LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS
Wellsboro, Wednesday, May 17, 1885.

New Advertisements.

Administrators Notice—Calvin F. Butler, Adm'r.
Spring and Summer Goods—J. R. Bowen.
Saddle and Harness Makers—Kimball & Seeger.

Nature awoke last Friday morning with a fitted night on. The hills looked as tho'
Time had stolen a march on them.

The funeral sermon of Mr. Edward H. Moore, late of the 2d Wisconsin Cavalry, will be preached at the Dart Settlement Meeting House next Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. J. C. WHEELER, late of Tioga, has secured
the shop formerly occupied by (Crow), Esq., in this village, and is fully entered upon the business of wagonmaking. We cordially bespeak for him a fair share of patronage.

Messrs. GUNN & TUCKER, late of the State of New York, have purchased the property lately owned and occupied by Mr. Wm. Roberts, and are preparing to offer to the public a large and very fine assortment of Stoves, Tin,
and shelf Hardware.

The people lent the Government more than $17,000,000 on Wednesday last. There were 11,928 individual subscriptions of $10 and $100 each. Every man and woman who has $50 to loan should secure a 7-30 Treasury note at once. Less than $200,000,000 remain, and probably that will all be taken within the next two weeks.

Kill the CATTERPILLARS on your fruit trees, farmers. Now is the time, while they are just setting up in business. Don't wait for them to spin big nests, but tackle them right away.
A slender pole, ten feet long, is the tool you want. Tear their nests down, and kill all, every one. Persecute them continually. Powder is a poor remedy.

TEMPERANCE.—The good people of Charle-
ton have set the Temperance ball in motion, and given it a good start. They have a flourishing organization at Whitney's Corners, and some 60 signers to the total abstinence pledge.
Hon. H. W. WILLIAMS addressed a large meeting at that point Monday evening of last week. We hope that the revival will prove epidemic, and extend to Wellsboro. If it do not it is impossible to say what will become of the rising generation.

THE FALL BROOK TROUBLE.—As regards the ejectment of the miners from the premises of the Company, the difficulty appears to have been definitely settled last week. Violent resistance having been opposed to the ejectment by the Constables employed, Sheriff Tabor summoned a posse, and procuring the presence of two companies of soldiers from Elmira, in addition, proceeded to the rect of war.
We learn from the Sheriff that the insurgents refined from the town on the entrance of the posse; and the work of removal was prosecuted without serious hindrance. Some 24 of the ringleaders were arrested and held to answer. Later news represents that the Company and the miners have entered upon negotiations which promise to restore order and good feeling.

We notice with pleasure that our valued correspondent "From the Far West," F. A. Root Esq., has become associated with Messrs. Adams and Moore in the publication of the Atchison Daily FREE PRESS, at Atchison, Kansas.
We take equal pleasure in stating that, at the late municipal election in that city, Mr. Root was chosen City Register, less than a dozen votes being cast against him. We congratulate late the people of Atchison on their choice of an estimable young man—one who, by steady application, and devotion to principle has labored up from small beginnings, attended with the respect of all who knew him. The Free Press, as its name indicates, is a high-toned
advocate of the Right.

Rebel Inhumanity.

The following extracts from the diary of Advertiser Lox, a member of Co. A, 149th P. V., kept during his imprisonment in rebel prisons,
will give the reader a vivid idea of the horrors
to which our brave boys were subjected at Belle Isle, Salisbury, and Andersonville. (The keeper of this diary was a son of Mr. Jos. E. Lyon, of Middlebury. After much suffering he died in Salisbury Prison, on the 15th of January 1865. He was taken prisoner on the Weldon Railroad, Aug. 21, 1864, and taken to Belle Isle, near Richmond, where the sad history begins. His brother John was captured at the same time. The first entry after they reached Richmond is as follows:

- Aug. 24. We slept on the ground. No shelter.
25th. This is an awful place. We got only half enough to eat. It is horrible.
26th. Rained hard last night. All driven out and counted.
27th. More rain last night. We got a tent
to-day.
28th. A lonesome day. Very hot, and only half rations.
29th. Very cool last night. O how long shall we have to stay here!
30th. We are hungry. Only half enough
to eat.
Sept. 1. We got our little corn bread and meat, and nothing to do but cry "I read!"
2d. The same thing over.
3d. They give us a new place to go to the water. We can hardly get enough to drink.—
It is awful.
4th. I keep the Sabbath by reading my testament. Am as patient as possible, but so hungry.
5th. Nothing to do but to be hungry. We all cry for bread.
6th. A rebel lieutenant struck one of our men and bent his sword.
7th. The old cry for bread.
9th. We drew soft bread to-day.
10th. Drew wheat bread and little pork.
12th. Starvation rules. Only half enough
to eat.

13th. Let the tent down to keep warm.
14th. Heard heavy firing towards Petersburg.
15th. We got a gill of wormy beans and a small piece of bread.
16th. There is a great cry for something to eat.
19th. We are driven out and counted every day. O hunger! when will you depart!
20th. Got fresh beef. Bought two ears of corn and boiled them.
21st. Got fresh beef to-day.
22d. Nothing to do and not much to eat.
23d. Still hungry.
25th. Very cold. We are all hungry, but patient as we can be.
26th. Worked at rings some. Got nothing to eat till afternoon.
29th. Saw two men who dug out to escape.
Oct. 1. Cold rain and wet places to sleep.
2d. We got a piece of corn bread about two inches square twice a day, and a morsel of meat.
3d. More prisoners came in. I found a knife and worked at making rings a little.
4th. About 1100 prisoners were sent off
South. We shall all go soon.
5th. Drew rations and started on the cars to Danville. Packed very close.
7th. Rode all night, changed cars at Danville, went to Greensboro, and camped out in a field. Draw a pint of Beer for two.
8th. Baked our flour on the coals. Went on to Salisbury, and were driven into that curse pen.
9th. Here, we got half a loaf of bread.—
Nights cool and wood scarce.
10th. Stood by the fire to keep warm all night. We get half rations. A horrible place.
12th. Slept in an old house. Eat a little bread. No blankets.
13th. We get a loaf of bread to two men; Brother John and I draw together. We have rice soup once a day and a little meat once in a great while. Of some 800 men here, seven die daily. We get only half rations.
16th. Capt. Davis was shot to-day by a guard. O how I want to get away.
[From this time up to the 23d the entries are the same daily.]
23d. Sergeant Templeton let John and me sleep in the large brick house.
[For several days following the entries relate to half rations, and sufferings from cold. On the 27th he notes the arrival of 600 Yankees.
On the 28th and 29th they had no bread. His brother John was taken sick on the 29th and continued bad up to Nov. 10. No change in the rations. A pint of meal for two per day, and sometimes a little rice soup.]
Nov. 12th. O Lord, help us out of this horrible place.
15th. Nothing especial going on except misery and death.
17th. John is very sick.
18th. John is worse—out of his mind. He says he is going to die soon and leave me in prison.
19th. John is worse. Got him in the hospital
on the straw.
20th. John died about 3 o'clock this morning. I could only go to the gate with him. O,
this is an awful thing!
21st. Poor John is gone.
23d. I am with the 45th boys. Glad to get with them. Have only one quarter loaf of bread. We shall starve here I guess.
25th. Half a ration. There was a breakout, 12 killed and 20 wounded. Few got away.
27th. I am not very well. I cannot describe the sufferings in this prison.
29th. I feel very weak.
30th. Miller and I drew a beef's head with meat on. Feel better.
Dec. 2. Feel bad but better.
5th. Starvation and horror, and no prospect of getting away.
6th. 300 of our men came in. Some enlisted for the Rebs.
12th. I have got well again.
17th. Albert Bryant died to-day.
18th. It is dreadful. Some thirty or forty die every day.
20th. Hunger still prevails. Horror is with us, and death.
23d. Nothing going on but misery and death.
24th. Death and misery rule the camp at Salisbury.
28th. Got full rations.
29th. The men die very fast. O Salisbury!
31st. Only misery and death.
This is the last entry. Fifteen days later
Starvation had done its work, and Augustus Lyon was numbered with the victims of a cruelty unparalleled out of Dahomey.

MARRIED.

In Middlebury, on the 7th inst., by Thos. Keeney, Esq., Mr. CHARLES SAMPLE, to Miss SARAH
SHLESER, all of Middlebury.

DIED.

In Elizabeth, N. J., on the 11th inst., MISS KITTY
BLAKE, in her 21st year.
The sudden and unexpected decease of this most estimable young lady has plunged her relatives and friends in profound grief. Modest, pure-hearted, lovable, she endeared herself to all who knew her, from childhood up to womanhood. Of the faults which disfigure the lives of young men and women she was singularly free. In truth, her character, matured in early youth, and the development of the womanly attributes of mind and soul was markedly in advance of her years. She has gone home early—even as time was crowning Girlhood with visions of a happy usefulness.

ready cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

PETROLEUM COMPANY.

CAPITAL STOCK $100,000.

FIRST ASSESSMENT $1 PER SHARE.

$10,000 Working Capital.

The Wellsboro Petroleum Company has duly executed leases of 5,000 acres of selected lands, lying in the townships of Delmar, Charleston, Shippen, Gaines, Morris, Liberty, and Middlebury, and in Wellsboro, Tioga county, and in Brown township, Lycoming county—in number about 100 leases.

Agents of the Company are actively employed in leasing other choice lands. $20,000 of the stock is already subscribed. Operations will be commenced when three-fourths of the authorized stock shall be subscribed and ten per cent. paid in.

The lands leased cover all, or nearly all, of the
