The Stomach's Appeal.

Who but an idiot, or some unprincipled servant, or recklessly wasteful spendthrift, would think of building as large fires in their houses in the April springtime as in the bleak December? And yet, ladies and gentlemen, statesmen, philosophers, and scholars of every grade; the judges, the senators, the lawyer and the clergyman, all commit the unpardonable folly—unpardonable because it is against the light, and in favor of the lower instincts and propensities—of not only eating as much as the appetite demands, but of taking something to stimulate that appetite to call for more than it needs, as the warm weather approaches. The two objects of eating, as to men and women, are to give vigor to the body and to keep it warm. Hence, all food contains two principles in greater or less proportions, according to quality, to wit: nutrition and warmth. We need nourishment all the year round; hence, we must all the year round eat food which contains nourishment; that is, the flesh-forming principle. But in the warm weather, the food which contains the most fuel should be to a certain extent, curtailed, otherwise, we will create too much heat within, and that is fever, whose victims are counted by thousands every year—this excess of heat, this fever, being generated by eating food which contains more warmth, more fuel (called carbon by the chemists), than the season requires. To a certain extent nature regulates the demand and supply by diminishing the appetite as the warm weather approaches; but many misinterpret her endeavors, and because they find that as the spring comes on their appetites are not as vigorous as they were a few weeks earlier, begin to take alarm, think they are going to be sick, and conclude they will certainly get sick unless they can get up the appetite of winter; hence they begin to take Dutch gin, under the name of Schiedam Schnapps, Plantation Bitters, or cheap whiskey, with just enough colombo root, or other bitter to give it a trace of bitter, and rob it of the name of rotgut, or dirty beer, or ale, or porter,—all these things tending to cheat nature into a call for more food than she requires, to impose on the stomach more labor than it can perform, thus laying the ground for summer fevers and dyspepsias, which bring death to thousands every year who might have lived to a good old age had they simply let themselves alone, and like any other dogs, or donkeys, or wild beasts, had simply given the stomach rest, and waited for an appetite.

The general lessons for the spring are, eat only when you are hungry, and to the extent of satisfying an unstimulated appetite; eat less of carbonaceous food, such as meats, fats, oils, syrups, etc., and more cooling articles, such as green salads, vegetables, berries, fruits, and whatever has a natural tartness or acidity, there being little or no carbon or heat in them; but they contain as much nutriment as the system requires.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Peace Through War.

Gen. COCHRANE lifted his audience to their feet in Philadelphia, and received an ovation from them in response to his declaration that the peace that the rebels would get from us would be that which the musket gives to a conquered host. He said:

"At Chicago there were gentlemen in the livery of War Democrats. They were modest, for the pressure was upon them. A very little war, they begged of Vallandigham, a little will answer us. 'No,' says Vallandigham, 'we want peace—unconditional peace!'

"How is it in the field? When the private bivouacs in the night, does he say to his musket, 'we'll have a little peace in the morning?' If he did, the musket would be too much of a 'peace' for him. Do the officers talk of a little peace? No. They retire to the sound of war, and when they rise the matin trumpet sounds the charge of war. They are there to fight for their country. They abhor the uniform peace guns at Chicago. The war is nearly closed. The rebellion is at its last gasp. Its resources are almost gone. The Richmond Examiner says, 'the enemy is closing about us. Richmond will be taken!' An officer who surrendered to Sheridan illustrated this. Throwing his sword at the feet of the Provost Marshal, he said: 'The Confederacy has gone to h—ll. The men won't fight; neither will I.' The rebel community is falling away by piecemeal, and at last the head and front of the rebellion, the State of Georgia, to return to the Union. And now make peace! All the resources of negotiation must first be exhausted, says Gen. McClellan, before we protract the war. There WILL be peace, but it will be that peace which the musket gives to a conquered host. That peace is now at our doors. And it is now for you to declare in your omnipotence that there shall be no peace save that attached in glorious ensigns to your standards in the field."

RURAL TASTE.—What is more interesting and beautiful, especially on a warm summer day, than a well developed shade tree? It may occupy a place by your dwelling, by the wayside or in the pasture-field; it possesses the same noble and picturesque appearance. There is nothing that adds so much to the prospectiveness and beauty of a well arranged country farmhouse—giving it a spirit of true liveliness—as a surrounding of stately trees. They may be the elegant maple, the sturdy oak, or the tall and graceful elm, occasionally interspersed with some evergreen, fir, and pine,—the effect is at once pleasing and ennobling in its tendency. The lowly cottage of the poor, no less than the stately mansion of the rich, is ornamented and made pleasant by their wide-spread and shadowy branches. No class need be deprived of these every-day beautifiers of our home. And we are led to ask, why it is that we see so little interest manifested in this direction. Why are our farm houses generally so bare and devoid of trees, foliage, and flowers? Is it that we have no taste for the beautiful and picturesque in nature? Or that we feel no interest in regard to the loveliness and beauty of our houses and homes? This can not be. There may be a want of cultivated taste among our farmers, as seen by the carefully cultivated eye, in these sylvan appendages to our country homes, which is apparently too much the case.

WHOEVER feels pain in hearing a good character of his neighbor, will feel a pleasure in the reverse; and those who despair to rise in distinction by their virtues, are happy if others can be depressed to a level with themselves.

"COME here, my dear, I want to ask you all about your sister. Now tell me truly, has she got a beau?"

"No, it's the jaundice she's got; the doctor says so."

DR. VELPAU'S FRENCH PILLS.

Ladies, take Particular Notice.

THE REAL VELPAU FEMALE PILL.

[WARRANTED FRENCH.]

THESE PILLS, so celebrated many years ago in Paris for the relief of female irregularities, and afterward so notorious for their criminal employment in the practice of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity from the fact that the originator, Dr. Velpau, is a physician in Paris of great wealth and strict conscientious principles, and has withheld them from general use, lest they should be employed for unlawful purposes. In overcoming Female Obstructions, Falling of the Womb, Whites, Green Sickness, Suppression, Retention, or Immoderate Flow of the Monthly Discharges, they seem to be truly omnipotent, bursting open the flood-gates from whatever cause may have stopped them; but they are offered to the public only for legitimate uses, and all agents are forbidden to sell them when it is understood that the object is unlawful. Married ladies should never take them when there is any reason to believe themselves pregnant, for they will be sure to produce a miscarriage.

These pills are entirely safe under all circumstances, being composed entirely of substances from the vegetable kingdom.

Each box has the coat of arms for the City of Paris stamped on the box, with the words "Trade Mark" in French, to counterfeit which is a misdemeanor, and all persons will be dealt with according to law.

☞ Full directions accompany every box.

Ladies can obtain a box sealed from the eyes of the curious, by inclosing One Dollar and six post-office stamps to any respectable druggists, or to O. G. STAPLES, General Agent for the United States, Watertown, N. Y.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A Pure and Powerful Tonic, Corrective and Alterative, of Wonderful Efficacy, in Diseases of the

STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS;

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by Special Causes.

NOTHING that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water, and other external causes. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive, and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its productive qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine.—Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable tonic; and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA, and in less confirmed forms of INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the CONSTIPATION superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of BILIOUS COLIC is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases, it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and inocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day

No family medicine has been so universally, and, it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

And Melancholy Deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

The Constitution once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system,

Which HEMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does.

A trial will convince the most skeptical.

FEMALES, FEMALES, FEMALES.

In many Affections peculiar to females, the EXTRACT BUCHU is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary evacuations, Ulcerated or Scirrhous state of the Uterus, Leuchorrhoe or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.

Take no more Balsam, Mercury, or unpleasant medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HEMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH CURES

SECRET DISEASES,

In all their stages.
At little expense.
Little or no change in diet.
No inconvenience, and no exposure.

It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the Urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frexuent in this class of diseases, and expelling all poisons, diseases and worn out matter.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS, WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

Use Hembold's Extract Buchu for all affections and diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

Diseases of these organs require the aid of a DIURETIC: HEMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS THE GREAT DIUBETIC, and is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

Evidence of the most reliable and responsible character will accompany the medicine.

Price $1 per bottle, or six for $5.
