HENRY H. WOOD requests us to give notice to his customers that he has commenced building a new daguerrean room, and that no pictures will be taken for a number of days.

THE numerous friends of M. V. PURSELL will be pleased to learn that he has leased the Picturesque Hotel, and intends to keep it in the best style and suit everybody who may give him a call. We have known "Mart" for a number of years, and cheerfully recommend him to the public, as he never advertises more than he intends to perform. Success to him.

THERE are three things easily raised and harvested for which the farmers may depend upon it there will be an enormous demand, and high prices paid during the war. We refer to potatoes, beans and onions.—The farmers could not do a better thing for themselves and the country than to plant these vegetables very extensively.

TIOGA BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.—The Tioga Baptist Association will hold its third Quarterly Meeting with the Tioga Baptist Church, on Wednesday the 25th day of May, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Rev. N. L. Reynolds will preach the introductory sermon.

Contributions for the State Convention.

E. T. BENTLEY, Clerk.

Tioga, May 10, 1864.

SIDEWALKS.—Sidewalks when good are an ornament to a village, and a real luxury to the citizens, but when bad they are a most disgraceful nuisance and at the same time very dangerous. We do think our citizens should have some pride in the matter, and see to it that the proper repairs are made, and where the walks are so far gone as to render repairs out of the question, have new built. This is a proper time for these repairs to be made, and we think that time is now and should not be put off any longer. We hope this matter will be looked to before it devolves upon some one, as a public necessity, to have a nuisance removed.

TRUE DEMOCRAT.—This the title of a new paper, soon to make its appearance in York, Pa. It will support the State and National Administration.

AN avaricious man "out west" is reported to make a practice of always riding in the last seat of a railway train, to save the interest on his fare until the conductor gets round to him.

THE ladies of Indianapolis are volunteering in large numbers to supply the places of clerks who enter the hundred day service. They engage to serve for $13 a month, the merchants being required to pay the clerks their salaries during their absence with this deduction.

HENRY W. JENKINS, formerly of Prompton, Wayne County, Pa., and for a time compositor in this office, now in Schooley's Battery, was shot by rebel guerrillas while on picket duty at Fort Marcy, near Washington, a few nights since. One ball entered his foot and another grazed his ear. The wounds are doing well.—Wayne County Herald.

A private letter from Idaho Territory has shown us yesterday, giving a very discouraging account of the morals, (or, rather, want of morals) of the population, and of the prospects for accumulating the "dust."—The letter contains no such complaint as is one attributed to a laconic miner at Pike's Peak who reports that the miners are very much discontented in that region, having to dig through a solid vein of silver four feet thick before they reach the gold.—Elmira Press.

"DON'T BELIEVE IT; we will learn better bye and bye," said a prominent copperhead on the street the other day when the news came in. Well the news was better and continues so, but not in favor of the rebels as he indicated. Are these men so positively ignorant, or are they traitors at heart? Else why do they sympathize with the men who are attempting to destroy the Government which protects them and their property, and who are butchering our neighbors, friends and brothers who have gone forth to save that Government.—Columbia Republican.

AN auction sale of condemned cavalry horses will take place at Williamsport, on the 23d of June next. 250 horses will be sold, separately. As on previous to the last sale of Government horses, at Williamsport, a malicious Copperhead correspondent of the Clinton Democrat categorically announced that the sale would be all a cheat and that only a few favored "Abolitionists" would get a chance to bid. We would state, on the authority of men whose veracity not even Copperheads would venture to impeach, who were present at that sale, that it was conducted with the most perfect fairness, the horses being exposed to view and examination by every one who desired to purchase, and going off readily at good prices, and in most cases to persons residing in Lycoming and adjoining counties.—Clinton Republican.

SOLDIER'S AID SOCIETY.

WELLSBORO, May 16, 1864.

The Soldiers' Aid Society hope to renew their efforts as the present and future wants of our brave and suffering soldiers demand, and warm weather increases.

We would invite ladies from out of town who have no Society to attend, and who wish to do something for their boys, to join with us whenever it is convenient for them so to do. We are receiving such donations from one or more of them nearly every Saturday, and would like to see their faces in our midst whenever they can come.

Moore, 1 pair pillow ticks; Mrs. Shearer, 30 knots yarn and patchwork; ———, 3 quarts dried berries; Mrs. Emery, 3 quarts crab apples; ———, pail pickles, Mrs. Claus, pail pickles, bigdon and horse radish; Mrs. C. Maxwell, pail pickles; Mrs. James Locke, pail pickles; Mrs. H. Sofield, pail pickles; Mr. S. Gillet, pickles, and $1,00 cash.

May 7th—Mrs. J. L. Jackson, 51 rolls bandage, roll cloths outside for 2 quilts, bushel of dried apples.

We are indebted to some unknown person for fine potatoes left at our room, for which he will please accept our sincere thanks. We hope to send away potatoes, eggs, horse radish, wine and higdon, the coming week.

JANE W. HAYNES, Sec'y.

COVINGTON, Tioga Co., Pa., May 10th, 1864.

Mr. Editor:—I have been appointed "Corresponding Chairman" of the newspaper which is to be published for the Sanitary Commission, during the Great Central Fair, to be held in Philadelphia in June next; and am also requested to appoint a committee in each town in our county to solicit subscriptions for the same. And, with your permission, I desire to ask the favor of sending, for publication through your columns, an extract from the circular I have, setting forth the design and character of the paper in question:

* * * * "The newspaper, which is to be named "Our Daily Fare," will be published for two weeks, daily, Sundays excepted, from the opening of the Fair. A complete set of twelve numbers will be given to subscribers, for one dollar.

"It is intended that the journal in question shall be, in every respect, fully equal to any publication of its kind ever issued in America. Assurances have been received from numbers of our first writers, of their intentions to contribute to its columns; and it is hoped that the applications which have been made to celebrated literati in Europe will not be less successful.

"A complete history of the Fair, very full and spirited reports of all current events connected with it, a list of the goods for sale in it, anecdotes setting forth its character, records of the amusements and exhibitions given in its aid, and copious facts illustrative of the sanitary movement, novel & highly practical features in the newspaper, to which will be added events and incidents of the battle field and of the "Sanitary," with articles in prose and verse, referring to the war for the Union, the object and experiences of the Commission, or to events and incidents connected with the Sanitary Fairs which have been held in different cities. To this a committee, especially appointed for the purpose, have added the results of their researches, in the form of deeply interesting documents by Gen. Washington, Franklin, Jefferson, Lafayette, Wm. Penn, and other great men of our past, never before printed. Many of these papers will be found to be applicable to the present crisis, and well worth, of themselves, far more than the price of the newspaper. Among other literary curiosities, we are able to promise a curious autobiographic letter, by the English novelist, Smollet, to an American.

"The newspaper will be beautifully printed on the finest paper, and is to be prepared with special reference to binding in one elegant volume. It will, we trust, form a valuable and attractive memorial of the Great Fairs of 1864, and be prized as such by all who may possess it."

As we shall endeavor as far as possible to concur in the request of the above circular, we earnestly hope that, as there will be a responsible person in the different towns in our county to solicit and receive contributions, that the people generally will avail themselves not only of thus benefitting the well known and systematic organization for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers—the Sanitary,—but also to derive the added pleasure of possessing in so condensed a form so many valuable and interesting relics of these days, whose memory will live in the hearts of America's sons and daughters till their dust shall return to dust, and their spirits to God, who both "increaseth the nations and destroyeth them."

We shall publish as soon as received the names and amount collected for the paper in each town of our county.

Very truly yours,

FANNIE A. DYER.

May 16th, 1864.

To the committee who were addressed last week, and who were led to expect the publication of the above article on the 11th inst., I would say that the time for the receipt of names and money may be extended to Monday, May 30th; at which time it is quite necessary that the reports be all received, as I leave home upon that day, not to return till the close of the "Fair;" and I desire to make my report to the Sanitary Commission before leaving.

FANNIE A. DYER,
Corres'ng Chairman of N. for S. C.

GEN. BUTLER IN NEW ORLEANS.—Parton's interesting History of Gen. Butler in New Orleans has just been issued in a cheap edition for the people, and it must have a wide circulation. It is written in Parton's best style and contains much important information relative to the New Orleans expedition, the capture of that place, and its government under Gen. Butler, which cannot be found elsewhere. It is replete with interest, and is about the only channel through which Gen. Butler can be seen in his dealings with the rebellion exactly as he is.

Farmer's Catechism.

Question. What is the best kind of Wooden beam Plow?

Answer. The WIARD PLOW.

Qus. Wherein does it excel all others?

Ans. In case of draft, in being less liable to clog, and in fact it excels in every particular.

Qus. Where is this Plow to be found?

Ans. At the KNOXVILLE FOUNDRY, where they are made, and at various agencies around the country.

Qus. Are there any other plows made at that Foundry?

Ans. Yes! Biles makes various kinds of wooden and iron beam Plows, both for flat land and side hill, and he keeps ahead of all other establishments by getting the BEST PATTERNS invented, without regard to the COST.

Qus. Are Plows all that Biles makes?

Ans. By no means. He also makes HORSE HOES; a superb article for Corn, Potatoes, &c. ROAD SCRAPERS that beat the world. Cast Cultivator Teeth of a very superior pattern. Shovel Plow Castings for new land, and indeed almost every thing that is ever made at a Foundry, from a Boot Jack to a Steam Engine.

Ques. Would you then advise me to buy there?

Ans. Most certainly would I, for besides making the best KIND of every thing, Biles makes those that are the most DURABLE, and it is a common expression where his Plows have been introduced, that they last as long as from two to four got at any other shop; he has always been at the business from a small boy and ought to know how it is done, and if you try his wares once, you will be ready with me to tell all wanting anything in that line to go, send, or in some other way procure them of J. P. BILES, at the Knoxville Foundry.

☞ READ WHO SAYS SO: ☜

From the Rev. Levi G. Beck, Pastor of the Baptist Church Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church Philadelphia. * * * * I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours truly,

LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 20, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWN.

From the Rev. Jos. H. Kennard, Pastor of the 10th Baptist Church.

Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth below Coates Street, Philadelphia.

From Rev. Warren Randolph, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Germantown, Penn.

Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of severe cold and general debility I have been greatly benefitted by the use of the Bitters, and doubt not they will produce similar effects on others. Yours, truly, WARREN RANDOLPH,
Germantown, Pa.

From Rev. J. H. Turner, Pastor of Hedding M. E. Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge.
Yours, respectfully, J. H. TURNER,
No. 726 N. Nineteenth Street.

From the Rev. J. M. Lyons, formerly Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Milestown (Pa.) Baptist Churches.
New Rochelle, N. Y.

Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to their great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it to be a tonic that cannot be surpassed. J. M. LYONS.
