THE AGITATOR.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Wellsboro, Wednesday, Mar. 23, 1864. New Advertisements. Notice-J. F. Donaldson, Proth'y.

Siding-C. Catlin. Seven Octave Rosewood Piano Fortes, Important to Females-Hutchings & Hillyer Volunteers and Conscripts-Hubbard Bros. Stop Thief-Calvin Cowley, Lewis Shockey.

THE SPECIAL COURT appointed to commence on the 28th inst., has been postponed. Jurors are hereby notified not to attend.

MR. CHAS. WILLIAMS has commenced to rebuild the Foundry, and expects to have it in working older by the middle of April.

New Goods .- Wm. T. Mathers is now receiving from New York, the largest and best assortment of Groccries, &c., ever brought into this place. In 't fail to give him a call.

Soldiers' Dance.-The Soldiers home on furlough, are to have a Dance at the House of . | B. Holiday, in Wellsboro, on Friday evening ext, March 25, 1864. They leave for the seat of mar next Monday.

We call the attention of those in want of a rood 7 votave piano forte to the advertisement of Griffen. steen & Co., of Hew York, who offer them at extremely low prices. Send for their descriptive cir-

RELIGIOUS NOTICE. The Universalists will held a Conference at the Hammond School House, on Cipoked Creek, on the 13th and 14th of April next. - Rev. S. C. Hayford will be ordained at that time. A imher of Universalists are also to unite with the chirch Friends are all invited to attend.

Ennon.—In looking over the Muster Roll of lipt Merrick's Company, published in our last isst, we find the names of Saml. W. Trull and Clifton Tip le, omitted. We cheerfully make the correction, and trust if the boys should ever get sight of the printer that they will "aim high."

MRS. MARY C. RUCKNAN .- We notice by the Wil liamsport papers, that our towns woman, Mrs. Buckman, is about to establish a Seminary for young ladies in that borough. We congratulate the people of Williamsport on this fact, and only regret that she has seen fit to transfer her labors to a field of gr hter usefulness than ours. Her long experience in teaching, coupled as it is with great ability and executive talent, cannot fail to crown any effort she man undertake with complete success.

THE CONCERT.-The Concert of the Well thore Philharmonic Society, (assisted by Prof. HAGA) and his daughter NETTIE,) at the Court-House, Las, Friday evening, was one of the best that we ever attended. Want of space prevents us from giving each a notice as it deserves. We noticed a great pany people is attendance from different parts of the county, and every one seemed well pleased wit the pieces selected, and the manner in which they were sung., We trust the Prof. will favor our town with another call soon.

CIRCULAR FROM THE "AID SOCIETY."- NARWERS THE NOTICE.—Will the farmers living in the vicinity of Wellsboro be kind enough to bring us eggs to be packed for the hospitals at Philadelphia.

In this season of "ham and eggs," will not our sick brothers be thinking of, and wishing for, just one dich from our home tables, to remind them of the days when they need to hide one, two, or three eggs at a time, for the coming "Easter Sunday?" Easter Sun-day is close at band. Will you not bring cite dozen, or two, or as many as you can spare from your own breakfast, to the Court House, any Saturday afternoon, within this month and next, where you will find patriotic women and children plying their fugers in knitting and sewing to relieve the wants of far prave boys.

We are, in reality, within twenty-eight as its of Philadelphia, as no express is charged us begind Troy on any articles sent.

Come and see what we are doing, and do'nt forget the eggs for "Easter." Maple sugar also will be very

We shall be grateful for donations of citfulr; but if gar, very cheerfully.

MANSPIELD, March 1th, 1864.

Editor of Agitator—Dear Sir:

I think the sanitary fairs are amongst the occasions in which we may appeal to State pride, wit tout danger. And as the States which have preceded a have

ger. And as the States which have preceded a have done so nobly, surely the great, wealthy and priction is state of Pennsylvania, will not be behind in her donations in aid of the national army.

"Why does not Government do all this?"—we still hear the parrot-cry, only too frequently. Do these wiseacres imagine "Government" to be sting great, wealthy institution, with the purse of Fortunatus always full? My dear objecting friend, do you not think "Government" is spending the people's money list enough, in raising, feeding, transporting, slothing and graining our immense army? All the additional comforts which the people of the land are now giving as a free-will offering of love, to our sick and wonded as a free-will offering of love, to our sick and wounded soldiers, if added to the inevitable cost of the war, would have to come out of the pockets of the people eventually, in the shape of war taxes, internal revenue, &c., just as surely as you saddle them upon the Government—which is the people of the country, afterall, acting through their legitimately chosen agents, terall, acting through their legitimately chosen agents.

"The Sanitary Commission sell the goods which the people send them," is another grievance. I deny the charge, and challenge the proof.

Sertkin auther from this county made such a charge, but when called upon to from his own experience; but when called upon to give the name of the dishonest agent, that he might be at once dealt with as he deserved, he has never made any response—which he certainly would have done, if there had been any ground for the accusation, unless he had been a party to the fraud. That dishonest agents may sometimes be found, is of course -but when found they are always dismissed. If per tons cognizant of such misconduct, comotal it from those who have power to correct the evil; the blame rests elsewhere than with the Sanitary Commission.

Very respectfully yours, S. E. MORRIS, Associate Manager for E. D. Tioga co.
