

THE AGITATOR.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Wellsboro, Wednesday, Feb. 24, 1864.

We are requested to state that the Soldiers Aid Society is out of wood. Any one contributing a load will much oblige the ladies of the Society, and do a benefit to the soldiers.

There will be a change of time next Monday on the Tioga Railroad. Trains will leave at 7:30 A. M., and 4:15 P. M., and arrive at 9:55 A. M. and 4:15 P. M.

Wagon's Dance.—The Veterans of the 5th Pa. Volunteers to have a Dance at Holiday's Hotel, in Wellsboro, on Friday evening, 26th inst. Taylor's Band will furnish music for the occasion.

The funeral services of Sergt. M. G. Holiday, member of Co. H, 45th Regt. Pa. Vols., killed at South Mountain, will take place at the Union Church, in Middlebury, on Sunday next, at 2 o'clock P. M.—Sermon by Rev. Mr. Watrous.

W. ALONZO THOMAS, recently on a week's still hunting excursion near the Eraser Branch, towards mountains, killed in three and one-half days, a fine, twelve deer. The balance of the week was occupied "backing" venison.—Troy Times.

The members of Capt. Merrick's Company met on Thursday last in Roy's Hall, and organized by electing the following officers: Captain—Geo. W. Merrick. 1st Lieutenant—Robert Young. 2d Lieutenant—Morgan Hart. Orderly Sergeant—Gerould Dennison.

HARD ON PUBLISHERS.—The type-foundry here issued a circular to all printers that they have raised the price of printing material 25 per cent. Paper makers have raised the price of paper one hundred per cent. The reader will see that publishers of newspapers are not likely to become millionaires in a hurry under this state of affairs.

AVOINER SANITARY FAIR.—A fair for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission will be opened at Elmira, on the 14th of March next. Contributions are solicited from all quarters and of anything which can be converted into money. Packages should be marked "Sanitary Fair, Elmira, N. Y." Money should be sent to W. P. Corry, Treasurer. Express and railroad lines will take freight for the fair without charge. Through arrangements have been made and the fair will probably prove a great success.

Meeting in Middlebury. MIDDLEBURY, Feb. 23, 1864. In pursuance of a previous adjournment, the people of Middlebury met at the Union Church for the purpose of ratifying the action of the Supervisors in relation to paying local bonuses. Every portion of the township was well represented, and the house was filled to its utmost capacity.

On motion, D. A. CLARK was elected Chairman, and Jerome B. Niles, Secretary. Speeches were made by Capt. McDonald and Mitchell, and Lieut. Geo. P. Scudder. A committee had been appointed to solicit enlistments, and it was found, upon comparing notes, that fifty men had signified their willingness to enlist from Middlebury while her quota is but thirty-five. Whereupon the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Supervisors of Middlebury be authorized and empowered to pay One Hundred Dollars each to fifty Volunteers from Middlebury, who shall be accredited to the quota of the township, and who shall be accepted by the Provost Marshal, after the quota under the call for 500,000 men is filled, they are to be placed to the credit of the township for any future draft.

It may be proper to state that the soldiers were given a splendid Oyster Supper at the hotel of Messrs. Reddington and Kelsey, where the war worn veterans, while mingling with friends and sweethearts for the time, forgot the clang of arms, and the duties, dangers, and privations of camp life.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE. WELLSBORO, PA., Feb. 18, 1864. The following instructions, being the latest received at this Office on the subjects referred to, are published for the information of those concerned:

1st. That the several sub-districts, to wit: credit for all such volunteers as may have been entered into the service of the United States, after the last draft, and that the number so credited, be deducted from their quota under the recent call.

2d. If the men are not credited to the quota of any particular locality, they are to be credited to "at large."

3d. If they do not receive any local bonus, they are to be credited to the place at which they list, or their actual residence, if they have one, as by law directed.

4th. Veterans, re-enlisted in the field, to be credited according to their muster-rolls, provided that their residence, or the locality to which they are entitled, is noted therein. Muster-rolls, in relation to these statements, will be completed by supplementary muster-rolls, to be made out by the respective company commanders, and forwarded by them to the office of the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal, General at Harrisburg, with the certified copies of the defective rolls.

5th. The assignment decision, announcement and bestowal of credits for this district, will be either by the Provost Marshal, or under his direction, by the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General at Harrisburg.

6th. The Provost Marshal General has directed that the premiums of $25 and $15 will be paid to any non-commissioned officer, private or citizen, who presents an accepted recruit.

7th. No transfers can now be made in the enrollment, unless specially authorized by the act now before Congress—the time for all alterations having expired Jan. 5th.

8th. It should be borne in mind that the quotas heretofore published, will not in all cases be correct. The real quotas are much larger, but are so reduced by deducting from them:

1st. The number of volunteers furnished by each sub-district subsequent to the last draft, and prior to the 31st of Jan., 1864, and duly reported as such.

2d. The number of men who have been drafted, or who paid commutation or furnished substitutes.

This balance thus ascertained, constitutes the number to be drafted from each sub-district, and to a credit for such volunteers as each may furnish before Feb. 1st and Feb. 20th, 1864.

W. H. BLAIR, Provost Marshal.

THE AMERICAN CONFLICT, by HORACE GURLEY.—The great rebellion will be an overshadowing event, not only in the history of our own Country, but in the history of the World. Volumes of Volumes will be written and published of its fruits and suggestive theme, from the various standpoints of the respective authors.

We have received from the publishers, C. D. Case & Co., Hartford, Conn., specimen pages of "The American Conflict; a history of the Great Rebellion in the United States of America, 1860-61," its causes, incidents and results. Intended to be especially its moral and political phases with the progress of American opinion, respecting the war since 1877 to 1864, by Horace Greely's illustrations by portraits on steel, of Generals, Statesmen and other eminent men; views of important battles, scenes and diagrams from official sources.

This specimen comprises 144 pages, printed on superior paper, with clean type and liberal margins, and is embellished at the front with portraits of President Lincoln and Cabinet, and also in the body of the page with portraits of "Confederate Chieftains." The text of writing such a standard work could not well have been confided to able or more sagacious hands.

As an intimate and thorough knowledge of our political history, Mr. Greely's long and arduous devotion to a prominent champion of American Freedom and the attractions and discipline of a press and ready pen. By habit, taste, and attentions, Mr. Greely is particularly qualified for such a work, and the publishers have evinced a rare practical sagacity in their selection. Mr. Greely, as a general thing, has risen from the necessarily hasty and careless style of an every day editor of a newspaper to that of the gravity, deliberation and dignity of the historian. His matter and manner are admirable, his arrangement and method excellent. He begins at the beginning and follows his subject down in the manner implied in the title.

The first chapter is on "Our Country." The second—"Slavery before the Revolution," the third—"Slavery in the Revolution," the fourth—"Slavery under the Confederation," the fifth—"The Convention and the Constitution," the sixth—"Slavery under the Constitution," the seventh—"The Missouri struggle," the eighth—"State rights and nullification," the ninth—"The rise and progress of Abolition," the tenth—"The churches and Slavery," the eleventh—"The pro-slavery reaction."

The last volume will be published on or about the 1st of May, 1864, and will contain 70 portraits on steel besides other illustrations of interest. The first part of the work will be published as soon as practicable after the War—the list of portraits will be continued. It will also contain a larger number of diagrams of battlefields than the first volume; and a Copper Plate Map of the Seat of War about 28x38 inches engraved expressly for the work, presenting in one view the whole field of Military operations, rivers, railroads, battle fields, principal military routes, &c.

Prices per volume ranging from $3.50 to $6.50 according to binding. Sold only by subscription.

Mr. T. Harding, will canvass Tioga County and receive subscriptions.

SPECIAL NOTICES. SHAKE AND BURN! Shake and Burn!! Shako and Burn!!! This is the life of agony endured by the sufferer from Fever and Ague. He wanders like an uncertain shadow, never knowing what moment he may be prostrated, and therefore disinclined to give any serious attention to business. This is the condition of thousands in town and country. It is no exaggeration to say that Fever and Ague kills more people than any (we are) other disease in America. For a sure and speedy cure of this terrible affliction, we take great pleasure in recommending Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which have already achieved a wide reputation for rapid and powerful effects in generating the system prostrated by this disease. For sale by Druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

These Bitters have performed more Cures! HAVE AND DO GIVE BETTER SATISFACTION! HAVE MORE TESTIMONY! HAVE MORE RESPECTABLE PEOPLE TO VOUCH FOR THEM!

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS WILL CURE EVERY CASE OF Chronic or Nervous Debility, Disease of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach.

OBSERVE THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS Resulting from Disorders of the Digestive Organs: Constipation, Inward Piles, Faleness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Digestion for Food, Flatness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Seat of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Headache, Nervousness, Indigestion, and all the symptoms of a Disordered Stomach.

It is well to be forewarned against disease, and so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water, and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found invaluable as a preventive, and equally valuable as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its productive qualities in advanced cases, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being pined with quinine for months in vain, and with fairly certain death, are cured by this agreeable tonic; and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Intoxication. Acting as a general and powerful aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to nervous attacks, Loss of Sleep, and Fits of Lowness, and all the symptoms of a debilitated system, find in this medicine a most efficacious and reliable remedy. The agency of Bismuth, Coustic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produces effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Debility and Weakness, Fracture, Injury, and Debility, and Debility arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases, it operates as a delightful stimulant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-energize and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only Stimulant, being manufactured from natural and innocuous materials, and is entirely free from the acid element so generally present in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine box is complete, unless it may be truly added, deserving of a prominent place in the household of the community. Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers, everywhere. 1863-ly
