Oct 😩b, 1864. FRIEND COBB: The electing massed off quietly in our camp, much more sthan is usual n our county, where so large amber are as-sembled on election day. Quite sumber of menhave confessed to me that the have seen in Southern papers, and heard mebels themselves, what they never work have believed from seeing them in Adr istration papers. The rebels distinctly tell it and so do their own papers, which we see any day, that they want McClellan elected; for a say-he is pledged to an Armistice, and that & will ultimately surrender all they ask before e will renew hostilities. If Mr. Lincoln is slected, they say, they expect four years ne re of war unless they are whipped; and tho gh some of them declare we never can can res trathe Union, yet they seem very anxious note see Lincoln elec-ted; and deserters, who con in daily, say the rebels will give up if Line in is re elected; thesay the masses of the ret ils are diheartened already, and will improve sery opportunity to desert. Every time I had been on picket I have brought in deserters. Ley all tell one and the same story. . Re We send this number of the paper to many soldiers in the army, with the assurance that the Electoral Ticket at its mast-head is the GENUINE Lincoln electoral ticket for Pennsylvania. Beware of spurious tickets!

REPUBLICANS—ARE YOU ASSESSED? IS YOUR NEIGHBOR ASSESSED? IS EVERY SOLDIER FROM YOUR NEIGH-BORHOOD ASSESSED? WILL YOU SEE TO IT AT ONCE?

IF. Stupendous deceit and bald, shameless lying can elect Gunboat McClellan, he will be elected. But not otherwise. The Copperhead papers swarm with lies; the lips of Copperhead orators drop lies, as the clouds drop rain. We had flattered ourselves that the pro-slavery party had exhausted its greatest mendacity in '56 and '60. Delusive hope! If they lied then, they have improved upon the system now.

The Chairman of the Copperhead National Committee, August Belmont, agent of the Rothchilds, agent of Louis Napoleon, agent of European aristocracy for the extinction of republican institutions in America, has issued a proclamation commanding the Copperocracy of New York to illuminate, celebrate, and rejoice over the Copperhend victory in Pennsyl-

Now the "Copperhead victory" in Pennsylvania consists in just the following results: zd-A Legislature overwhelmingly Republi-

3d-A majority of not less than 10,000 for the Republican members of Congress, over the Copperhead members, in the entire State.

Aristocrat Belmont has taken the part of the soldier who averred that he had caught a Tartar. "Bring him in, then," said his commander. "Ay, but he wont let me !" rejoined the chopfellen Tartar-catcher.

Now, Copperheadism was whipt out in this State on the 11th of October. We gained four, probably five, members of Congress, so that the delegation, which now stands 12 to 12, will stand 16 Republican to 8 Copperhead, in the next Congress. We have the Legislature by an overwhelming majority; and we have not less than 10,000 majority on the whole vote.

Aristocrat Belmont knows this. He knew it when he proclaimed a "Democratic victory in Pennsylvania."

Aristocrat Belmont, in addition to his offices as Chairman of the McClellan Committee, and confidential agent for Louis Napoleon, is a stupendous LIAR. "

We can but repeat that when these Copperhead leaders, great and small, do not lie, they DO NOTHING!

HON. WM. H. ARMSTRONG.-Among the large brood of lies let loose in this county by the Vallandighammers during the contest between Wilson and Wright, there was one to the effect that neither Mr. Armstrong nor his friends were in good faith supporting Wilson. Ohio, and Pennsylvania. Now each of the ed-This we branded as a lie at the time. It is only simple justice to say that Mr. Armstrong took the field for Wilson and fought manfully to the end. The official returns in Lycoming show that Wilson ran ahead of the local candidates. He ran ahead in the other counties below the mountains. All these attempts to misrepresent Mr. Armstrong and his friends, will carried the State by over 80,000 majority, elecfail.

In this connexion we may likewise appropriately notice the lie about Hon. JAS. T. HALE, our present member of Congress. The Copperheads alleged that Mr. Hale was supporting the whole vote, electing 16 of the 24 Congress-Wright. We branded the story as a lie at the time, because we had the best evidence of its entire falsity. Mr. Hale is not comprehended by the Copperheads, for the reason that he is incapable of falsehood or treachery, either in serious danger of being laid out also. This

WE hear that certain of the Copperheads in and about this borough, profess to entertain lively approbensions of a civil war at the north if Little Mac is defeated. Well, gentlemen, Little Mac will be defeated. Many of you admit it. Why not inaugurate the war now? if you mean war, strike. We never heard of a The Republicans do not propose to inaugurate civil war for any such reason. If the Copperheads do, why not proceed? You can do bet-

And the will of the people will prevail.

REPUBLICANS OF TIOGA: The lith of October was a day of glorious victories for the Union, for on that day the three great States of in which the majorities stand as follows: Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana declared, themselves unmistakably for Abraham Lincoln and peace through a vigorous prosecution of the war. The loyal men of those States did well. They will do better on the 8th day of November. Tioga County must increase her majority of 2,260 to 2,500 at the very least. That, with the army vote, will give Lincoln and Johnson not less than 3,300 majority in

The question now is, how large a majority shall Pennsylvania give for Lincoln and Johnson? It should be overwhelming; and it will be overwhelming if we of the Union strongholds do our whole duty. We must do our duty. The eyes of the whole country are noon us. We still remain the Banner County of the State. We have that reputation to sustain and it must be sustained. To whom much is given, much is required. We have many competitors. We must distance them again on the 8th of November.

And now, there is abut one way to do this. It is the old way, by WORK ! Every Union man must go to work, and work as if the fate of the republic rested with him alone. There must be no idle hours-no idle men. We are to nobly rescue the country from irretrievable ruin, or we are to stand by, consenting to its moral and political death. Choose now, and your choice is between lasting victory over the blackest treason or base surrender to it.

If a single Union roter fails to vote on the 8th day of November next, except in case of severe sickness, he will repent in sackcloth and ashes in the coming time. Some neglects are unpardonable. That would be one of them.

SIE THEOPHILUS THUNDERBOLT WAS a great trumpet among penny whistles. Copperhead orators and scribblers appear to have dropped the acquaintance of the bland Turveydrop, and to have taken lessons in "deportment" of Sir Theophilus. In view of the result of the October elections they was wroth and vent horrible threatenings. Up to the day of election, they claimed the army vote in their favor. On being crowded on the home vote they admitted that the army vote might defeat them. In view of the fact that about 90 in every hundred of the soldiers voting, voted the Republican ticket, they complain that but one kind of tickets were sent to the army! We find this most ludicrous complaint in every Coppery sheet we open since the army vote was declared. Poor fellows ! did they expect the Union men to peddle their tickets? If they don't mean that, what do they mean?

And now, baffled and crest-fallen, these symresistance to the will of the majority. Well, that would be consistent; because 1st-their great chief, Jefferson Davis, de clares that the South seceded to get rid of the rule of the majority. And-

2d-it will be in keeping with their course violence if the people, in the exercise of their instructors, will be present. sovereign will, should see fit to elect Abraham Lincoln.

Have they yet to learn that freemen cannot be deterred from casting their votes as they in his old office. Ep.] please? Being traitors yourselves, do you regard the Union men of the North as very cowards?

You are at your old tricks. You'are forward to bluster and threaten. If it is permitted to stop there, well and good. If not, remember that the Almighty destroyed, utterly, the vile creatures that peopled Sodom. They left no seed. Remember Marat, and Danton, and Robespierre. The will of the people shall be respected. The majority shall rule. The minor | midnight, was received to the effect that the ity shall enjoy, in reasonable peace, every constitutional right guarantied to the citizen.

But the few shall not rule the many. The minority must not essay to do by violence that which they cannot do legitimately. We take our forces, drove the enemy beyond Straeburg, ap no Coppery sheet that does not threaton a "free fight" in the event of defeat in November. Very well; put your houses in order.

We just picked up three Copperhead papers, and each assures its patrons that the "Democracy" have won glorious victories in Indiana, itors of these papers wrote with full knowledge of the following facts:

1st-That Indiana has just elected Gov. Morton, Union, by over 20,000 majority, and 8 Union Congressmen out of 11-a loss of 4 to the Copperheads.

2d-That the Union men of Ohio have just ting 16 out of its 19 Congressmen-a gain of 11 on the delegation as it now stands.

3d-That Pennsylvania has just gone for the Union by a majority of not less than 15,000 on men-a gain of 4 on the delegation as it now stands. Further, it is now pretty certain that Ketcham is elected over Dennison in the Luzerne district, and Strouse and Coffroth are in word or act. He supported Wilson from first would give us 19 of the 24 Congressmen-a gain of 7 on the delegation as it now stands.

So these Copper editors stand convicted of lying like dogs, and a bad breed of dogs at severely and perhaps mortally wounded.

We invite attention to the articles on the outside of this paper. Gen. Butler's Letter to Gen. Cameron is a most excellent argument in favor of Mr. Lincoln's re-election. The speech Republican whining over the probability of of that prominent McClellan man, Jeff. Davis, civil war if Mr. Lincoln should be defeated. delivered at Macon, Georgia, will show to the world the mendacity of the Chicago platform when it declares the war for the Union a failure. The address of the Union National Comter, gentlemen. You can submit to the will of mittee is a remarkably able document. We commend them to all men who desire to know

The Copporheads do not get quite one vote in five among the soldiers. We predict that G. B. McClellan will not get one vote in ten. Only about one-third of the Pennsylvania soldiers voted, for the roason that many regiments were not reached by the Commissioners in season. This will be remedied in November, and the returns will show 30,000 majority for Lincoln and Johnson in Pennsylvania. Hurra for the soldier boys, with their brave hearts and willing hands!

STEPHEN F. WILSON is elected to Congress by a rousing majority. The official home vote in the district stands thus:

That will do.

SUBLIMELY impudent are the disciples of St. Vallandigham! They, and no others, voted against the soldiers in August, and then went up and down the streets, like Bedlamites, crying up that the soldiers would vote for their candidates ! They abused and villified the soldiers all summer, voted against extending the elective franchise to them in August, and begged on their knees for their votes in October! And that is dignity, is it? or consistency, or even common decency, is it?

It is sublimated impudence: it is meanness boiled down four into one; it is an exhibition of an impoverished spirit. Why, that party is spring poor! Is it the grand old Democratic party? The grand old Democratic party! why -we grew up to manhood in the Democratic party: yet it never exhibited any such degradation as this. It is not in the remotest degree related to the glorious old Democracy.

Lieut. General Grant, City Point I have the honor to report that my army at Cedar Creek was attacked this A.
