The Tloga County Agitato: BY M. H. COBB.

Published every Wednesday morning and mailed to subcribers at ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS subcribers at ONE DULLAR AND FIFTI CENTS per year, always IN ADVANCE.
The procrissent postage free to county subscribers, though they may receive their mail at post-offices located in counties immediately adjoining, for conven-nience.

THE AGITATOR is the Official paper of Tioga Co., and circulates in every neighborhood therein. Subscriptions being on the advance-pay system, it circus lates among a class most to the interest of advertisers to reach. forms to advertisers as liberal as those offered by any paper of equal circulation in Narthern mnsylvania.

A cross on the margin of a paper, d notes that the subscription is about to expire.

Papers will be stopped when the subsc. iption time expires, unless the agent orders their centinu.

TAS. LOWREY & S. F. WILSON. A TIORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT AW, will attend the Courts of Tioga, Petgr and [Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1 63.]

DICKINSON HOUSE

MAJ. A. FIELD, Broprietor. GUESTS taken to and from the Dipit free [Jan. 1, 1888.]

PENNSYLVANIA HOUSE.

Wellsboro, Pa.

D. HART'S ROTEL. WELLSBORO, TIOG a CO.-PENNA.

THE subscriber takes this method to inform his old friends and customers that se has re-sumed the conduct of the old "Crystal Fountain Hotel," and will hereafter give it his entire attention. Thankful for past favors, he solicits a renewal of the DAVID HART. wellsboro, Nov. 4, 1863.-1y,

IZAAK WALTON HOUSE, Gaines, Tioga County, Pa.

H. C. VERMILYEA,.....Proprietor. THIS is a new hotel located within easy ac-This is a new mover notated whithis cary access of the best fishing and hunting grands in Northern Pennsylvania. No pains will be s'ared for the accommodation of pleasure seekers and 'ac travlling public. [Jan. 1, '863.]

A. FOLEY, ... Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, &c., &c., REPAIRED AT OLD PRICES.

POST OFFICE BUILDING. NO. 5, UNION BLOCK. Wellsboro, May 20, 1863.

J. EMERY,

ATTORNEY AT LAW AND MILITARY CLAIM AGENT, Has removed to the office on Avenue Street, next doo to Bigoney's. Jan. 4, 1865—A*

H W. WILLIAMS, Wat H, Suire. WILLIAMS & SMITH, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW,

BOUNTY & PENSION AGENCY. Main Street, Wellsboro, Pa. January 4, 1865-1y.

S. F. SHATBLIN, C. BARBER & HAIR-DRESSER.

SHOP ONE DOOR NORTH OF CONVERS' STORE. Ladies' Hair-Cutting done in the best manners Wellsboro, Dec 7, 1864.

WESTERN EXCHANGE HOTEL KNOXVILLE, BOROUGH, PA

THE undersigned having leased the above Hotel the traveling public that he has put the Hote In first class order for the reception of guests and no pains will be spared in the accommodation of travelers and as far as the situation will allow, he will keep a first e moderate. Please try us and judge for yourselve Knoxville, Oct. 19, 1864-tf. J. H. MARTIN.

DRUGS & MEDICINES. NO. 3. UNION BLOCK, WELLSBORG, PA.

P. R. WILLIAM'S, BEGS leave to announce to the citizens of Wells-boro and vicinity, that he keeps const ntly on

DRUGS AND MEDICINES. Chemicals, Varnish, Paints, Soans, Perforner , Glass,

Brushes, Putty, Fancy Goods, Pure Wines, Lancies, Gins, and sil other kinks of Liquors of the best PATENT MEDICINES

such as Jayne's Expectorant, Alterative and Polls; Ayer's Sarsaparilla, Pills and Cherry Pectoral; Helm-bold's Extract Buchu, Sarsaparilla and Rose Wash; Mrs. Winslow's Sothing Syrup; Wright's Pills; Clark's and Cheeseman's Pills; Hall's Balsam; Bin-inger's London Dock Gin; Herrick's Pills and Plasters: Brown's Bronchial Troches, &c., &c.
May 25, 1864-1y.
P. R. WILLIA IS.

REVENUE STAMPS.

OHN M. PHELPS, Deputy Collector of Jansfield, has just received a large lot of Refenue stams, of all denominations, from one cent up to $5. Any person wishing Stanps can get them at my office in Mansfield, or of M. BULLARD, Assistant As 'ssor, at Wellsboro, Pa.

Mansfield, May 2, 1864.

P. NEWELL, DENTIST,

MANSFIELD, THOGA COUNTY, P.A., I sprepared to operate in all the improvements it the various departments of filling, extracting, in terting artificial dentures, &c.
Mansfield. August 10, 1864-1y.

COWANESQUE HOUSE.

THIS House which has been open for convenience of the traveling public for a number of years, has lately been newly furnished throughout and fitted up in as good style as can be found in any courty y or cty Hotel. The Proprieter does not heritate it say-ing that there will be no pains spared to add to the The best of stabling for teams; and a good l'hesler alway, in attendance, all of which can be ound to mile east of Knoxville, Pa.

M. V. PURPLE, Proprietor.

Deerfield. May 25, 1864 .- 1y.

WELLSBORO HOTEL

(Ourner Main Street and the Avenue.) Wellsboro, PA. B. B. HOLIDAY, Proprietor. One of the most popular Houses in the ounty. This Hotel is the principal Stage-house in W al shoro. Stages leave daily as follows:

For Tioga. at 9 a. m.; For Troy, at 8 a. h.; For Jersey Shore Jersey Shore every Tuesday and Friday at 2 p. m.; For Condersport, every Tuesday and Friday at 2 p. m.; Stages Arrive—From Tioga, at 12 l.; o'clock p. m.; From Troy, at 6 o'clock p. m.; From Jersey Shore, Tuesday and Friday 11 a. m.; From Couders-Port, Tuesday and Friday II a. m.

N. B. - Jimmy Cowden, the well-known hostler, will be found on hand.

Wellsboro, Oct. 5, 1864-1y. HUGH YOUNG.

BOOKSELLER & STATIONER,

AND DEALER IN . .. American Clocks, American, English, and Swiss Watches. Jewelry, Silver Plated Ware, Sprigacles, Pictore Frames, Photographic Albums, Steresscopes, Microscopes, Perfumery, Yankee Notions, Fishing Tackle and Flies, and Fancy and Toilet Articles. SCHOOL BOOKS of every kind used in the county, constantly on hand and sent by mail or oth-

NO. 5, UNION BLOOK, WELLSBORO, PA.

AAAAA

Devoted to the Extension of the Area of Freedom and the Spread of Bealthy Reform.

WHILE THERE SHALL BE A WRONG UNRIGHTED, AND UNTIL "MAN'S INHUMANITY TO MAN" SHALL CEASE, AGITATION MUST CONTINUE.

VOL. XI. WELLSBORO, TIOGA COUNTY, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 22, 1865.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING!

(One door below Harden's Store.)

WE have just arrived in Wellsboro with a large Stock of CLOTHING and

Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, Also, HATS & CAPS, and a great assortment of

LADIES' CLOAKS,

Which we offer to the citizens of Wellsboro and sur-56 PER CENT. CHEAPER, than any other establishment in this part of the country. Our object is to reduce our

WINTER & FALL STOCK OF GOODS.

T. O. PRICES: Color the OVER COATS from $4 to $40. BUSINESS COATS from $3 to $25. PANTS from $2 to $10. VESTS from $21 to $8.

We bought our goods when Gold was only 1.50 and we can afford to sell our goods cheap.
All our Goods are manufactured under our own supervision and can not be surpassed in quality and durability.

We respectfully invite every one whose interest is We respectfully invite every out to be economical, to examine our

STOCK AND PRICES

before purchasing elsewhere. NAST & AUERBACH.

of Syracuse, N. Y., and Blossburg, Pa.

Wellsboro, Dec. 14, I864-tf. E. & H. T. ANTHONY & CO., Manufacturers of Photographic Materials,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, 501 BROADWAY, N. Y.

In addition to our main business of Photographic Materials, we are Headquarters for the following, viz

Stereoscopes & Stereoscopic Views, Of these we have an immense assortment, including War Scenes, American and Foreign Cities and Landscapes, Groups, Statuary, &c., &c. Also, Revolving Stereoscopes, for public or private exhibition. Our Catalogue will be sent to any address on receipt of PHOTOGRAPHIC ALBUMS. We were the first to introduce these into the United We were the first to introduce these into the United States, and we manufacture immense quantities in great variety, ranging in price from 50 cents to $50 each. Our ALBUMS have the reputation of being superior in beauty and durability to any ethers. They will be sent by mail, PREZ, or receipt of price.

Fine Albums made to order.

Our Catalogue, power hiphraces, over Live Thousand

being made) of Portraits of Eminent Americans, &c., 100 Major-Generals, 550 Statesmen, 200 Brig.-Generals, 130 Divines, 275 Colonela 125 Authors. 100 Lieut.-Colonels, 40 Artists, 125 Stage, 50 Prominent Women, 250 Other Officers. 75 Navy Officers, 50 Prominent Womer 150 Prominent Foreign Portraits. 3,000 COPIES OF WORKS OF ART, including reproductions of the most celebrated Engravings, Paintings, Statues, &c. Catalogues sent on receipt of Stamp. An order for One Dozen PIC-TURES from our Catalogue will, be filled, on the receipt of $1.80, and sent by mail, FREE.

Photographers and others ordering goods C. O. D. will please remit twenty-five por vent; of the amount with their order. . . . . . . . E. & H. T. ANTHONY & CO.;

Manufacturers of Photographic Materials, 501 Broadway, New York. The prices and quality of our goods canno fail to satisfy.

[Nev. 16, 1864-1y.]

FALL AND WINTER GOODS,-No. 2, Union Block. JEROME SMITH

Has lately returned from New York with a splendid DRY GOODS, READY-MADE CLOTHING,

BOOTS & SHOES, GLASSWARE, HATS & CAPS, HARDWARE, ... GROCERIES, DOMESTICS, WOODENWARE, ENGLISH CLOTHS, LADIES' DRESS GOODS, SATINS, TWEEDS AND KENTUCKY JEANS, FRENCH CASSIMERES, FULL CLOTHS.

Attention is called to his stock of Black and Figured Dress Silks, Worsted Goods, Merindes, Black and Figured DeLaines, Long and Square Shawls, Ladies' Cloth, Purchasers will find that No. 2, Union Block. Main Street, is the place to buy the best quality of Goods at the lowest prices.

Wellsboro, Nov. 16, 1864-tf.

WELLSBORO ACADEMY.—The second Term of the present school year will begin Monday, Dec. 12, 1864.

Pupils are prepared for College, or for business

Languages...... 6 00. Pupils designing to attend but half the term, will be charged accordingly.

No deduction is made for absences, unless in cases of protracted sickness.

Wellsboro, Dec. 7, 1864-3t.

Principal. PARM FOR SALE.—The undersigned wishes to dispose of his Farm in Covington township, lying on Elk Run, about three miles from Covington Boro, and generally known as the "Wetherbee Farm." It contains about 93 acres, with about 60

The soil is of the very best quality of upland and the cleared portion is entirely free from stumps. It is well wetered and has good buildings. Those who want to buy a good Farm may find it to their advantage to pay this one a visit before they "settle down." Good warrantee deed given. For terms apply to H. H. Potter, Middlebury Center, Pa., or to Levi Rockwell, Cherry Flatts, Pa.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30, 1864.

A N Assortment of TABLE GLASSWARE will be found at ROY'S DRUG STORE.

CONCENTRATED LYE, for male at ROY'S DRUG STORE.

Select Boetry.

GOD BLESS YOU, SOLDIER.

God bless you, soldier!—when our sky
Was heavy with impending wees,
When traitors reised the battle-cry,
When fear met fear in every eye,

You rushed to meet our foes. God bless you, soldier !-when our light Of hope grew dim and courage waned,
When freedom veiled her face from fight,
Your valor dashed away the night,
And morning clear remained.

God bless you, soldier!-scarred and worn, Wearied with marchings, watchings, pain, All battle stained and battle-torn, Bravely have all your tasks been borne, You have not fought in vain.

Alone revere and bless your name; For millions now and yet to be. Millions your arm has rendered free, Shall sing your deeds and fame. God bless you, soldier!—when the air Grows heavy with the battle's roar,

Sheltered beneath his love and care, May victory with her garlands rare

God bless you, soldier !-- think not we

Adorn you evermore. God bless you, soldier!—when the doye
Of peace the Eagle's nest will share,
When home and hearts made warm with love,
With joys below—with joys above,
God bless you here and there.

Miscelland.

A THWARTED PLOT.

BY MARY C. VAUGHAN.

"Oh, sir! Is there truly no other way?" "I tell you no, there isn't; and a pretty question to ask, at this time of day, and of me, who am just throwing away thousands of dollars on a whim of Hiram's. Hanged if I would, though, if there was a ghost of a chance. for getting the money,' he added in a low. voice; then aloud-"You might think yourself well off to pay a debt so easily, and then ust go on the same in your luxuries as if Charles Craigton had never owned a dollar."

" So easily !" There was despair in the tones and in the inguished face raised to his, but the old man's heart was not made to melt at aught like this. "Easily!" he mocked. "Why, yes. I fana man to be despised. And if he's enough in ervation, with the children of a former huslove to take a couple of helpless brats along with his wife, and all three as, poor as poverty itself, and deep in 'debt, I don't see any reason why you should complain. Anyhow your choice is a fine husband and splendid home, or the poor-house; and I advise you to think twice before you take your children there, though you may like it yourself well enough. "God help me!" the poor young widow Has it come to this at last? Can I do this for Charley's children? What would he approve, if looking down on me to-day? Oh, Charley, Charley! Why did you leave me to this fate ?" Truly there seemed to be no help for her .--Reared in luxury, and taught no useful thing, and now, too feeble in her broken health to put such knowledge to use had she possessed it, she saw herself deprived of her sole protector, and with two belpless little ones clinging to her about to be driven from her home.-The alternative, was, marriage, with Hiram Ellis, son of the man who, six months since, just after the overwhelming tidings of Charley's death had arrived, had claimed to hold control over the state and property which she had never till then dreamed was other than absolutely hers and her children's.

Friendless, grief-stricken, feeble in mind and body, she could not dispute this claim .-Her lawyer reported that it was fully substantiated by the papers produced, and, though he united with her in wondering why and how Charley Craigton had placed himself so entirely at the mercy of the miserly old money lender wondered especially, in private, that he should have gone away leaving his family ignorant of the claim, and liable to be, as they were now, distressed by it in the event of his death, he could not disprove it, nor prevent ts enforcement.

Charles Craigton had been an orphan at an early age His wife was the adopted child of a city merchant, reputed rich all his life, but who finally died intestate. His own family had at once repudiated one whom they had always jeniously regarded as an intruder, and she would have been very helpless if a protector had not appeared in the person of Charley Craigton. He had long loved her, and when he brought her to his beautiful home as his wife, she repaid him by pouring out upon his own youth had been passed. him a fullness of love-gratitude that would have been a compensation for a much greater sacrifice than he had made in thus securing his own happiness.

This happiness had been unbroken during the five or six years of their married life, un-country. surely no right to urge others less endowed him slip. with this world's goods to sacrifice personal inin the enjoyment of the luxuries weich are secured to us by their hardships, and perhaps by their lives. It is right for me to go, and you must not gainsay me, Cora. It is for you to be brave, as well as for me." in the case of his death, he yet, strangely the anxious H.

The soil is of the very best quality of upland and enough, as it seemed, made no allusion to this lose his prize. claim of the money lender Ellis, which now A whole month's respite was gained. Roy's DRUG STORE. dead, Mr. Ellis, his oreditor, had no resource for herself and children, even if she had not go to hell himself, but wanted to get a place in except to take possession of his property; which been so feeble. She was simply glad of the Heaven for his children.

There was an outside appearance of fairness, and there was no disputing the legal claim.-Cora and her children were preparing to leave their home, entirely ignorant of the world's ways, and without shelter save such as might application for what must seem like blood-money, and besides the time had not yet arrived when her claim could be heard. There seemed no resource for the widow and orphans, when suddenly Mr. Hiram Ellis made his appearance upon the scene.

Core had never met this young gentlemen, except when he had called to solicit an interview upon his father's business on two or three

What was her surprise then, when approached by the man with an offer of marriage-she whose heart seemed buried in that unknown had become a spiritual one

The agony of tears and reproaches with which her dawning consciousness of the meaning of Mr. Hiram's proposal was followed, greatly astonished and disconcerted that gentleman. That any lady should weep, except for loy, ou learning that such on honor as that of an alliance with him was intended her, was of her sick child. something quite beyond his comprehension, and when that honor was accompanied by the proposition to settle upon her the elegant mansion and fine estate that had belonged to Charles Creigton, it was indeed quite past belief that proper appreciation and grateful acceptance should not follow. But Cora did make him understand at last that his proposals were not only unwelcome, but regarded by her as positively insulting .-Never had his self-love received such a wound. He left the house with indignation and disapcointment warring in his breast. But he was not ready to relinquish the covmuch for a man who had undergone his training, and to whom money had hitherto been such settlements upon a wife as he proposed, by most women would think so. Hiram is not and besides to encumber himself, without res-

> He possessed, however, the idea too common among persons not endowed with delicate perceptions, or refined ideas, that death dissolves the marriage bond, and that widows are never averse to matrimonial proposals. It is not denied that there may be much cause for such belief; but there are women whose heart's wid-When Hiram knew that he had signally of appare), and with a rose at his button-hole. failed in his efforts, he sought his father to They had come, and her shuddering hands sent. to him must be tempting to any woman.

"I guess you're mistaken, Hiram," he reit- swiftly toward the house. erated. "The woman ain't a fool, and she the skittishness and contrariness of women .-Why, my wife, your mother that was, kept a stood upon the threshold. saying 'no' 'till I really believed she meant it, she gave in as mild as a kitten; when you her? another word from her from that day 'till the day she died,, just two years after." his poor young mother had faded and wither- signs of improvement. ed away in the gloomy atmosphere in which

The result of his conference with his father was, that the old man undertook to bring Cora to reason. He felt sure of success. She was cute enough to understand her own interest when she married young Craigton rather than to go to the poor-house, when the folk down to til, soon after the opening of the war, Charley | York cast her off; and here's my Hiram, a had felt it his duty to enter the service of his thousand times likelier and handsomer than that pale-faced fellow, and will be richer too, "We who are rich," he said to Cora, "have and tain't no ways likely she's going to let terests and lay their lives upon the altar of promise false, when, after half an hour's dis- meat in his shop, and the act was immediately their country, while we remain idly at home, treesful interview with the young widow, he associated in our mind with a singular looking left the door baffled.

advocated a cessation of hostilities.

Give her time to think on't." he said. Making every arrangement for her comfort little and she's just took by surprise. Wait a worm, which he had recordly taken from the during his absence, and even leaving written little and she's sure to come round.' And bowels of a man who had contracted it by eatdirections for the management of her affairs And his advice was literally carried out by ing raw pork in California. The old readers in the case of his death, he yet, strangely the anxious Hiram, determined, now, not to of the Scientific American will remember that was the one ugly point in the money-lender's deeming her answer final, and absorbed in her Scientific American case; but he got past it, in his interview with grief. She was not a heroine, with strength Cora's lawyer, by saying that Charley Creig- for any emergency and courage for any fate; ton had borrowed the money to advance some but simply a weak, yielding woman, without speculations which failed, and he had therefore a bit of practical talent, and utterly unskilled ing two of his sons, seven and ten years old .-

had been the original security for the sum ad- respite, and waited, terror stricken, for the turning of the next page in her destiny. The month was over, and then the blow fell

NO. 26.

-two blows, in truth, simultaneously. She awoke one morning to find little Charley dangerously ill, and while she was hanging over him in an intensity of anguish and debe offerred by charity. The lawyer had hint- spair, a note arrived from Mr. Ellis, stating, ed at a pension, but Cora shrank from making in brief but unmistakable words, that she must leave her home within a week, or consent within the same time, to become the wife of Hiram. Later in the day he called and repeated his ultimatum. In vain she urged the illness of her child—he was inexorable—either she remained in the house as the wife of his son, or must vacate it in a week.

Cora had yielded all her life to wills stronger-than her own; and her affections were absorbing her chief motives of exertion and sacrifice. Perhaps it is not wonderful that she succumbed now. Hiram came to her and was at once peremptory and kind. Peremptory in grave where her young husband lay, who felt demanding that his father's will should be herself no less his wife than before the bond carried out—he was cunning enough to keep his own out of sight-and kind in sympathizing words, and hopeful acts, fully apprecisted by the young mother.

"I will do as you wish," she sobbed at last. Perhaps God will let me die soon, and Charley will know that I did it to save his boy;" and she returned at once to the side

From that hour she never left him until the morning dawned that was to see another installed in Charley's place. "It is for his sake, for his sake," she murmured, continually, as she watched the awful progress of the disease, and knew that only the utmost care, and skill, and quiet could avail to save the little one. "I ought to shrink at nothing for Charley's children;" for so, since the tidings of his death, she had always spoken of them-a sacred charge of him who was gone. The morning had arrived and the servant charged by Mr. Hiram Ellis, with the task eted prize quite so easily. He had determined that Cora should be his wife, and had indeed displayed an unwonted generosity. It was came to announce to Cora that she must preskilled nurse, she stole away, pallid as the dead and trembling in every limb, to the chamber, the chief good of life, to be willing to make where her bridal robes had been placed ready for her. Calmly she looked upon them, and quietly she began to prepare for these strange nuptials-it was the calmness of despair, and she had nerved herself for the sacrifice.

Standing before her mirror arranging the beautiful hair that had been Charley's admiration and delight, she saw enter the gate, and come slowly up the avenue, a maimed and halting man, in tattered garb. She might have observed him more closely, but just behind came Hiram and his father—the old man in the of a second marriage is a wrong that nothing many years for his rare holiday wear, and the can paliate or excuse. Cora was one of these. bridegroom pranked gaily in shining newness

They had come, and her shuddering hands pour out to him the story of his ill success .- | for a moment dropped from their task, and all It was with difficulty that the old miser had ber shining hair fell like a veil about her. She peen brought to yield to his son's wishes in saw them come gaily up the avenue, and stop respect to the property. The proposal of set to speak, with gestures that seemed to threaten, tling it upon Core had been stoutly resisted, to the man who loitered by the way. Appa-and only acceded to when Hiram promised rently they ordered him away, and he shrunk that her children should be expressly excluded from their presence, and, as they left him, sat from the inheritance. As, in that case, the down upon a bench beneath the shrubbery .property would in fact, if not in name, remain | She paused for no more, but went on with her in Hiram's possession, he finally gave his con- task, which she had just completed when she saw the clergyman who was to perform the It was now equally difficult to convince him | marriage service enter; and as he passed the that Corn had spurned the offer, which seemed | drooping figure on the bench, stoned to speak to him. Another moment and the two came

The supreme moment had come-the sacrimust see the advantage on't. To keep her fice was about to be consummated, and she fell home and have the privilege of bringing up upon her knees in a new access of terror. Her her children in it, ain't an offer that any but prayer was interrupted by loud voices from the an idiot would say no to. I guess you're mis lower rooms -exclamations, oaths, and the taken, or else you do not calculate enough for trampling of feet. In another moment the door was thrown hurriedly open, and the stranger

One cry of terror burst from her lips, foland was going to give up. But when her fath-lowed, all quickly, by one of joy. It was er found it out, I tell you the old man was Charley—pale and in rags, but Charley still mad, and he just let her know that he wasn't who stood there, and she lay sobbing upon his going to stand any such nonsense. And then bosom. Had he risen from the dead to save

An hour later, the house forever freed from the presence of the Ellises, the husband and smooth her fur the right way. I never heard wife sat side by side, and tried to talk calmly Hiram received this bit of history with a over all that had passed. Charley had returned grim smile. He did not think his father's to her from a prison, almost worse than the manners nor his home liable to cultivate non- grave where she believed he lay-and already sense in any one who felt the rigors of them. the boy, as if receiving new life from the thrill And he had always indulged a suspicion that of joy that ran through the house, showed

"And you had his receipt all the time." Cora was saying, "and were no longer indebted to him."

"Yes, and had instructed him to give up the bonds and deeds, placed in his hands for security to my lawyer," answered Charley .--When he heard I was dead he conceived this scheme, deeming himself secure against detection. A good Providence has thwarted his plot, saved you from a terrible fate, and us all from misfortune worse than death.

Beware of Raw Pork .- A few days since Thus he argued, but was surprised to find his we observed a butcher tasting some sausage bottle which Dr. HALLET, of Brooklyn, has He hardly knew what to counsel, but finally standing on the table in his office.—When we first saw this bottle we supposed it contained "I stripes of some white bark very nicely prepared. expect she's just took by surprise. Wait a But Dr. Hallett informed us that it was a tape the origin of tape worms in raw pork was point-Cora ed out in the pamphlet of Dr. WEINLAND. Forthreatened to swallow up his entire estate, and was too ill in mind and body to profit by it, tunately, the tape worm is very rare, but when it leave Cora and her children beggars. This however. But she forgot Hiram and his suit, does occur, it is caused by eating raw pork.—

A Wisconsin man has been lodged in jail for getting up one night, not long ago, and drown. been unable to meet the payments. Being in any art by which she could have provided He excused his crime by saying he expected to Rates of Advertising,

Advertisements will be charged $1 per square 10 of Advertisements will be charged at per square 10 or lines, one or three insertions, and 25 cents for every subsequent insertion. Advertisements of less than 10 lines considered as a square. The subjoined rates will be charged for Quarterly, Half-Yearly and Yearly advertisements:

3 MONTHS. 6 MONTHS. 12 MONTHS. 12 MONTHS. 12 MONTHS. 12 MONTHS. 12 MONTHS. 13 MONTHS. 12 MONTHS. 15 MONTHS. 12 MONTHS. 15 MONTH

3 MONTHS. 6 MONTHS. 12 MONTHS

1 Square, $4,00 $5,45 $7,50

2 do. $6,00 $,25 10,00

3 do. $8,75 10,75 12,50

½ Column, $10,00 12,00 15,75

½ do. $18,75 25,00 31,50

1 do. $30,00 42,00 60,00

Advertisements not having the number of insertions desired marked upon them, will be published until ordered out and charged accordingly.

Posters, Handbills, Bill-Heads, Letter-Heads, and all kinds of Jobbing done in country establishments, executed peatly and promptly. Justices', Censtable's and other BLANKS, constantly on hand.

SLEEP-ITS IMPORTANCE. - There is no fact more clearly established in the physiology of man than this, that the brain expands its energies and itself during the hours of wakefulness and that these are recuperated during sleep; if the recuperation does not equal the expenditure, the brain withers; this leads to insani-

Thus it is that, early in English history, persons who were condemned to death by being prevented from sleeping, always died raving maniacs; thus it is also, that those who are starved to death first become insane; the brain is not nourished, and they can not sleep.-Crazy persons are poor sleepers, while good sleepers seldom become crazy. The practical nferences are these:

1st. Those who think most, who do most brain work, require most sleep.

2d. That time saved from necessary sieep is infallibly destructive to mind, body and estate.

3d. Give yourself, your children, your servants, give all that are under you the fullest amount of sleep they will take, by compelling them to go to bed at some regular early hour, and to rise in the morning at a stated hour, and within a fortnight, nature, with almost the regularity of the rising sun, will unloose the bonds of sleep the moment enough repose has been secured for the wants of the system.

This is the only safe and sufficient rule : and as to the question how much sleep any one requires, each must be a rule for himself; great nature will never fail to write it out to the observer under the regulations just given .- Phrenological Journal.

OIL AND SALT IN CAMERON AND POTTER COUN-TIES, PA.—While recently boring for oil on the Bennett branch of the Sinnamahoning River, in Cameron County, a vein of very strongs salt water was struck, at the depth of 456 feet, from which large quantities of salt are now being made, which finds a ready market, at good prices, in that region- The search for oil is still continued on that and the other branches, as well as on the main river, with good prospects of success. A well is being sunk on the Portage branch eight miles from its mouth, and is now down 180 feet, having found salt water, gas, and some oil. The operators are confident of findidg oil in large quantities at 350 feet deep. At Round Island Station, at the mouth of the first fork of the Sinnamahoning, a well is being sunk by a company from Philadelphia.

They are now down 150 feet, with a good show of gas. The indications on this fork of the river for salt water and oil are very good. The inclination of the rocks, the general appearance of the surface of the country, and the gas found. tains along the stream in Svivania and Witton townships, Potter County, are strong evidences of these substances. The stream is several rods wide, giving good rafting freshets for... lumbering in the spring and fall. The valley warm. The bluffs or mountains are high with a shale soil, and are well timbered, presenting a similar appearance to Oil Creek. Most of the lands on these streams have been leased and arrangements are being made for sinking several wells as soon as the proper machinery can be got upon the ground. only of the lands can be purchased until their value is more definitely ascertained. They are now held at from ten to twenty dellars per acre. The country is new and but little improved, but oil there, as well as elsewhere, has got upon the brain, and each one is anticipating a speedy fortune from this hidden and curious substance, so suddenly and wonderfully coming into our markets .- Petroleum Recorder.

A BUCKEYE STORY .-- The Columbus (Ohio) Journal tells a queer story about a married couple in that place. The husband is a tyrant. One evening during a recent severe storm, his wife was visiting a neighbor; and when she applied for admission on her return, her husband pretended not to know her. She threatened to jump into the well if he did not open the door. Having no idea she would do so, he obstinately refused to recognize her; so she took a log, plunged it into the well, and simultaneously with the splash it made, she placed herself by the side of the door; and as soon as her husband darted out in his night clothes, she da.ted in, locked the door, and declared that she did not know him! She froze him till he was penitent, and then let him in.

Josh Billings says there is "one cold, blue. lean kiss, that always makes him shiver to see. Two persons(ov the femail purswashun) who have witnesst a grate menny younger and more pulpy daze, meet in some publick plase, and not having saw each other for 24 hours tha kiss immegiately; then the tork about the weather. and the young man who preached yesterday, and then tha kiss immegiately, and then tha blush and laff at what thas a tew each uther, and kiss again immegiately. This kind ov kissing alwas puts me in mind ov two old flints trieing tew strike fire."

The latest "oil story" is that of an old lady in West Virginia, who took the advice of a visitor, and poured some petroleum along the streams which watered her farm. The report spread abroad of surface indications on the land, and a brigade of oil hunters came, who bought the land at a fabulous price, the owners agreeing to give the old lady one-eighth of the oil .-The purchasers set up their derrick and put down an augur, and in a short time struck a well which yealds one hundred barrels per

How to LEAD ANIMALS .- The horse, cow. pig or sheep may be lead by making a slipping noose and and fastening it to the lower jaw, passing the rope, (which must be small,) round the neck and through the noose on the jaw. It is a very easy method of leading a sheep, not being obliged to go behind and push. After once pulling, the sheep will follow right