To show how utterly false, he assertion of the Copperhead leaders is, that the Administration is justly chargeable with the war, we give below a short extract from the "Southern History of the War," by Edward A. Pollard, late the editor of the Richmond Examiner. Mr. Pollard sums up the doings of the Confederates before the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln, as fol-

"On the incoming of the Aministration of Abraham Lincoln, on the 4th of March, the rital Government of the South had perfected its organization; the separation, and been widened and envenomed by the subidexterity and perfidy of President Buchanen. The Southern people, however, still hoped for the peaceful accomplishment of their independence, and deplored a war between the 1.70 sections, as a policy defrimental to the civil zed world. The revolution, in the meantime, Ind-rapidly gathcred-strength, not only in moral power, but in the means of war and mun taents of defence. Fort Moultrie and Castle Pinekney had been captured by the South Carmina troops. Fort Palaski, the defence of Savannah, had been ta ken, the arsenal at Mounti Fernon, Alabama, with 20,000 stand of arms, and been seized by Alabama troops. Fort Morann, in Mobile buy. had been taken. Forts Jackson, St. Philip, and Pike, near New Orleans, had been captured by the Louisiana troops. The New Orleans Mint and Custom House had been taken; the Little Rock Arsenal had beer seized by the Arkansas troops, though Arkantas had refused to necede; and on the 16th of February General Twiggs had transferred the jublic property in Texas to the State authorities."

. Mr. Pollard does not mention in his history that the Southern leaders had the least disposi tion, before they began the war, to agree to any terms of peace on the basis of their continuance in the Union, but only koped for the reacable accomplishment of their independence, and deplored war between the two sections, as "a policy detrimental to the civilized world."

Thus, it will be seen, he war was begun and, earried on under the A ministration of James Buchanan, and while if degenerate and emasculated Democracy held a I the power and patronage of the Governmen. And this party, only still more degeneraje, now puts up the charge that Abraham Lincoln is responsible for this war; and asks the American people to rejeet Mr. Lincoln and viect the man of its (the Copperhead) choice.

If, after fifty years prival of the Government, the Democracy i laged the country in this war, is it quite co, mon sense to suppose that giving them power again is the way to bring about lasting pent 1? We guess not. We guess the pupper of Vallandigham and Toorhees, who are the agents of Jeff. Davis, will have to drill his & Minute Men" about four years more before l'e can enter the White ·House:

Politics in be Army,

A Harper's Ferry og espandent of the N. Y. Trues says: As wa said recently by your correspondent with the Army of the Potomac. one feels in a purer hit-freer atmosphere, out here, among the blue-coated and travel stained soldiers of the Union. Here you miss the hated hiss of the Copperh ad, and feel rejoiced to hear instead the hopefus and hearty sentiments daily and hourly attem by this portion of our glorious army. No pi e in these camps, not even the little drummer boys, have a particle of doubt as to the ultimite success of our arms. and I can hardly imagine a worse fate for the vile and heartless men who so streamously urge pesco measures upon the people, than to compel them to show thei Wesds in the army.

. Could the soldiers 1 ve their way, Copperheadism would soon Wish, and the elections this Fall will show ho rast and weighty is the influence of the army n the great question of the day. People may, neer as they will alout the soldiers' vote, and it; y that they cannot rote as they like, but as their officers dictate, but I can tell your readers wat although a soldier is "accustomed to implicit, bedience and the strictest discipline, yet in no tters not military, he is not the man to allow f hers to dictate to him his line of conduct. at either way it makes no material difference in the grand result.

Both officers and ne h are united on the one great question of car ting on the war to a successful termination for they have too often Aced the enemy, and out too many comrades by the ministres of var, to think now, even for a moment, of a conpromise or any other ending of the war, see that of the socal and upconditional submission of the rebel States.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH

A Pure and Powerful Tonic, Corrective and Alterative, of Wonderful Efficacy, in Diseases of the BITTERS.

STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS: Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousnass, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic. Intermittent Fe-vers. Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or pro-duced by Special Causes.

Norming that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare baleamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water, and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S DITTER'S may be relied on as a safeguard.

the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water, and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S DITTER'S my be relied on as a safegard.

In districts infested with Freer and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive, and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its productive qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine—Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetitor restored by this agreeable tonic; and hence it works wonders in cases of Driversia end in less confirmed forms of Immorstion. Acting as a gentle and painless apperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the CONSTAT PATONS superiablemed by inregular action of the digastive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nerrous Atlacks, Lowness of Spirils, and Pits of Languar find prompt and permanent relief from the Ritters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Bituose Cotte is immediately assuaged by a single does of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.
