

THE AGITATOR

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS. Wellsboro, Wednesday, June 29, 1864.

New Advertisements. Wheeler's Horse Powers and Threshers and Reapers. B. S. Teare. Fourth of July Ball. E. S. Farr.

There will be preaching by Rev. J. D. Bell, at the grove, known as Seelye's Grove, near Shumway's Hill, on Sabbath, July 17, at 3 o'clock P. M.

Fourth of July Festival. A Festival will be held in Putnam's Grove, in Covington, July 4th, 1864. Ice cream and refreshments of all kinds will be sold for the benefit of the Soldiers' Aid Society.

We learn that Lewis P. Spencer, of Co. 6th Reg't P. R. V. C., was mortally wounded in a charge on the evening of May 10th, and died on the 12th, in hospital near Spotsylvania.

TIoga SOLDIERS WHO HAVE DIED OF WOUNDS IN HOSPITAL RECEIVED: Jasper Bowker, Middlebury. Wright Reddington, Wellsboro. Serg't Brice, Farmington.

FOURTH OF JULY BALL. A general invitation is given to all lovers of dancing to attend ball at the house of E. S. Farr, in Tioga, on Monday evening next. Humphrey's Band will furnish music for the occasion. Farr will see that the young folks have a good time.

A MEETING of the Tioga Telegraph Company will be held at the house of E. S. Farr, in Tioga, on Saturday, July 9th, next. The Commissioners of the same named, are: Chester Robinson, H. W. Williams, Henry Sherwood, James H. Gulick, D. S. McFee, A. S. Turner, and John W. Guernsey. A full attendance is requested. See advertisement.

WRITING SCHOOL. Miss L. C. Stratton has returned to Wellsboro for the purpose of giving the young folks a chance to improve in penmanship. She has given lessons at Covington, Blossburg, and Fairbrook, with success, and we can see no reason why a large class should not be formed in this place. Rooms at Farr's Hotel. Twelve lessons for $1.00.

No Paper Next Week. As the Fourth of July comes but once a year, and the printers wishing to have a little rest, we have concluded to follow the example of our exchanges and skip a week's publication of the paper. "JACK," the Potomac County Stage driver, informs us that they are catching big trout in Pine Creek, and we have concluded to go over text week and try our "flies."

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL FOR THE RETURNING SOLDIERS. A Strawberry Festival will be held at the Court House, in Wellsboro, on Thursday evening, June 30, 1864. The Festival will be conducted under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. Returned Soldiers are respectfully invited to be present. Citizens of Wellsboro and vicinity. You are invited to be present and aid in giving a hearty welcome to the brave boys who have passed through the trials of war and returned once more to their homes. A small charge will be made for refreshments to liquidate the expenses of the welcome. Wetmore's Band will be present. By order of Committee of Arrangements.

We neglected to notice that A. De Witt, of Farmington, (formerly Orderly Sergeant of Co. A, 15th Reg't P. V.), in March last offered himself for examination before Gen. Casey's board for commission in a colored regiment and passed so good an examination that he was appointed Captain, and was ordered to the command of Co. G, 43d Reg't U. S. C. T., and is now with the Potomac Army, under Gen. Burnside.

APPOINTMENTS FOR TIoga COUNTY. We have neglected to mention the appointments to positions under the Government from Tioga, through the influence of our efficient and obliging member of Congress, Judge Jas. T. Hale: Lieut. SILAS B. ROCKWELL, of Cherry Run, 1st class clerk, in Quartermaster's Bureau. WILLIAM GARRETTSON, of Tioga, clerk in Finance Bureau.

A disabled soldier, (from Middlebury), who thinks he has been forgotten for the moment, messages in the War Department. NATHAN NILES, of Wellsboro, appointed cadet at the Naval School at Newport, or Annapolis. All most excellent appointments, and reflecting great credit upon the judgment and good policy of Judge Hale.

A SOLDIER of the 43d Pa. Reg't was passing up the Tioga Road on Tuesday, by General Agent Kearns. His arm was broken and shattered by a gloomy bullet, which he passed through his abdomen but escaped the blow. He had been through the war. The Surgeon had taken the brass cap from his arm and kept it as a curiosity. -Covington Journal.

ARTICLES sent to the Sanitary Commission in box 221, June 23, by the Wellsboro Aid Society: 2 pairs pillows, 4 hop pillows, 9 gts. dried whortleberries, 2 gts. dried raspberries and currants, 1 qt. dried plums, 2 pairs woollen socks, 4 1/2 pair sandals, 1 package lint, 1 roll linen cloths, 1 roll cotton, 5 washings, 10 pair alpaca, 10 pair muslin, 5 neckties, 5 pillow cases, 29 handkerchiefs, 27 towels, 1 shirt.

Will the farmers who have yearned to sell their surplus of grain, we have heretofore procured factory yarn, but had much rather have had made in our own mill. We prefer it as a home product. The ladies beg leave to express thanks to Messrs. Donaldson and Hastings for the fine red-impounded brought in on Saturday afternoon, which was enjoyed "largely" by all.

COVINGTON BONO, June 18, 1864. FRIEND COBB. Not seeing the name of my Emmerger, mentioned, I thought it due to my friends to state this statement, and I also send a statement returned in a letter from O. G. Gerould, of Covington, to let Serg't Co. L, 7th Reg't P. V., of the 1st Cavalry, at Carversville, Ga. Henry Emmerger was the number that volunteered last February, at this place. It seems by the slip that he belonged at Wellsboro, to Delmar. Yours truly, J. PATRICK.

FRIEND PATRICK. I forgot to tell you of a little scrub that did not exceed 200 of our living, and with 1500 of the Rebels on the 27th of May, when we were out for forage. We had to go into their lines for something for our horses to eat, and this party surrounded us. We had some of our horses loaded with corn, and three-fourths of the men dismounted to fight on foot, the rest took to the woods. The rebels charged on the kind horses and created some confusion, but we fought our way out, and opened the road to camp before any assistance reached us. There was a four-horse team, once captured, from camp, which they captured, and we captured it from them without its being damaged. Our loss was heavy for the length of time we were engaged; it lasted something like half or three-quarters of an hour. We had 4 killed, 9 wounded, and 2 taken prisoners, with the loss of 20 horses. We captured 3 or 4 rebels; how many we killed and wounded of them we do not know, but there was quite a number seen to drop from their ranks. They do not like the Spencers. Our carbines were all that were left in this pop. sure. Our Company had one die of its wounds, one that is still living and doing well, and one taken prisoner, which came down with us from Wellsboro or Delmar, that came down with us from one that died of his wounds; he was wounded on the 27th, and died on the morning of the 28th. S. Green assisted to bury him, near Pumpkin Grove Church, Ga. G. PATRICK.

Letter from Rev. J. F. Calkins. Hospital, 1st Div., 5th A. C., before Petersburg, Va., Saturday, June 17th, 1864.

Mr. ROBERT CHRISTIAN AND FAMILY. DEAR FRIENDS. It becomes my painful duty to inform you that I have just come in from the funeral of GILBERT. He was shot through the head on a charge about 10 o'clock last night and fell back on the leg of his brother Albert, supporting him. But after bringing him back alive, though insensible. He lived two or three hours but could say nothing. He was just raising his head from a little earthwork of the rebels to shoot when he was hit. Dr. Humphrey, of Oceanville, his old and first surgeon attended his funeral with me. We laid him in an honored soldier's grave with his head board well marked, "R. G. Christian, 1st Lieut. Co. E, 1st Rifles, Penna's Reserve." He has the name of always being a faithful soldier, that he was a faithful boy at home, we all know. Albert came back with him, and as the 2d Division hospital is close to ours, he found me out and it gave me much pleasure to attend the funeral of one of my old boys, though not in my regiment. I preached for his Col. Carlo's brigade, last Sabbath, and he was present, and Albert and the very next evening and took dinner with me. (Albert is better now, but feels lonely and sad. May the Lord crown his head in the day of battle and sanctify these great afflictions to your good is the humble prayer of your sympathizing friend, J. F. CALKINS, Chaplain, 14th P. V.

Letter from Capt. Morgan Hart. IN THE FIELD, (Near Petersburg,) June 29, 1864.

FRIEND COBB. Dear Sir. I have the first opportunity since the engagement of Friday, to give you the casualties in my company. There occurred many incidents of interest, in our move from the north of Richmond to this place, to give which I have not time. On the 16th, we were ordered to march on the 17th, in sight of the field upon which Lieut. Christian was killed. At daybreak on the 18th, we were moved to the front. In passing from the center to the left, a few men of our regiment were hit by the rebels. At 12 M., our brigade was ordered to charge a strong fort upon the enemy's right. We were to be supported on our left by the 4th division, which, for some cause, failed to come up. Our brigade charged over a rise of ground, thickly covered with low bushes, briars and wild grape vines, and through the field and under cover behind a low wall, where we passed a little to the right, where the make of the ground afforded better protection. We are still in sight of the fort, which we can and will take before the day is over. The rebels are in the line, which we could easily destroy at any time. The 49th are in the same brigade with us. Captain Bodine and his little band of veterans are well, and in good spirits. Of my company, four were killed and twelve wounded. Of the killed, none were from Tioga county; of the wounded, I will give those from our county. Corporal A. Ives, through body, seriously; private C. C. Durt, right arm off; O. L. Atherton, in hand; D. A. Cattle, in hand and arm, seriously; Jas. Wilkinson, in leg; William Kreiner, leg; A. Frost, leg. Major Merrick was wounded in the head. I have since heard that his leg was amputated, and he sent to Washington. It is feared he may not recover. We mourn his loss deeply. He was a brave and a good man. The wounded will be sent to Washington, as fast as transportation can be furnished. Very truly, M. HART, Capt. Co. A, 18th P. V. M. H.

P. S. The whole loss in our regiment, in killed and wounded, was 190. At a meeting of Covington Lodge, No. 274 of I. O. O. F., on Saturday evening, June 25, 1864, the following preamble and resolutions were ordered: WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty in his dealings with us to remove from our brotherhood, our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, who died of his wounds, in hospital, at Bermuda Hundred, June 21, 1864, and has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deportment, his ever kind heart, as well as his fraternal engagement to our Order. He, though young, was ready to go to his Father's call in the hour of his danger, and was among the first from here, to go on the emergency last summer, and although he returned in poor health, he was again ready to go on the call of the President, and volunteered on the 1st of January last, without the inducement of either town or county bounty to help fill our quota for this borough. Therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our much beloved brother, Wesley C. Doyen, by the hand of death while serving his country in Company M, 11th P. V. Cavalry. Resolved, That we truly sympathize with his bereaved Father, who, though far separated, must deeply feel the loss of so noble and affectionate a son; and we also feel deeply to sympathize with his only brother, who has thus taken from our circle one whom we much loved and esteemed, both on account of his christian deport