CHARLESTON O. K -The Charleston boys (old and voung) had a particularly good time on election picht. It reminded us of the Independent Order, of the Weelly Horse in 1856. It takes the Charles pnians to do the thing up brown.

In answer to numerous inquiries as to the gime of the man who gave a drunken Copperhead my ney to burrrh for McClellan, while Col. Forney was sp aking n front of the Court House, we can only says. The fact is established, but the man is no man at all.

FROM, and after this date, we shall be compelled to charge five cents a line for all obituary notices, (except deceased soldiers) which go beyond the annonncement of the death. Simple notices of deaths will be inserted free, as usual. . .

We are forced to do this because, if we published all the long notices sent us there would be no foom for anything else in the paper.

A NEW PAPER.-We have received the first number of a new Sunday paper, The Sunday Herald, pubhihed in Philadelphia by S. E. Cohen & Son. reed only to say that Mr. Cohen is the publisher of The Dial, one of the most efficient Administration journals in the country, to indicate the temper of the Herald. It is a large and beautifully printed paper, and contains a vast amount of interesting miscellany. Well worth treble its price $2-we commend it to public patronage.

WINTER, crisp and raw, is already upon us. It has come early, and promises to remain, with little intermission, until its calendar period shall be exhausted. Let us look around us and see what may te done to soften its rigors to the poor. They must have wood and food, and they must have cloth a suitable for the season. The authorities will, without doubt, do their duty, but red tape is slow, someumes-so slow that the destitute might freeze o starve, if such a thing were possible in a Christian village. If every man, who has enough, and a trifle to spare, will constitute himself an oversee of the poor in his immediate neighborhood, much g od can be done, much suffering avoided. . Wellsboro is not burdened with poor. There are not many amilies who will need help. These few must be help, I when mer most need it. Let there be no delay, no I anging tack.
