; contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsanic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of silvidinsive stimulants.

It is well to be forestmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water, and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a stieguard.

In districts infested with Feer and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive, and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail thouselves of its productive qualities in advance, are circled by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine.—Fever and Ague patients, after being piled with quinine for months in vain. until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTER'S.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appettiorestored by this agreeable tonic; and hence it works wonders in cases of Dysplysla end in less confirmed forms of Innocestion.

As a general tonic, are the and painless apperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constitution of English and Fits of Languor find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Butho.s. Colle is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTER'S produce, in the convalence of the complaint i
