

An Incident of the West.

Some years since a temperance man moved with his family from New Hampshire to the West. The sparseness of the population, and the continual travel past his place, rendered it a necessary act of humanity in him frequently to entertain travelers who could go no farther. Owing to the frequency of these calls, he resolved to enlarge his house and put up the usual sign. Soon after this an election came on; the triumphant party felt that it was a wonderful victory, and some young bloods of the majority determined, in honor of it, to have a regular "blow out." Accordingly, mounted on their fine prairie horses, they started on a long ride. Every tavern was visited on their round, and the variety thus drank produced a mixture, which added greatly to the noise and boisterousness of the company. In this condition they came, about a dozen in number, to our quiet temperance tavern. The landlord, "and lady" were absent—the eldest daughter, fourteen years of age and five younger children, (for they called themselves such), called for liquor. "We keep none," was the modest reply of the young girl. "What do you keep tavern for, then?" "For the accommodation of travelers." "Well then accommodate us with something to drink." "You see, sir, by the sign, that we keep a temperance tavern." (Here the children clustered around their sister.) "Give me an ax, and I will cut down the sign." "You'll find an ax on the wood pile, sir." Here the party, each one with an ax, made a rush for the wood-pile, exclaiming: "Down with the sign! Down with the sign!" But the leader, in going out, discovered in an adjoining room, a splendid piano and its accompaniments. "Who makes this squeak?" said he. "I play sometimes," said she, in a quite modest manner. "You do? Give us a tune." "Certainly, sir," and taking a stool, while the children formed a circle close around her, she sung and played the "Old Arm Chair." Some of them had never heard a piano before; others had but heard one for years. The tumult was soon hushed; the whip and spur gentlemen were drawn back from the wood pile, and formed a circle outside the children. The leader again spoke: "Will you be so kind as to favor us with another song?" Another was played; and the children, becoming reassured, some of them joined their sweet voices with their sister's. One would touch the sympathies of the stranger; another melt them in grief; one would arouse their patriotism, another their civility and benevolence; at length, ashamed to ask for more, they each made a low bow and thanked her—wished her a good afternoon, and left as quietly as if they had been at a funeral. Months after this occurrence, the father, in traveling, stopped at a village, where a gentleman accented him, with: "Are you C. P. of S—?" "I am." "Well, sir, I am a spokesman of the party who so grossly insulted your innocent family, threatened to cut down your sign, and spoke so rudely to your daughter, sir; her noble bearing and fearless courage were remarkable in one so young and unprotected. Can you pardon me, sir? I tell you that I can never forgive myself."

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Prepared by WILLIAM H. GRIGG, M. D. Graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, formerly Assistant Physician in the Blackwell's Block Hospital, late Medical Inspector of the New York State Volunteers, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP HAS PRODUCED A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE. What may seem almost incredible, is that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable, are frequently cured in a few days or weeks; and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal-minded and scientific to those which have no parallel at the present day.

During the last five years we have contended with obstacles, and overcome opposition as heretofore as were ever encountered by any reformers.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP is a positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an Impure State of the Blood, and for all hereditary Diseases transmitted from Parent to Child.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is an absolutely effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reticence that it is emphatically the Great Life-giving Power.

Indigestion, Weakness of Stomach, Flatulence, Liver Complaint, Want of Appetite, Debility, Rheumatism, Constipation, Biliousness.

SCROFULA. Struma, King's Evil, Scrofulous Swellings, Erysipelas, Carbuncles, Ulcers, &c. &c. This talent (hereditary and acquired) filling the system with toxic matter, is, by all usual medical remedies, incurable.

RHEUMATISM. If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—chronic swellings are reduced, chronic or rheumatic, of twenty or forty years' standing, have been cured by us.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. The system entirely from all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains, when the use of Calomel is worse than produce. It hardens Spungy Gums, and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. Graduates, root and branch all Eruptive Outbreaks of the Skin, like Urtica, Pimples, Blotches, &c. &c. of this kind, which so much disfigures the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

FOR ALL FORMS OF ULCERATED DISEASES, Either of the Nose, Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead, or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

Most Patches upon the face, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, or other disease of the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion and remove the deposit, which is directed to under the skin.

Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Langour, Dizziness, Indigestion, Weak Stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, which, if not cured, will produce all the symptoms, will be relieved by the use of Constitution Life Syrup.

As a general Blood-Purifying Agent, the Life Syrup stands unrivaled by any preparation in the world.

THE RICH AND POOR are alike to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women
