LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Wellsville, Wednesday, Apr. 13, 1884.

New Advertisements.

Administrator's Notice—Eliza Leach, Adm'r. Administrator's Notice—Daniel Mack, Adm'r. Horse Shoeing—John A. Ellis. Notice—W. C. Ripley, Pres't. For Sale—B. B. Smith. Hemlock Bark Wanted. Renewal—Pauline Smith. Garden Seeds, Onion Sets, Table Glassware, &c. Dr. Boy.

WHAT NEXT?—A dish-washing machine is the last invention. It will, among other things, wash knives and forks without wetting the handles.

WE are requested to state that V. A. Elliott, Esq., Sup't has been removed to Mansfield, and that all correspondence with him should be directed to that place.

EXAMINATIONS OF TEACHERS will take place as follows: Blockhouse, April 21. Mansfield, " 22. Wellsville, " 23. Knoxville, " 24. V. A. Elliott, Co. Sup't.

ANOTHER VICTIM TO THIS CRUEL WAR!—A dispatch from Baltimore, received at 1 P. M., announces the death of Stoddard C. Maxwell of this village. His wife left this morning at three and a half, hoping to find him alive.—Elmira Gazette.

$100 BOUNTY.—DISCHARGED SOLDIERS ATTENTION.—The House has passed the bill appropriating the money to pay the $100 bounty to all who have been discharged on account of wounds received in battle. It will soon be the law, when I shall be happy to send the proper blanks to all who write for them.—Address W. B. Smith, Prosecuting Pension Attorney, Knoxville, Tioga County, Pa.

An important act relative to the pay of bounty to volunteers lately passed our legislature and became a law. All arrangements made by any council, school directors or competent authority in regard to the raising of funds for paying volunteers, has been legalized and made valid and binding. All are required to pay the bounty tax under this new law.

REV. S. B. DALRYMPLE.—A tablet of fine Italian marble, and executed in the most artistic manner, has recently been put up in the Episcopal Church of Honesdale, by the congregation, as a tribute to the memory of their deceased pastor. The stone is in the form of a shield surmounted by laurel leaves and a knot of grape. The letters are sunk in the tablet and painted black. Mr. Dalrymple was thirty years of age, and a graduate of the Philadelphia High School.—Philadelphia Press.

FOR THE LADIES.—A discovery important to the ladies has just been made. It is a new corset, which will not get into those unpleasant shapes when ladies pass through a crowd, or get into cars or stages. Its inventor says: "So perfect for the wear like bands that a lady may ascend a steep stair, lean against a table, throw herself into an arm chair, pass to her stall in the opera, or occupy the fourth seat in a carriage, without provoking rude remarks from outsiders."

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT TO LOYAL WOMEN.—The President has an acknowledged character for saying good words in good time, and his tribute to the women of America is an instance of this. He spoke of the women of America when he invoked the blessing which concludes the following manly and characteristic speech: "I am not accustomed to the use of language of eulogy; I have never studied the art of paying compliments to women, but I must say that if all that has been said in praise of the women of America, it would not do them justice; for their conduct in this war." This is a compliment to be sure, but every word of it is true.

THINK OF THIS.—"I'll take your paper if you'll let me have it for a dollar a year, just as you used to," says old 400 acres and money at interest. "We suppose so; and we will take what better you have to sell if you will let us have it at a shilling a pound, just as you used to, and your surplus potatoes if you will let us have them at two shillings a bushel, just as you used to. Friend, two years ago a bushel paid more and better paper for $50 than we can now for $10. Two years ago you sold potatoes at two to three shillings; now they are worth an penny; you expect to sell some for a dollar before long." In fact, everything you have to sell has doubled in price within the last two years. Our paper was published too low then, and at $2.00 now, it is now what it should be in proportion to the price of everything else.—Exchange.

The subscriber will be receiving the paper daily from this date, April 7th, New Spring, suitable to the early trade, in Dress Goods, Shawls, &c., also a full stock of Housekeeping Goods such as Napkins, Towelings, Towels, Table Linens, Sheetings, &c., which will be sold at the best market rates. J. A. PARSONS, Corning, N. Y.

Mrs. A. J. Sorrensen desires to call the attention of the Ladies of Wellsville and vicinity, to her New Stock of Spring Millinery Goods, consisting of the latest styles of Bonnets, Hats, Hosiery, Dresses, Caps, &c., and a variety of French Flours, and all the new ornaments, the latest novelties in the way of trimmings. Infant's caps and hats, Old New dress caps, Grenadine veils of the newest style. Mrs. S. feels particularly grateful for the patronage of her friends, and would say that she has prepared one of the best Milliners for the season, and is prepared to repair Straws in the best manner. She is receiving Goods constantly from New York, and will keep a good assortment. Her rooms will be held hereafter opposite Roy's Drug Store, in the building lately occupied by Miss Smith.

We have received a copy of the Vermont School Journal, devoted to the educational interests of that State, published under the sanction of the Vermont Teachers' Association, Hiram Orcutt, Jr., editor and proprietor. It is published at Wellsville, at the low price of $1 per year.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—This valuable agricultural journal for April has been received, and is full of interesting and instructive matter. It contains the largest amount and greatest variety of information on the subjects of agriculture and horticulture, and is known of and to be invaluable. Every farmer in the land should have it. Price only $1.00 per annum in advance. Orange Judd, editor and proprietor, 41 Park Row, N. Y.

THE LADY'S FRENCH FOR APRIL.—The April number of this two-dollar magazine opens with a charming steel engraving called "Harry and the Dog." This is followed by a beautiful Double Lion Plate, also engraved on steel in the best style. We have two companion engravings which will touch the hearts of all mothers, called "The Boy's Hero" and "The Restored." The music of this number is the popular song by Ednor Rossiter, "I'll be that Dear Old Flag the Best," and is of itself worth the price of the number.

The literature of this number is "Our Ned," "Above the Clouds by Night," illustrated by a striking engraving; "Forebodings," by Clara Augusta; "Mistaken Duty," by Ida M. S. "Good-bye," by Mrs. J. L. Bittenhouse; "Mission," by Mrs. Mary's Trip to California; "The Boy's Hero," by Mrs. M.

groat Homer; "The Transformed Village," illustrated by an engraving, &c. The Novelties, Work-table and Flower Department are all illustrated by finely executed wood cuts. Published by DEACON & PATTERSON, 319 Walnut St., Philadelphia. $2.00 a year. For sale at Young's Book Store.

MARRIED.

In Bainbridge, Chenango county, N. Y., on the 4th inst., by Rev. Mr. Sperry, Mr. R. PORTER PUTNAM, of California, and Miss MARY PACKARD, of Bainbridge, N. Y.

DIED.

In Wellsville, on the 26th ult., LAURA, youngest daughter of Richard and Lovisa English, aged 9 years, and 20 days.

"Trice blessed is her portion To whom such faith is given, To see above the coffin lid—" "Our treasure is in Heaven."

In Farmington, of diphtheria, on the 7th ult., STELLA FLORIDA, only child of Geo. W. and Amanda M. Bowen, aged 1 year, 3 months, and 8 days.

This lovely but so young and fair, Called hence by early doom; Came just to show how sweet a flower, In paradise should bloom. Cor.

In Middlebury, Feb. 2, 1864, CHARLES WESLEY DAILEY, aged 13 years, 8 months, and 23 days.

Our little friend is in his grave, The turf is green with April rain; We weep for him, what would we have? To him at least our loss is gain. Cor.

In Tioga, on the 22d ult., Mrs. EUNICE DAGGETT, wife of Seth Daggett, aged 74 years and 7 days.

Fifty-three years a wife and resident of Tioga county, she saw the wilderness disappear as soul shadows were dispelled by her kindly influences. Ever self-sacrificing, our memories are filled and the life-page kept by the recording angels with the lustre of unnumbered unobtrusive acts of kindness. Silently as the day-tide ebbed, the life-current failed and she was at rest. The glory of a long life well spent adds radiance to the halos of the redeemed.

The painful sense of utter loss is ours, Here is the rest all calm and deep; While like our tear-drops fell the spring-time He gave to his beloved sleep. Cor.

In Delmar, on the 30th ultimo, Mrs. ESTHER HOADLEY, aged 72 years.

In Delmar, on the 31st ult., Mrs. HANNAH BORDEN, aged 60 years.

"Yes, in the grave she was laid, From which she'll ne'er return again. We leave her under a cold cloud, And commend her soul to God." Cor.

In Delmar, on the 6th instant, Mrs. MARGARET M. BUTLER, aged 61 years.

In the death of Mrs. Butler, the church, her relations, and the community at large, have met with an irreparable loss. Twenty-nine years since she was united in marriage to William Butler, of Delmar—thus taking charge of his five motherless children, to whom she endeared herself by the most motherly and christian affection. Never have we known a greater exhibition of patience and christian resignation, than was manifested by the deceased, under the most extreme suffering—her disease being a cancer in the breast. Mrs. Butler had been a member of the M. E. Church for many years; and her exemplary walk as such, is worthy of imitation by all. In her, the poor and needy always found a friend indeed, who was ready and willing to administer to their wants. The Ministers of the Gospel found a cheerful welcome at her well-spread board. Foremost in every act of charity, she was blessed indeed, and "her works do follow her." L. A. H. S.

In South Windham, Vt., Dec. 15, 1863, MARY E. widow of Abraham Farr, aged 99 years, and 4 months.

The deceased with her husband were among the first settlers of the town of Windham. In the days of her strength, she possessed a remarkable business tact, and was highly esteemed as a neighbor and friend. She left five living children, and four (four) thirty grand children, fifty-six great-grand children, and four great great grand children, making ninety living descendants at the time of her decease. To her might truly be applied Job 5: 25, 26.

In Gaines, on the 7th inst., of diphtheria, LUCY R., daughter of John L. and Lucinda Phenix, aged 11 years, 8 months, and 23 days.

In Deerfield, on the 18th of Feb. 1864, CHARLEY F., son of Charles F. and Mercy A. Abbott, aged 2 years, 4 months, and 18 days.

In Elkland, on the 1st ultimo, of paralysis, Col. M. V. STULL, in the 72d year of his age. His death was very sudden. Scarcely two hours elapsed from the time in which he was seized with it, till he breathed his last. During the day on which it took place, he was quite well, and more cheerful and lively than usual. Towards evening, however, he complained of pain in the region of the heart. His physician was immediately sent for. On his arrival, he gave him some medicine, which he took with his own hand. He then fell back from his seat, and instantly expired. The deceased had been for upwards of twenty years a resident of the county, and has been widely known as an influential and respected citizen. He purchased and settled on the farm on which he died, in 1823.

Col. Stull was born in Southport, near Elmira. There he spent the days of his youth. And it is worthy of being noted, as furnishing an example to other young men similarly situated, that being in early life thrown on his own resources, he labored hard to acquire an education. He worked in summer and studied in winter. In this way, by his own energy, he succeeded in acquiring a good education—much better than the most of young men of that day.

At the age of twenty he entered the army, in the war of 1812, and as a soldier served his country faithfully for seven months, when peace was proclaimed. He was present at the two famous battles of Chippewa and Waterbury.

It is due to the memory of the deceased, to say that he was an honest man, and was regarded as such by all who knew him. The property that he leaves behind him was acquired by his own and his family's industry. He was also a man of more than ordinary intelligence. He had good natural talents, and these were improved by reading, study and observation.—He was well versed in the history of his own and other lands, and with the nature of our government, and the workings of our political system, and the different questions that have agitated the country and have plunged it into the vortex of cruel war. He had correct and just views of these questions. As might have been expected from a soldier of the war of 1812, he was truly patriotic; and was devotedly attached to the government, and to our free institutions. The respect in which he was held by his fellow citizens, is seen in the offices which he held. He was raised successively to the offices of Captain, Major and Colonel of the militia of the county, and he made an able and efficient officer. With military offices he was quite well acquainted, he was also with engineering and surveying. He was employed for one year as engineer on the North Branch canal; and he has done much surveying throughout the county, with almost every foot of which he was familiar. He was county Commissioner for six years. As to his habits of life, and his temperate, moral and industrious. He was of a cheerful disposition, and sociable and friendly in his intercourse with his fellow men. He was benevolent and generous by nature. He was a good neighbor and an affectionate father and husband. An afflicted family and a wide circle of friends mourn his loss.
