town," find associates in a like predicament with themselves, and gradually fall into evil practices. Smoking, chewing, drinking, gaming, swearing, and the habitual use of obscene language, are certain pitfalls which lie in the path of the boywho is permitted to waste his precious time in that very indefinite locality, "down town." The young, awake to impressions of every kind, cannot long breathe with impunity an atmosphere so charged with moral poison as that "down town."

WHICH IS THE LOWER ANIMAL -Is it the cow, or the owner of that cow which is turned out at night without shelter; though he can not but know such inhumanity is a necuniary loss

If the feeling of kindness and enlightened self-interest have anything to do in framing an answer, it will be that the cow, thus treated is that the brute has feeling, has wants, as well as you; and that for your sake you can not afford so to treat the lower animals with cruelty.—Paterson Press.

TRUTH WON'T ALWAYS DE-We once knew a man who, on his return from a public meeting, burst open his door in a rage, upset the children, kicked the dog, and paced the room back and forth like a tiger

"What is the matter, my, dear?" asked the wondering wife. 🛴 Matter ?" roared the angry husband," matter enough: Neighbor B has publicly called me a liar!" "Oh! never mind that my dear," replied the good woman, "he can't prove it, and no-body will believe him."

"Prove it you fool!" reared the madman more furiously than before. ?" He did prove it! He brought witnesses and proved it on the spot! Else how could I be in such an infernal pashion?"

A society has lately been formed in Bordeaux, France, to put down the superstitious of evil omens. As every body knows, it is accounted bad luck to begin anything on a Friday, or ed bad luck to begin anything on a Friday, or to sit at a table with thirteen, or to balance a chair on one leg, or to spile east around before commencing. In the whole year, during which bad luck bad been thus defieden single fatality has, as yet occurred to any member.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH

BITTERS. Pure and Powerful Tonic, Corrective and Alterative, of Wonderful Efficacy, in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS; Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint. Headache. Gen res Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, neadache, or ral Debility, Nerrousnass, Depression of Sp rits, Constipation, Colic. Intermittent Fe-vers. Cramps and Spasms, and all Com-plaints of either Sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or pro-duced by Special Causes.

Norming that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants; with the purest and middest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against makeldes engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water, and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Firer and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive, and irresistible as a remedy, and thomsands who resort to it under approhension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its productive qualificain advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine.—Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The week stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable tonic; and hence it works wonders in cases of Dysprest, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless apperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Construction.

Persons of feeble habit. Hable to "Nervous Attacks, Lowmess of Spirils and Fils of Languor" find prompt and per manent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Billoss Cotte is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the atimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce of fects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weak mest, Fremature Decay, and Debility and Decreptude arising from old age; it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases, it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it opretates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and inocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the dey
No family medicine has been so universally, and, it may be truly added, descreally popular with his intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTER'S.

or offonsive matter. In every respect it is a pure spirituous liquor. The Oil which gives to this Brandy its flavor and aroma, is wholly unlike furil or grain oil. Its odor partakes of both the fruit and oil of grapes. With acids, it produces ethers of a high fragrance. The substitution of this Brandy for Cog-nac Brandy will do away with the manufacture of factitious spirits, sold under this name both at home and abroad. Respectfully,

By the same, in 1864. I have analyzed "L. LYONS' PURE CATAWBA BRANDY," with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from ton casks should the same results with regard to purity; a slightly in-creased amount of the principle on which its flavor depends was determined by comparison with former samples.

The indications of analysis show that this Brandy is produced by the same process as most of the imported Brandy.
