HUSBAND AND WIFE.-A manis a good husband, you say. It is well. Bul, what would he have been with another wife? So husband at all, perhaps, or worse than none. His good-It is well, we bay, that under any laffuences he can be good; but let him not his edl credit of his goodness to himself The ligger share is due to his better-half. Some might be good, if they tried to two or three in succe ision; some but to one; and some, alas, to time. A woman is a good wife. This, too, is well. But how much of her goodness is her husband's? She cannot tell. Perhaps one his f. Perhaps two-thirds. Then let her not be proud. Let her keep from boasting. Let her herish modest thoughts of herself, and form charitable judgements of others, and her virge will be all the greater, and her comfort all the safer.

How to be Cheerful.—A cheerful life must be a busy one. And a busy life cannot well be otherwise than cheerful. Frogs to not croak in running water. Active mindi are seldom troubled with gloomy forebodings. They come up only from the stagnant depth; of a spirit unstirred by generous impulse of the blessed necessities of honest toil.

Hostetter's CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A Pure and Powerful Tonic, Corrective and Alterative, of Wonderful Efficacy,

Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BUWELS; Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousnass, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic. Intermittent Fevers. Cramps and Spasms, and all Com-plaints of either Sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether in-herent in the system or produced by Special Causes.

Norhing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare-balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water, and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safegrard.

In districts infested with Firer and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive, and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its productive qualitios in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelons medicine.—Faver and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTER'S.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable tonic; and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia end in less confirmed forms of Invicestion, acting as a genite and painless apperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constitution superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lounass of Spirits and Fits of Languor' find prompt and per manent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both seves.

The agony of Biliors' Coile is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce of fects which must be experienced or mend it in the highest terms, for medical use. Analysis of the Massachusetts State Assayer, January 25, 1858.

By the same, in 1884. I have analyzed "L. LYONS' PURE CATAWBA BRANDY," with reference to its composition and chararter, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from ten casks afforded the same results with regard to purity; a slightly in-creased amount of the principle on which its flavor depends was determined by comparison with former

The indications of analysis show that this Brandy is produced by the same process as most of the imported Brandy.
