A TRUMP "CARD."-We don't allude to the turn up in the game with those wicked bits of pasteboard, but to our enterprising friend and fellow-citizen, GEO. P. CARD, who has bought cut Bullard's big stock of Cloths, Clothing, Boots & Shoes, &c., one door above Roy's. (ard is a live business man, and has hat one fault-he can't take a joke. As for instance . We happened in there the other day, having on a hat some per cent worse for wear, and remarked that a new one wouldn't disfigure us "everly." Whereupon Card assaulted us in a violent manner, forcibly robbing us of the dispidated tile, aforesaid, and following up the assault by clapping a brand new beng r onour devoted head. No doubt he mean alell; tut the new tile hide fair to rob us of peace. While we were the old one nobody expected us t pay our debts; but now-how changed! However, we advise every hatless, coatless, r shoel -s wight to go strait to Card's Store. sod get the quter man renovated.

SOLDIER'S AID SOCIETY!

Covington, January 2d. 1865. . We have not reported the work of the Soldiers' Aid in Covington for several months as we did not deem it a matter of special, necessity. But, for the gratification of others, and to dissipate the undesirable impression: that the ladics of Covington have ceased these lators, we are disposed to give a synopsis of our work for the past six months:

We have received $120 in money, with contributions of various kinds; and have sent to the W. P. B. of the Sanitary Commission, Philadelphia, three boxes, containing wrappers, quilte, drawers, shirts, socks, handkerchiefs, pin-cushions, old linen and cotton, tomato catsup, dried fruit, corn-starch, books,

We are still working, and expect to work, (Deo rolente) as long as the aid of American women is needed. We are not among those who are willing to turn our backs upon a cause when the cry, "come and help us;" nounds leadest in our ears. With an army of fivebundred thousand new men in the fild; and the added call for three hundred Wousand more, there comes a fact thrillingly sign ificant; a fact that appeals to the benevolence f every patriot in the land; and one that conies specially, to the door of every woman's scul-wo-man, who lays legitimate claim to sympathy with pain and suffering - and pleads for the most energetic labor on her part to assist in collecting and preparing the necessary comforts for eating, drinking, and wearing, to be held in reserve when these gathering ranks of our brave men shall be broken, and their bruised and mangled bodies be ranged in belploss anguish upon the thousand cots of the various hospitals of our land. The praises of the " noble army" of women who esteem it only a duty thus to sired forth these home comforts, have been sou: ded not in our own land alone, but from foreign shores have been echoed the same glad notes of commendation, and, if the long lines of narrow couches stretching along the multiplied wards of our hospitals North, East. South, and West, could but send out records of the experience of their many occupants, we have ample proof in the frequent evidences that come to us through the publications of the Sanitaly Commission, that our harts would receive an add-td stimulus in hearing from them volumes of soul felt gratitude, and heaven-born benedichous which might well complete the barmony of a grand and magnificent chorus of thanksgiving to the helpless at home.

Let us then work on to "the end of the last chapter and page of this great war," and, confidently hope that these continually increasing evidences will so strengthen the weak in faith" with regard to the effectiveness of the philanthropic association which we strove to aid, that, at least, once a week, they will esteem it a privilege to "arise and " walk" in that good path that shall lead them directly to the door of the different societies in their midst. If, as Dr. Bellows asserts in a recent speech in New York city, the Ladies Aid Societies are the "life-blood" of the Sanitary organization, it may become a matter of concern to us that we do nothing to stop the circulation of this vital current, lest we thereby find ourselves in danger of breaking the sixth commandment.

We are glad to know that an Aid Society has recently been organized in Blossburg under the most encouraging auspices, with Mrs. James H. Gulick as its President. We wish them eminent success in finding willing hands among the ladies, and large hearts among the gentlemen, to sustain them in the noble enter-F. A. DYER, Sec'y.
