much regret, that reports have been circulated in Tioga County, reflecting, in a manner, upon the conduct and character, as soldier, of my very worthy and highly esteemed friend and late Lieutenant, Gerould D. Dennison.

Nothing could be more unjust. Lt. Dennison's character as an officer and a soldier while connected with the 187th Regt. was not only beyond reproach, but was such as to be envied by the best officers of his rank who knew his services. He not only, participated but he went as far, and staid as long as any man of the line, in every battle or skirmish in which the Regiment was engaged. He was often "Lieutenant of the picket," in front of Petersburg, when picketing was lazardous as well as delicate duty, and no off er of equal rank received higher or more freq lent compliof duty, than did Lt. Dennison. On the terrible 18th 19th and 21st, on the Weldon R. R. he was with the front line. On the memorable 21st the day upon which was decided, not only whether we should retain our hold upon that important line of communication, but also another important question, whether the 5th Corps could stand before a force of twice its number. Lieutenant Dennison held the centre of the front picket line with 40 men of the 187th He held this important line, (being in front of Catlin's Division, the Division most seriously threatened) until the whole line to his right and to his left had fallen back a distance of from 300 to 400 yards notwithstanding the right and left were occurred by Veteran troops. This was all important, as Catlin's Division was the point simed at, and as prisoners afterward testified, they had confidently expected to crush this Division.

When Lt. D. was afterward asked why he remained so long, subjecting himself and entire command to annihilation or capture, he simply replied: "My instructions were to hold the line as long as I could, and I held it. Captain Bodine of the 149th Yas Brigade officer of picket that day, and to him I would refer any who may suspect Lt. Dennison's metal.

In losing Lt. Dennison the pervice lost a brave, patriotic and efficient efficer. His early -dissmissal cast a gloom over our company and regiment, as in them he had become unanimously known and respected for his conspicnous bravery and general good conduct as an officer and a gentleman. His dismissal was not intended to reflect upon his conduct as an of the officers of his rank might to-day fail to answer. Had he feigned sick and, retired from duty that day as others, of higher rank did, he might still have held his commission, but he refused to do it, though very strongly devoted to the service, he preferred to take his discharge, to doing an act which he believed to be dishonorable. I make this statement unsolicited by, and without the knowledge of Lt. Dennison, hoping he will pardon me for using his name so freely, believing it due those himself that so much should is said. The following is a copy of an address issued to the people of Pennsylvania, by Major Dodge, A. A. Provost Marshal then. Our readers should give it a carful persual, and act accordingly. Every man is interested in the matter. and should assist in filling quotes in the manner mentioned:

ATTENTION !- The President has called for 300,000 troops, to be raised by volunteering or draft. The 15th of Febuary, 1865, has been fixed upon as the day of draft. If your quotas are not filled by volunteers by that time, the deficiency will most certainly be made up by draft.

- Ward and township committees are earnestly invited to commence fork at once. The longer you delay the more difficult will be your

The attention of those, committees is also invited to the necessity and propriety of delivering up to the District Provost Marshals all delinquents from former drafts. It is impossible for the United States author.

ities to find these men, secreted, as they are, by their friends and by persons hostile to the Government. Committees, United States, and County officers, and all good citizens are requested to arrest these men, and deliver them to the Provost Marshals.

Every man so arrested and put into service by the Board of Enrollment counts one towards filling your quots.

Information by letter or otherwise, furnished to District Provost Marshals of the whereabouts of these delinquents will be thankfully received and promptly acted upon.

Provost Marshals will cause lists of delinquents from all former drafts to be made and distributed, to the end that all so disposed may understandingly assist in forcing these delinquents to perform their duty to their country and to their own people.

Bring all your delinquents; exert yourselves to put in volunteers, and the necessity of a draft will be avoided.

Our armies and navies are everywhere victorious. The dawn of peace is at hand. One powerful blow now given, wal be fatal to the Rebellion. Let us all, in our several capacities, and as far as in us lies, thite to make that blow effective and final. FICHARD I. DODGE, Major 12th Infantry, A. A. P. M. G. Harrisburg, Dec. 22, 1864.

A Union League in Savannau .-- An Illinois soldier who escaped from Millen, Ga., on the 15th of November, siter visiting Savannah, and finally reaching the Union fleet between that city and Charleston, has arrived home, and says there are loyal men in Savannah. He found there a Union League in actual operation, and received assistance from its members, without which he would 'not have been able to effect his escape.

THE TEACHING OF FAILURE.

Favored with uninterrupted success, man would grow insolent and self-sufficient, and perhaps impious enough to imagine himself almighty. A month of cloudless skies would be likely to beget a forgetfulness of falling weather, and men might be overtaken by storms while totally unprepared. Twenty successive years of general plenty, would destroy all the habits of economy and frugality which are at present the world's best defence against famine. ments for a vigilant and complete performance | If men never received physical damage from transgression of natural law, the world would be swallowed up in excess, virtue would perish out of the race, and society would fall in ruin.

So much for the uses of adversity. A great military and naval expedition set sail for Wilmington a few weeks ago. There were many great ships, hundreds of great guns, and 10,000 men. Elated by brilliant successes the public regarded the fall of Wilmington as a foregone result. Not many, even of the less sanguine among loyal men, thought failure probable.

A few days went by, and then came rumors of the abandonment of the expedition, and the return of the troops to Fortress Monroe. The loyal were filled with anxiety and regret. The disloyal press rang the changes upon these rumore and made no concealment of its joy. A McClellan paper, now lying before us, publishes the rumor, and in an editorial says that our troops were beaten back with great slaughter. The fact was, that no assault was made by our troops, and therefore there was no repulse and no slaughter from the enemy's fire. The pre- your sons was killed in Kentucky, while on a cise fact seems, from the official report to be: The fleet under Admiral Porter attacked Fort Fisher, and silenced its guns. Under the fire of the fleet Gen. Butler made a reconnoisance in force to within 50 yards of the Fort, and retired upmolested, having satisfied himself that officer or a gentleman. He was dismissed for the place was impregnable to any force at his failing to answer questions, which two-thirds command. As for losses sustained, they pertained to the fleet, and do not exceed sixty, all, or nearly all, from the bursting of several guns.

Now the Wilmington expedition failed. In posting the books of this war it will be set off to Profit and Loss. But the failure, however much to be deplored, is no cause for despair. Wilmington will fall into our hands as Savannah did, in good time. The failure to capture it ought to teach us wisdom. We ought to with whom he has been associated, as well as have learned, ere this, that the salvation of the republic is to be worked out with fear and trembling. We are to deserve a redeemed and purified nation through great tribulation. It is for us to know that permanent peace, when it comes, will come as the wages of fidelity to in endorsing what Capt. Hart has said above truth and justice, and not as a gratuity. We have not yet comprehended the nature of this struggle, as a people. How many of us recognize in it more than a passage at arms between two sections of the republic? Yet it is something vastly more momentous still. It is the old quarrel between light and darkness renewed in open field. One must succumb. It been traced for more than four miles, is from is for the people to say which shall rule. It is seven to fourteen feet thick. It is situated of February next, at 2 o'clock P. M. not to be settled by any fortuitous happening whatever. We are to purchase peace at a cost which shall render us jealous of every attempt to inaugurate war for the purpose of national aggrandizement. The scars this nation is to bear will constitute, not only an open page of history, but glow as a warning against criminal compromise with wrong in all time to come.

This intolerance of defeat, however, is by no means to be unqualifiedly condemned. None but patriots will grieve over the defeat of our arms. Failure, therefore, twice profits us .once in teaching us who sympathize with treason, and once in impressing upon the minds of men the fact that man is not almighty. If we thus regard temporary defeat in this light the burden will not seem so heavy. Certainly no man is competent to judge of the merits and demerits of any military disaster, sitting in his easy chair a thousand miles away. Whatever else we may be, few of us are military critics. And when we take it upon us to say that this might have been done, or that avoided, we undertake to speak upon points of which we are entirely ignorant.

Let none repine because invariable success does not attend military and naval enterprise. We must be content to endure the varying fortune of war as other nations have endured before. The wide space over which the Union armies are operating renders uninterrupted success impossible. Standing at any given point no man can overlook the entire arena of war and comprehend the magnitude of the struggle. The people can afford to be patient. They can afford to wait.

WE see by the last Lewisburg Chronicle. that our friend Worden retires from the editorial department of that paper, and that it will hereafter be conducted by Mr. Connelius. If, as we learn, brother Worden retires upon a competency, we most heartily congratulate him on his unprecedented good luck, and most cordially wish him rest, peace and continued prosperity. He was one of the most faithful and vigorous working editors in the State.

Mr. Cornelius has made some improvements in the style of the Chronicle, and has our best wishes for bis success.

DEATH is busy among the prominent publiciets. Hon. Wm. L. Dayton, Minister to the exclusively specie. French Court, died from apoplexy on the 9th of December last. His remains were brought home to New Jersey for interment. Gen. Fremont is reported as his successor. We hope it will give him an advantage which none of our Ministers to that Court have possessed for a half century.

WAR NEWS.

There is a little of active military operation to chronicle since our last issue. Our reports from Sherman come chiefly through rebel sources. The Richmond papers report that She man had driven in the rebel pickets at Hardeeville, Georgia, on the line of the Charleston and Savannah railroad, and that his forces were making for Branchville, the junction of the Savannah and Augusta railroad. Gen. Dana's raid on the Mobile and Ohio road was successful. He burned 25 bridges; took 400 carbines, a large amount of ammunition, and 300 wagons. We also took many prisoners.

Our cavalry under Gen. Steadman burned Hood's pontoon train, and captured 600 mules and 100 wagons.

Hood has escaped into Alabama with the residue of his army.

Parson Browntow thus compares his family record with that of Prentice of the Louisville

" My two sons entered the Federal army, and one of them is now home on crutches because of wounds received in leading his regiment of cavalry in a charge upon Wheeler's forces in Middle Tennessee. My other son is in Gen. Gillem's command, and was in the fight when that great Kentuckey horse-thief Morgan, was killed, under whom and with whome your sons have been fighting against the government upon whose bounty their rebel mother and contract hunting father are living. One of horse-stealing expedition under rebel officers .-Your other son is now on trial in Virginia, for the murder of a brother rebel by the name of White. Your wife is an avowed rebel, and ought to be sentSouth by the Federal authorities; and you are but one degree removed from a rebel and a traitor, having been completely played ont.

THE FEELING IN CANADA.—It is stated on on the authority of the Chicago Journal that a clergyman who has just traveled extensively throughout the Canadas, say that a majority of the Canadians are enthusiastic friends of the North and have no sympathy whatever with the South. The Americans and the native Caand women, with scarcely an exception, are anemies, and they watch for opportuties to do us all the injury they can. They give food and shelter to the rebels, they suply them with funds to buy arms and ammunition, they hasten to their resone when in trouble, they echo the sentiments of the London Times, they avow their eccession opinions in public, and show no little zeal in urging the raiders to cross the lines and destroy the property of the Yankees.

EXTENSIVE DISCOVERIES OF SILVER. The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received intelligence of the discovery of rich and extensive silver mines in Washington Territory, along the western slope of the Cascade mountains. The ore is represented as exceedingly rich, yielding about seven hundred dollars to the ton. The lead, which has already about fifty miles north of Olympia. Miners are flocking in large numbers to this new El Dorado. - Washington Republican.

Since the establishment of the prison post at Andersonville, Georgia, last spring, twelve thousand of the Union prisoners held there have died and been buried there; and this mortality exists among a body of prisoners at. no time exceeding forty thousand. Their graves are numbered from one up, and a register kept in the prison represents their name, regiment, and State in juxtaposition thereto, so there will be no difficulty in locating the grave of any particular deceased should the time ever some when such a thing might be desirable.

They are turned loose in Canada for other raide, and Canadian judges sid and abet them. A day of reckoning is com-

Publishing the Lists.—The Boston and Cincinati journals are publishing in full the list of tax-payers and the amount they pay under the special revenue law. The publication has developed the fact that wealthy men who spend over $6000 per annum in their household expenses, have no income "over $600." The publication creats a great hubbub, but mostly among those who have sinister motives for concealing their wealth.

A dress parade of bounty-jumpers took place at Indianapolis, Ind., a few days since. Over one hundred of them were lashed two and two to a long rope, with a herculean African leading the column through the principal streets, ringing a bell.

The oil excitement in the Dunkard, or Greene county, Pa., region, is increasing. Large transactions in the oil lands are frequent, and the greatest eagerness is exhibited. It is believed by experienced oil men that this region is equal to Oil Creek or West Virginia.

THE Supreme Court of California has decided that taxes may be paid in greenbacks .-This decision will materially aid the party in that State who are striving to introduce Government paper there as currency. It has been exclusively specie.

Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation." indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says. I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children. The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which supnurate and become ulcerous sores: in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints on im-skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. Then all having the same origin, require the same renedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble foul or corrupted blood, you cannot have health: with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrotulous

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders neentails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues univ extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tunors, Emp tions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipeies, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scand Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Discussion, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series complaints that arise from impurity of the blood Minute reports of individual cases may be found in Aver's American Almanac, which is turnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victime far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER's SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Savaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempera which lurk within the system or burst out on anj part of it. We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promied much and did nothing; but they will neither in deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence or the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to
