Pittsburg Gazette, of March 3rd, 1878:
We have received from Col. J. P. Glass, one of our representatives at Amrisburg, a neatly printed pamphlet of ten signs defending the Pennsylvania Reserves fr. in the aspereions cast upon their soldierly qui isies in Gen. McCiellan's report. It comprises | eat. M'Call's reports of the battles of Mechanics ide, Gaines' Mills and New Market Cross Row's, together with the General's testimony before the Joint Committee on the Conduct of the Mar, and the testimeny of many of the living of ision, brig-nie, line and Campany officers of the entire Reserve council including Gen. 21 ande. The united testimony of Gen. McCall and his subordinates is that the Reserves were if it routed in the battle of New Market Crais Roads, as charged by Gen. McClellan. Onthe contrary, never did seldiers fight more happically and ogainet greater odds than did the Reserves in the three battles we have named. And it is stready a part of history that, if the brave Rethose engagements, the enemy will denot have gained the victory over us they till when they compelled McClellan to gather he once proud and powerful army under the probletion of the gunboats in James river. It was generalship that was wanting on the Peninsuli, not pluck and endurance, neither of which soldierly qualities was posessed in a greate degree by any other division of the Army of he Potomac than by the Pennsylvania Reserve !." The Penusylvania Reserves has a borne the brunt of nearly every battle in which the army of the Potomno has been engaged, They have endured trief, hardship, and da ger-fought as no men ever fought before-ind covered themselves and the army to which they belong with a hale of glory. After all that they have undergone, how must it chill the hearts of the veteran survivers of the thousands who have so nobly fairen, to find their form ir command er imputing to them a want of courage on the hattle-field? Does McClellan expect to conceal his want of good generalship by casting asper sions upon these whom he commended? If so, he will find himself mistaken; or when the impleare by to decide between the ability of HeChellan and the courage of the noble army which was finced under him, it is not difficult to tell what will be the verdict. The Reserves have proven their courage on a store of battlefields. / The bones of hundreds of their number lie blenching in the swamps of the Chickahomflay, and whether they fell from duadly missma or from reber bullets, their death will, perhaps, he stributed by the future historian to the same cause—the mistakes of the roommanderinschief, if not to incompetence,-Raftmans

An Abolition Slavel ider.

Let the Copperheads who exalt slavery above the Union, read how a slaveholder in the Mareland Sensie talks to his brot le men stealers. Gardine county, on the Eastern Shore, is represcrited by this man, whose same is A. J. Wallis: - He told the Senate that he night be set down as a fool for what he was going to say, but he should not hold his tongue for all that. He was going to speak out his whole heart. Shavery was a pest to society, at made kings among beggars, and beggars imong kings. It was a nuisance, and ought to be abated. He would not give a string of fish far a string of slaveholders, himself included. If slavery was not blotted out, the children of I aryland would be born blind, the apple trees would stop blossoming, and the cows would in liv! His black boys were fine felic is not a race.

of lousy, scalby white trash. ... hey could dig. wash, scour, and earn a livelshood; and when free, more easily than half the hite trash who were so concerned about them. If the Legislature did not let the people date their way, in abolishing slavery by a convent on, the people would brush them aside as so in any flies. All this hostility to a convention in as moonshine. When he looked around on the chamber, the venerable heads of Senators to sinded him of the Roman Sabate, whose mum yers had all to be sixty years old before they would-take a seat in that body. He would say to grave and reveroud Senators, that slavery but it be got rid of somehow, and that, too, right of. Slavery and its friends should inscribe on their tombstones, "I was well-I wanted to by better-I took physic-and here I lie." It was killed in the house of its friends, and it is staiting to be bu-

He had two brothers and it in nephews in the rebel army, good fellows let miserable sinners. He would seize his pile fork and go out and fight them. But slavery carried them where they are.

He continued: Still, I love hem. I want to hug them once more to my he jam, if they survive this war; but slavery ningt first be buried. What a glorious time you and I will have, Mr. President, in gathering up the fragments of our bone and blood that shall not smouldering in the dust, when this war is over, if we can only get rid of slavery! Maryland is a grand old State. Luck at the Chesarie Le. Talk about the sea of Galilee! Why, I the Apostles had had such a bay to fish in, they might have boas ted; but its shores are cursily with slavery .-All mankind want to be free and the negroes are maukind. One of myodis staves, Ephraim, told me the other day he wouled to be free.

"What for ?" "Just to say I am free. I want to die free, master." I want a nice, sweet, tight and strong little test outh fastened to the convincion bill, just to find out when the stray sheep should come back and who they were.

SEE WOULD'ST DO IT.- When the balmoral skirts first came out, everybedy will recollect what a prejudice there was a fajost them. Old ladies pronounced them undt for anything but circus ridere. Anxious page ats were very indignant at the thought of this daughters wearing such trash. But time has conquered all prejudices against the balmers. It is balmoral skirts, balmoral gaiters, as moral stockings, now; and speaking of the is ter reminds us of a little story. A lady friend of ours was in Chicago the other day, and was asked by her cousin how she liked the lulmoral stockings. "Oh, very well," was the raply. "Well, I do'nt," said the cousin, "he'r will I wear them, either. I'll be hanged if "I make a barber's pole of my leg, for the sale of being fashioualeines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hooflands German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend klobert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long eontinued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by exident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

Dr. Jackson; — Dear Si: — Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently. I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge.

Dr. C. M. Jackson; — Dear Sir; — I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very boundicial results. I liave often recommended them to persons enfectled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to their great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it to be a tonic that cannot be surpassed.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH

A Pure and Powerful Tonte, Corrective and Alterative, of Wonderful Efficacy, in Diseases of the BITTERS.

STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS: Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousnass, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic. Intermittent Fovers. Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of oither Sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by Special Causes.

Northing that is not wholosome, genial and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTEINS. This rightlar preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the Cairnets of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water, and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTER'S may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Perer and Ague*, it has been found infallible as a preventive, and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scenarge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its productive qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelons medicine.

Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain. until fairly saturated with that dangerous aftwidays by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable tonic; and hence it works wonder's in cases of Dystersys end in less confirmed forms of fantestin cases of Dystersys end in less confirmed forms of fantestine as agentic and painless apperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constructs of Spirits and Fits of Languar' find prompt and per manent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both seres.

The agony of Bildes Coulc is immediately assunged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fally appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Waknets, Frendure Decay, and Debitity and Decreptinde arisin
